Adolph Wigger, the cigar manufacturer, has moved from Hornellsville to this place. He occupies Stillman Burdick's house on the corner of Center and First streets, and will have his cigar manufactory in the same building. He expects to begin business in a few days.

Saturday night, Nov. 9, Mr. Stephen Clark of Independence, underwent an operation for strangulated hernia. Mr. Clark is 84 years old and is doing well and the operation will be successful. Dr. F. E. Comstock of this place performed the operation, assisted by Dr. Remington of Whitesville.

We learn that during the recent drouth the supply for the system of water works at Cohocton was nearly exhausted. At a recent fire in that place a stream could not be thrown more than 15 feet, and the fire protection amounted to practically nothing. The people of Andover have reason to congratulate themselves on the fact that no shortage of water was noticeable here.

It used to be said that potatoes contained about 80 per cent. of starch, but a few days ago the News was shown what purported to be the "latest" analysis of the potato, in which the amount of starch was alleged to be only about 18 per cent. That's easily enough explained, though. The low price has taken the starch out of the tubers. But speaking of starch, where is the starch factory that was talked of some time ago? If we had it now we could use it to good advantage, especially in the manufacture of starch. It is estimated that thirty cents a bush-

Many people have taken advantage of our offer to send the News the balance of this year free to those paying one dollar in advance. Those who have done so assure us that they rest better nights, have better appetites and clear consciences, and expect to save many dollars by patronizing the merchants who advertise. Go thou and do likewise. The offer is still open.

The village trustees have decided to rent the front rooms on the second floor of the Andover State Bank building, for the use of the Hose Company for holding meetings. No pleasanter location could be desired, and the boys will be well fixed for a place in which to meet. This arrangement doesn't help them out on a place to keep the apparatus and dry the hose, and the necessity for a suitable building still exists.

Howard Mason last week purchased of Thomas H. Ross, formerly of LeRoy, his interest in a merchant tailoring business at Andover, and left on Friday to take possession. The firm will be known under the name of Snyder & Mason. For the past three years Mr. Mason has been with Burrows & Heaman, and is a practical man in the business. He will be much missed in Le Roy where he has many friends who will wish him much success in his new place of business.—Le Roy Gazette.
