ANDOVER, N. Y., October 2, 1895.

Dunraven might square his financial accounts by marrying an American heiress.

Secretary Morton and Attorney General Harmon do not agree in their opinions of trusts.

Gov. Culbertson wasn't one of the Texans who turned out to welcome Fitzsimmons to the state.

Whatever they may think of the "new woman," the statesmen out of a job are dead opposed to the "new man."

The news from Mexico and China indicates that the missionary question may become a very live one in this country.

Fitzsimmons was right. What's the use of selecting a referee until there is more certainty of the fight being pulled off?

Another tramp's argument against work was furnished by the killing of a man by a wheelbarrow, at Washington the other day.

Senator Gorman hopes to pull through with the aid of the trusts, even if the administration doesn't give him the "glad hand."

Rose, the latest Englishman to issue a challenge for the America's cup, is several points ahead of Dunraven, in name if not in rank.

Just as though we hadn't troubles enough of our own, the Cuban question is about to get into our politics; it has already broken into the pulpit.

The Vanderbilts will now have a "go" with the titled foreign son-in-law, which fact tickles the other rich Americans who have been through the mill.

The unexplored cave under Point Lookout, on the battlefield of Chickamauga, might be a good place to coax some of the superfluous politicians into.

We gather from the pictures in the New York papers that at least 16 separate and distinct Richard Crokers came down the gang plank of that European steamer.

A Pennsylvania girl of 18 who married two men within six weeks says she didn't know she was doing wrong, and both of her husbands believe her, according to published accounts.

Lt. Peary will now take the lecture field, in order to work the free advertising obtained by his latest visit to the arctic regions. The Secretary of the Navy can stop this by ordering Lt. Peary to return to his duties.

It is quite evident from the tone of some of the Republican newspapers in this county that they do not anticipate smooth sailing for some of the nominees on the Republican ticket this year. Wonder what makes them so nervous?

One of the press associations informs us that Admiral Buce's squadron will soon be the most formidable fleet in the world. If it isn't out of order we should like to ask what use the U. S. has for the most formidable fleet in the world?

At Syracuse last Wednesday, the Democratic convention named the following state ticket: For Judge Court of Appeals, John D. Teller of Auburn; Secretary of State, Gen. Horatio C. King of Brooklyn; Comptroller, John B. Jackson of Gloversville; Attorney General, Norton Chase of Albany; State Treasurer, Dewitt C. Dow of Schoharie county; State Engineer, Russell R. Stuart of Opondaga coun-

Christianity had a modernizing effect upon Yellow Bonnet, a Cheyenne Indian. After his conversion he tried to convert his four wives, and failing he applied to an Oklahoma court for a divorce from them all. Suppose his four wives had been converted, too. Would he have kept them?

The three cities of the first class—New York, Brooklyn and Buffalo—elect collectively this year 64 members of Assembly out of a total of 150 in the State, and 21 Senators out of a total of 50. When the Constitutional Convention a year ago established a restriction which would for twenty years prevent New York and Brooklyn from having a majority in the Legislature, they did not take into account the growing political importance of Erie county, which by voting with New York and Brooklyn even under the present opportunity, will give to the three cities an almost preponderating influence in matters of Albany legislation.

Irryng W. Laremore, physical director of Y. M. C. A., Des Moines, Iowa, says he can conscientiously recommend Chamberlain's Pain Balm to athletes, gymnasts, bicyclists, foot ball players and the profession in general for bruises, sprains and dislocations; also for soreness and stiffness of the muscles. When applied before the parts become swollen it will effect a cure in one-half the time usually required. For sale by L. A. Burrows.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

A. M. Bailey, a well-known citizen of Eugene, Oregon, says his wife has for years been troubled with chronic diarrhoea and used many remedies with little relief until she tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which has cured her sound and well. Give it a trial and you will be surprised at the prompt relief it affords. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by L. A. Burrows.

Captain Sweeney, U. S. A., San Diego, Cal. says: "Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy is the first medicine I have ever found that would do me any good. Price 50c. Sold by O. E. Vars."
