There is one Democrat in the United States who wants the Presidential nomination of his party. He is Claude Matthews, and also Governor of the sovereign State of Indiana. He is the sole survivor, north of the far South, of the large colony of Democratic Governors who took office or held office at the time of the inauguration of Grover Cleveland. He is a survivor principally because the term begun in 1892 has not yet expired. The Democratic State Committee has placed Matthews in the field. The Committee tells us he is a good man and a first class Jeffersonian Democrat. He is a brave man, at any rate.

The new year which is soon to make its advent is a leap year, as February will number 29 days. The year will have two eclipses, two of the moon and two of the sun. Only one of them will be visible in the United States, and that is but a partial eclipse of the moon, which is due on the 23d of August. Lent, the period in which all churchmen are interested, falls somewhat earlier the coming year, as Ash Wednesday is on February 19th. This brings Easter Sunday on April 5th. This year Easter Sunday was on April 14th. Those who arrange to have large quantities of flowers in bloom for Easter may therefore commence their preparations somewhat earlier. Of the holidays, the Fourth of July will fall upon Saturday, thus bringing two days of business suspension together.

J. DeWitt Miller will be the next on the program. Miller is no ordinary speaker. His condensation of thought is simply marvelous. He holds his audience spell-bound for hours; irresistibly humorous at times, yet all the time working on a firm foundation of principle and morality.

Every one should hear Miller Jan. 2d. Single tickets, 25 cents. Reserved seats, 10 cents extra. Tickets will be on sale at Benedict & Van Noy's and L. A. Burrows'.
