The Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Andover meets the first and third Thursday in each month.

How He Was Cured.

"That night I came home sober—twas a rare thing, you must know. As I stumbled through the kitchen—twas about two years ago—The bedroom door was open, an' I couldn't help but see My little chap a-prayin' at his mother's knee. 'I drew back in the shadder—they both looked sorter beat—I knew they didn't ever have more 'n half enough to eat. He clasped two little scrawny hands, despr'it white an' slim. As if to show 'em up in Heaven how I treated him. 'The party yellow hair, that I called his golden crown, Over an old patched nightgown floated softly down. And there side of his ragged frock lay a little shoe. An' because I was his father that was ragged, too. 'As I stood there a-listenin', this is what I heard him say: 'Bless dear papa, an' bring him home to us, I pray. Tell him how we want him an' how we love him, then. 'Make poor mamma stop cryin', for Jesus' sake, an' anen.' 'Amen.' She said it, too; how she could I can not tell. I promised square to cherish her, then made her home a hell; I hadn't said a lovin' word to her for many a day; I swore at her that mornin' before I went away. 'Amen.' She kissed the boy an' tucked him into bed. Then laid her face on the pillow close to his curly-head; I heard a sob and some stifled words—I tell you I got a scare; I seemed to see the bottomless pit yaw'n for me right there! 'I slunk out o' the house an' into the garden patch. With God on their side them helpless ones was a good deal more'n my match. Down there among the cabbage an' the squashes I dropped on my knee. An begged the merciful Lord to have mercy on me. 'There's somethin' up above us that pulls when we hitch on; It drew me out of the mud an' mire when I was nigh to clean gone; An' tellee what 'tis, fellers, if I've turned out middlin' fair. 'Tis all along o' that boy o' mine nam'in' me in his prayer."

NEAR-BY NEWS.

A Few Outside Happenings in Which Our Readers Will Be Interested.

The meeting of the county federation of Woman's Clubs will be held in Wellsville, Oct. 23rd. A public session will be held.

Edward Stewart died at his home, 4 miles east of Woodhull, a few days ago, from injuries received from his horse running away.

Friendship claims to have the finest and best equipped school building in the county, and doubtless the claim will not be disputed.

Portville has held its election on the question of incorporation. The proposition was carried by a large majority. The next step will be to bond the village and put in a system of water works.

The Democrats of Steuben county have nominated the following county ticket: County Clerk, John I. Stocum of Bath; District Attorney, Frank J. Nelson of Hornellsville; Superintendent of the Poor, Jacob F. Lockport of Bradford.

M. A. Tuttle of Hornellsville, has bought two cows, Ayrshires, of L. D. Stowell of Black Creek, paying $160 for them, and they went through here Friday on their way to Hornellsville. Thorough bred stock pays, don't it?—Angelica Every Week.

An exchange says, that many dairy farmers in Western New York are putting in separators and making the butter at home, and all reports go to show that more butter can be made at home, with a separator, than the same amount of milk will produce at a creamery, the product selling at from two to three cents a pound more.

One of the finest timbered sections of McKean county, originally, was the Annin Creek valley. Pine and hemlock predominated. The pine has been gone many years and the last 400,000 feet of hemlock will be hauled to the Allegany river this winter. Our grand timber resources have nearly disappeared from the face of the county.—Kane Republican.

The Buffalo Courier makes a remarkable admission in the following paragraph: "The Duke of Marlborough says: 'No wonder people travel thousands of miles to see Niagara Falls. They form one of the greatest sights in the world.' Yet it is said that hundreds of residents of Buffalo know nothing of Niagara save what they have heard and read."

The White Creek (Belfast) oil well has reached a depth of 2,000 feet. It is the intention to drill deeper, enough to make a thorough test. It is reported that $100 per acre has been offered for farms in that neighborhood within the last week, but doubtless if the rumor were traced to its source the offer would be found somewhat like the Irishman's flea.

A couple of fellows, named West M. Jones and Clark Story, Jr., did a lard office business at Whitesville during the fair, in selling whiskey to those who thought they needed a little stimulus. They overlooked the fact that it was against the law to thus dispose of the stuff, but realized it later, when arrested for the crime. Jones went to jail for 30 days and was fined $25, while Story was let off with a fine.

Mrs. Brooks, of Fulton street, had an experience a few days ago that she will not get over for some days to come. The fire in the furnace was getting low and she thought that some kerosene oil would start it up again quickly. She threw in a good sized cup full and then awaited developments. The fire did not start as soon as she expected, and so lighting a match she opened the door and threw it in. There was an explosion, and Mrs. Brooks' eye brows, part of her hair and her face were badly burned.—Hornellsville Herald.

The coroner's jury which investigated the cause of death of Frank Burke and William Sheehan, who were drowned last week near Oramel, rendered the following verdict: "That Frank Burke and William Sheehan came to their death by drowning in the Genesee river at Oramel; that cause of drowning being from heedless and careless driving, and said Frank Burke and William Sheehan being supposed to be under the influence of intoxicating liquors; the ford at Oramel being considered safe for twenty rods, ten rods above and ten below."

Sherwood Defeated.

On the 27th ballot the deadlock of the 41st district Republican Senate convention was ended, and John S. Shepard of Peru was nominated. After eight days' session the convention finally made a choice by William H. Nichols of Bath withdrawing and throwing his vote to Shepard, thus securing the latter's nomination.

Don't Be Discouraged.

Many a man grows discouraged because his savings accumulate so slowly, and fall so far short of what his family will need to maintain them in anything like comfort in case of his death. Why not put those savings into an Equitable endowment policy, where they will be available at a certain time if you live, and at the same time secure a comfortable provision for your family if you should die tomorrow. W. H. Crandall can give you such a policy.

While in Chicago, Mr. Charles L. Kahler, a prominent shoe merchant of Des Moines, Iowa, had quite a serious time of it. He took such a severe cold that he could hardly talk or navigate but the prompt use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cured him of his cold so quickly that others at the hotel who had not colds followed his example and half a dozen persons ordered it from the nearest drug store. They were profuse in their thanks to Mr. Kahler for telling them how to cure a bad cold so quickly. For sale by L. A. Burrows.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children. MOTHERS, Do You Know that Paregoric, Bateman's Drops, Godfrey's Cordial, many so-called Soothing Syrups, and most remedies for children are composed of opium or morphine? Do You Know that opium and morphine are stupefying narcotic poisons? Do You Know that in most countries druggists are not permitted to sell narcotics without labeling them poisons? Do You Know that you should not permit any medicine to be given your child unless you or your physician know of what it is composed? Do You Know that Castoria is a purely vegetable preparation, and that a list of its ingredients is published with every bottle? Do You Know that Castoria is the prescription of the famous Dr. Samuel PITCHER. That it has been in use for nearly thirty years, and that more Castoria is now sold than of all other remedies for children combined? Do You Know that the Patent Office Department of the United States, and of other countries, have issued exclusive right to Dr. Pitcher and his assigns to use the word "Castoria" and its formula, and that to imitate them is a state prison offense? Do You Know that one of the reasons for granting this government protection was because Castoria had been proven to be absolutely harmless? Do You Know that 35 average doses of Castoria are furnished for 35 cents, or one cent a dose? Do You Know that when possessed of this perfect preparation, your children may be kept well, and that you may have unbroken rest? Well, these things are worth knowing. They are facts. The fac-simile signature of Chas. H. Pitcher is on every wrapper. Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.
