Mrs. L. A. Marvin, Mrs. Addie Frisbey, Mrs. E. C. Palmer and Mrs. Perkins, all of Wellsville, were guests of A. C. Frisbey and family Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Frisbey have returned from a pleasant outing to Bath, Hammondsport, Crystal Springs and the lake country. They report a very enjoyable time.

Thursday afternoon will occur the annual inspection and parade of the Andover fire department. Turn out and see the "boys." That they will make a fine appearance goes without saying.

R. Hardy brought us a potato that measures 1 1/4 inches one way by 1 1/2 inches the other way. It isn't all solid potato, though, but has the appearance of several tubers joined together. It's quite a curiosity.

The Whitesville Fair drew a large crowd last week, and everybody seemed satisfied with the exhibition. The officers of the society did all in their power to make the occasion pleasant and profitable, and are to be congratulated upon their success that attended their efforts.

On Monday evening of this week occurred a regular communication of Andover Lodge No. 558, F. & A. M. A special feature of the occasion was an official visit from D. A. Daniels, D. D. G. M. of the 23d Masonic District of this State. A large number of visitors were present from Hornellsville, Greenwood, Wellsville, Belmont, Cuba and other places. The third degree was conferred, and the occasion was a highly enjoyable one.

A large number of Andover veterans and others attended the convention of the County G. A. R. Association at Belmont last Thursday. They were accompanied by the martial band of this place, which, as usual, made the right kind of music to give inspiration to the "boys" and prepare them for the grand things that followed. The convention was largely attended by members and friends of the organization from all parts of the county, and from all reports we judge the occasion was a red letter day for Belmont. An address was delivered by Judge Seymour Dexter of Elmira, who holds a warm place in the hearts of his former associates and friends in this county. Speeches were also made by Rev. Father Dealy of Belmont, Rev. Father Smith of Limestone, District Attorney Brown and others. The Andover representatives are loud in their praise of all who had a hand in managing the affair. The members of the Belmont W. R. C. and, in fact, the women of the town generally, who furnished bounteous refreshments and did everything in their power to make the day enjoyable, come in for special mention, and it is safe to say the occasion will stand as one of the most successful of the kind ever held in the county.

Mrs. C. Slocum and Josie Parker are spending this week in the city buying fall and winter millinery goods and will return the last of this week.

Benton & Stephens have just received a car load of North Carolina Pine casing, ceiling and flooring, which they are selling at bottom figures for cash.

Be ready for Mrs. Mourhess' Millinery Opening, Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 16 and 17.
