THE ANDOVER NEWS.
 Office up stairs in Prest's Brick Block, Main Street.

meeting of the Allegany County Publishers Association, held at Bolivar, April 23, 1892, following rules were unanimously adopted to effect the week beginning May 9, 1892: 1.—That not less than 6 cents per line be paid for resolutions of respect, and local notices, or entertainments from which revenue is to be derived.
 2.—Cards of thanks to be charged $1.
 3.—Obituary notices, except such as are published as a matter of news, and lists of wedding parties to be charged for at not less than 10 cents per line.

F. H. Paine is visiting friends in Syracuse.
 The term of the Supreme Court will begin in Belmont next Monday.
 Wm. C. L. Earley was in Horton on legal business Thursday.
 Mary Warren of Angelica is at the home of Rev. G. M.

Hale, who has recently been a student of Seio, has removed to Hart-ton, N. Y.

Miner, of Black Creek, is now in the employ of E. J. Atwood, in his hardware store.

Louise and Carlisle Wilson of Andover, and Miss Ruth Lester of Andover, visited Miss Cora Richardson at her home in Andover.

Our subscribers.
 Dear readers of the News are in arrears on subscription account. We need all the money due us, and hereby request those who are indebted for the paper for one year or more to make immediate settlement.

The Allegany County Publishers Association will meet at Belmont Friday of this week.

We have 25 cents that belong to somebody else, whose name is unknown to us. The money awaits the owner.

Mrs. J. G. Wilson, Mrs. C. W. Curtis and Mrs. Grover, of Wellsville, visited J. W. Richardson's family during the week.

B. C. Brundage's office building will be the polling place this year for elections residing in the first district of this town.

The Sunday evening union services at the churches have been discontinued, and services will be held at each church Sunday evening.

Mrs. Frank Lee and children, of Whitesville, have been spending several days in town with Mr. Lee's mother, Mrs. Serena Lee.

We learn that P. Mulcahy, who is now in charge of the trackmen on this section of the Erie road, will soon remove to this village.

H. Mourhess was taken sick while in Whitesville last week. He was threatened with pneumonia, but fortunately a run of the disease was averted.

Mrs. W. W. Wesler leaves Saturday for a visit in Andover. Miss Florence Hammel left last week for a visit with relatives in Andover.—Chas. Post.

On Monday morning we saw a freight train brakeman wearing a stove-pipe hat. If it were just after election we would think his candidate had been elected.

Mrs. Elizabeth Place and Mrs. J. G.
 Allen, of Alfred, and Mrs. H. M. Davis, of Ward, visited relatives and friends in the home of their youth, Lanphear Valley, last week.

Rev. J. M. Leach will move his house hold goods to Duke Center tomorrow, and the new M. E. pastor, Rev. W. B.
 Wagoner, will at once move his goods into the parsonage.

"Coming events cast their shadows before." We're always going to have a martial band. Young America was out on dress parade this forenoon, with fifes, drums, and flags.

Helen Richardson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Richardson of Richburg, who has been seriously ill with a frog-felon and erysipelas of the left hand, is improving slowly.

Last Friday H. A. Benedict shot a hawk which measured four feet and one inch from tip to tip of the wings. Mr.
 Benedict will have the bird mounted by taxidermist O. E. Vars.

On another page in this issue will be found an article headed "Ballot Law Pointers," which should be carefully read by every person who expects to vote at the coming election.

John Prest has been carrying one eye in a "sling" for some days past. He was slacking some lime, when some of the bubbling fluid entered his eye.
 Fortunately no permanent injury will result.

The attention of our readers is asked to the advertisement of "The Century Cyclopedia of Names" in another column. The book is one of the most useful and satisfactory volumes recently published.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Chase visited in Andover Sunday. Miss Ewa Chase left for Andover Sunday where she has accepted a position in Mrs. Mourhess' millinery store. Mrs. V. E. Heselton returned from Andover Friday. She is much improved in health.—Whites-ville News.

The elocutionary entertainment at the M. E. church last Wednesday evening by Miss Anna L. Harris was much enjoyed by the audience. Miss Harris is an accomplished reader. Her selections in Greek posting were also excellent, and she should be greeted by full houses wherever she appears.

William C. Cannon last Thursday resigned his position as assistant principal of Andover Union School and Academy to accept a position as professor of chemistry and physics in Seton Hall College, at South Orange, N. J. Mr. Cannon left Friday evening for his new field of labor, where, it is hoped by his many friends here, he will meet with abundant success. The Board of Education has secured Miss Estee, sister of Principal Estee, to take Mr. Cannon's place in our school. Miss Estee is a teacher of considerable experience. She is expected to arrive here in time to assume her duties next Monday.

Mrs. Adelbert Moot and Mrs. George Townsend, of Buffalo, two of the leading club women of the State, will speak at the annual meeting of the Allegany County Federation of Literary Clubs and Societies, October 23.

E. M. Brewster of Greenwood grew a turnip that measures 34 inches in circumference and weighs 15 pounds. J.
 B. Martindale has the turnip, and it was he who did the measuring and weighing. If anyone doubts the figures let him go and fight it out with John. He has the proof in the shape of the vegetable itself.

Who knows where E. H. Chase lives?
 The person who rides or walks up Grove street will not need to make extended inquiries to find the residence owned and occupied by Mr. Chase. That gentleman has hung his banner on the outer wall, or in other words has painted his name on a board and nailed the board to his barn, in plain sight of every passer-by. One thing that will catch the eye of a person sooner than will Mr. Chase's sign is the neat appearance of the house, barn, fence, and all surroundings. Mr. Chase has not only painted his name on a board, but he has also painted every other board visible about the place, and the man or woman who doesn't remark upon the attractive appearance of the premises has no eye for the beautiful.
