THE ANDOVER NEWS.

Office up stairs in Prest's new Brick Block, Main Street.

Mrs. Ella Bundy visited in Belmont yesterday.

Don't fail to hear Miss Mary Lee Cottell at the Presbyterian Fair.

Don't forget the M Supper at the Baptist church Friday evening.

Frank Burrows came home from the Book Academy to spend Thanksgiving.

E. C. Everett of Plainfield, N. J., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Everett.

Miss Jennie Shourds of Friendship visited Miss Elizabeth Owen a few days last week.

L. Russell and J. J. Russell of Andover were in town Monday a few days first of this week.

Miss Belle Ingley, who has been employed by Mrs. Mourhess the past summer, returned to her home in West Andover Saturday.

I. Jones of this place has gone to Andover, where he will, for the present, hold a position with the Elwell & Co. Portrait Company.

Presbyterian Fair, Dec. 11, at Prest's new brick house, afternoon and evening. Open pie supper served by the gentlemen from 5 till 7 o'clock. Come and buy your Christmas gifts.

News from Balabridge, N. Y., contains the welcome intelligence that Mrs. Elwell is recovering from her illness.

A number of old men from Andover, Andover, and other places were in town the first of this week.

Mrs. W. D. Hood of Belmont and her granddaughter, Miss Winifred Knight of St. Louis, visited at the home of Mrs. Ella Bundy the latter part of last week.

The annual election of officers of the W. B. C. will occur at the meeting to be held Saturday evening, Dec. 7. Let every member be present. By order of President.

O. E. Vars of Andover was in town Monday, calling on friends, and showing his brother Enoch W. of Niantic, R. I., the interesting points of the village.—Alfred Sun.

Services at the M. E. Church next Sunday will be a sermon at 10:30 o'clock a. m., on the subject, "Is the Soul Immortal?" In the evening, on "The Two Builders." Everybody will sing.

Bert Bassett was in Andover Saturday.... H. P. Benton of Andover, was in town on business, Monday.... Fred Bundy and wife visited relatives in Andover, Monday.... Whitesville News.

The News last week stated that J. C. Ross was selling oranges and lemons at 21c per dozen. Mr. Ross wasn't doing any such thing. The mistake was ours, and the price should have been 25c.

An exciting game of foot ball was played on the grounds in this village last Friday by the Academy team of this place and the Alfred team. Neither side was able to score, and the game was decided a draw.

A story comes from Canisteo that a woman in that place printed the words "fool, liar," with red ink on her foster child's forehead and sent the girl to school. If the story is true the woman is the fool, and if it isn't true the person who first told it is the liar.

The retail price for potatoes in New York city last week was 35 cents a peck. There is a big hole in the skimmer somewhere between the farmer and the consumer, and there is little wonder that both are sometimes disposed to cry out against the profits of the middlemen.

Arrangements are being made for issuing a paper during the progress of the Catholic Fair, which is to be held the latter part of this month. This undertaking is a stroke of enterprise which will doubtless be appreciated by our people. It is already an assured fact that the Fair will be a grand success.

As had been predicted in the dispatches from Washington, W. J. Glenn of the Cuba Patriot was elected door-keeper of the 54th Congress. The vote in the Republican caucus, which was held Saturday evening, was 158 for Mr. Glenn to 74 for his opponent. The position carries with it a salary of $4,500 per year, and the appointment of about 300 minor officers.

Last Sunday Fred Snyder, son of Frank Snyder, was using a machine for cutting corn, when his hand was caught between a chain and a wheel and two of his fingers were mangled to such an extent that amputation was necessary. The operation was performed by Dr. Brainard, and the injured part is doing as well as possible under the circumstances.

The public is invited to attend the Convention of the County Political Equality Club, which will be held in the Baptist church tomorrow (Thursday). An interesting program has been prepared for the afternoon session, the principal feature of which will be an address by Mrs. Maude S. Humphrey of Warsaw, wife of the State Senator elect from this District. Mrs. Humphrey is said to be an entertaining speaker, and everybody should hear her.

The Maids and Misses of the Mission Band will serve an M Supper in the Mess room of the Baptist Meeting house on Friday evening of this week. The bills announce that the people may Muster for the Meal from 5:30 to 8 o'clock. The Menu is Made up Mostly of "M's," but we suppose every M has a Meaning that will be Manifested at the proper time. Our advice to all is, go to the supper and have a Merry time. Price of supper, 10c.

The judicial statement of the executors of the will of the late Abby C. Cole, was held before Surrogate S. M. Norton, at Loveridge & Leggett's law office in this village, last Thursday. There were a large number of claimants present, represented by eight or ten attorneys of this and adjoining counties, and many conflicting claims under the provisions of the will providing for the settlement of the obligations of S. S. Cole were presented. They were referred to Hon. James H. Waring of Olean, to hear and determine. The first hearing was appointed to be held at Loveridge & Leggett's office, Dec. 12.—Cuba Patriot. There are several creditors of S. S. Cole in Andover and vicinity, who are interested in the matter.

The great event of the season will be the Presbyterian Fair.

Miss Minnie Rhinevaunt of Saginaw, Mich., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. G. E. Herrick.

O. G. Clarke of Independence was a pleasant caller at the News office on Tuesday.

Mrs. J. F. Brooks, of Hornellsville spent Thanksgiving with her son, F. A. Brooks of this place.

Mrs. Florence Saxton of Howard visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Oatley, during the past week.

Peter Joyce has purchased the Bentley property, on Chestnut street in this village, and will soon occupy the same.

J. C. Green has been ill for a couple of days past with an attack of pleurisy which it is hoped will not lay him up long.

Miss Alta Driscoll, daughter of J. Driscoll, has been quite ill for about a week past, but is somewhat better at present.

Mr. Ed Brown and Miss Rose McBride of Hornellsville were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Brooks, of this place, Sunday.

H. F. Wilcox is right in line with hot drinks at the Bargain Store. Hot beef tea, coffee, cocoa, chocolate, etc., served at all hours. Step in and have some thing.

The indictments against eighteen liquor dealers of Wellsville were all dismissed by Judge Norton yesterday, on the ground of irregularity in procuring the same.

Dr. C. W. O'Donnell has returned home and resumed his practice here. The doctor looks well, and his recent period of rest has apparently had the desired effect upon his health.

Leroy Burdick, of Alfred Station, sustained a slight injury to his hand, a short time ago, to which no importance was attached at the time, but within a short time blood poisoning ensued and for several days it was feared that the result would be fatal, but at present there are hopeful indications of his recovery.

The C. L. S. C. will meet with Miss Millie Barney, Monday evening, Dec. 9th. The following work will be done: Miscellaneous quotations; two facts from the work in the Chautauquan: one fact about Eugene Field; pronunciation test, conducted by Mrs. Burrows; reading from writings of Eugene Field, by Mrs. Brundage.

The afternoon session of the County Political Equality Convention will begin at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow, instead of 2 o'clock as announced on the bills. The change is made on account of the funeral of the late M. H. Hann, and those who attend the funeral will have time afterward to hear the principal part of the Equality Convention program.

Our readers will notice the big advertisement of Epstein's great closing-out sale. The large stock of clothing and gents' furnishing goods carried in this store will be sacrificed in order to save the expense of moving, and the people of this place will do well to take advantage of the prices offered from this time forward. The special sale will begin Saturday morning, and those first to buy will get the best choice of goods.

The entertainment given by the Boston Rivals last Wednesday evening was one of the best of the kind ever given in this place, notwithstanding the fact that the company was short a leading member, and the further fact that the audience left the hall before the program was completed. The latter circumstance was due to a misapprehension, and not because the people had had enough of a good thing.

Local items for these columns are always gladly received by the publisher, and we earnestly request our friends to advise us of anything of interest that may come under their observation. We want to give all the news, and the co-operation of our friends will aid us greatly in making a new paper each week. In sending items by mail, the name of the writer is requested, not for publication, but as a guaranty of the reliability of the news.
