NEAR-BY NEWS.

A Few Outside Happenings in Which Our Readers Will Be Interested.

Olean's electric railway will be extended to Portville in the spring.
 Deacon Benjamin F. Langworthy, a well known resident of Alfred, died at his home in that place Nov. 11th.
 It is claimed that the extension of the New York and Pennsylvania railroad from Rexville to Hornellsville is now an assured fact.

Hornellsville has been visited by so many hypnotists lately that the school boys have hypnotism on the brain, and they are practicing on each other, sometimes successfully.

It is said that a Potter county man who went hunting for pheasants eleven days before the season opened and killed eighty-two of the birds, has to pay a fine of $10 each, or $820.

It is rumored that some kind of a railroad deal has been made whereby the A. & P. will build a road up Troups Creek to Troupsburg and on west from there to connect with other roads.

The bonded indebtedness of the town of Angelica is $43,000, the heaviest of any town in the county. Hume has a bonded indebtedness of $15,300, Canadua $41,600 and Birdsall, $4,000.

The Central New York and Western railroad will extend its tracks to Main street in Hornellsville, and will build a new depot in the heart of the city. Heretofore the station has been near the fair ground.

W. Wesler finished a well at Whitesville, last week, that proved a dry hole. This will probably convince the skeptical in that vicinity that there is no oil in that place, as this is the third or fourth "duster" found there.—Cuba Patriot.

The Pennsylvania Wood Company of Williamsport has been chartered at Harrisburg, with a capital stock of $100,000. The company is erecting a large mill at Galeton, where kindling wood will be shipped to all parts of the country.

The Lehigh Valley railroad has issued mileage books good for use by any member of the family. The mileage is torn from the book by the train conductor, and the books are similar to those formerly issued by the Erie road. Doubtless other roads will soon follow suit.

Say, why don't you try DeWitt's Little Early Risers? These little pills cure headache, indigestion and constipation. They are small but do the work. Benedict & VanNoy.

Karl's Clover Root, the great blood purifier, gives freshness and clearness to the complexion and cures constipation, 25c, 50c, and $1. Sold by O. E. Vars.

Chamberlain's Pain Balm.

Mr. J. M. Amerman, a prominent merchant of Forks, Columbia County, Pa., in speaking of this liniment says: "In reference to Chamberlain's Pain Balm, I can truly say that I have never found anything to compare with it for sprains, bruises, burns and like injuries. We have used it in our family for several years, and feel that we cannot do without it." This liniment will heal a burn or bruise without matteration, and in one-third the time required by any other treatment. In many instances it has cured a severe sprain in three or four days' time, while that many weeks are usually required. For sale at fifty cents a bottle by Lowell A. Burrows.
