Heistend er Birmingham, England, save that to the reasons given above man as redes the seger celerity with which the Germans seize upon and copy the good points of manufacture in wither constrict.

The governor of Massachusets looks extence at the waxing debt of the state and hangs out a signal of warning, though the proud old common. wealth is nowhere near insolvency yet, She owed January 1, 1895 about $4,500,000. On the first of 1898 the 500,000. Trebling the state debt in | dollars at the very least—and all my protested Alice, in a faint voice. three years is certainly a financial ex- pocket money gone, and papa as cross der that the governor takes note of it. | going to do!" The state has something to show for | "It serves you right," said Editha. would appear to be no wisdom in ex- said it tending that line of assets at present man for money owed, he may charge he only had reached the winning-post ears for the world!" her, by wrongfully impairing the abil- it? Mrs. Richard Kelly of Conshohocken, me ten dollars, Editha, just until next girl entered the room. Penn., raised an American flag over her week?" pigpen in which was confined a porker which John Blake claimed was his after the pig, Mrs. Kelly knocked she. him down with a clothes pole. Her | Alexia Vane was one of those tall, | defense was that he was disloyal be-like a meteor—a dark-eyed, ebon

"Alice," he said, with the gentle, quitted—by a jury of men. The curi. | ion like a calla-lily leaf.

The postoffice department an . velounces that hereafter private postal ing artists, but Alexia Vane had not nauds will be admitted to the mails | the slightest idea of becoming a po-Canada and Mexico at the domes man's wife. tic postage rate of one cent each, and a to the mails for other foreign countries at the postal union rate of two cents each. This is an extension of well as good looks and engaging L few months ago of printing private her to the Jeromo Park races with his postal cards of a certain dimension own four-in-hand, and they had bet tosuch cards may be used are that gloves because the latter steed turned. they shall not exceed 3.1-4 by 5.1-2 up third instead of first best. inches in dimensions; that they must be at least 2 15-16 by 4 15-16 inches, | her engagements. same quality as the regular govern. | Vane to the dove-eyed, pale-faced | Messrs. Soames & Hopgood's stamp. | a sorcerer. The Cuban wanted to help) ment postal card, of a white, cream, shop-girl at &light-gray or light-buff color, and that | man's size." thorized by act of Congress of May of languid interest, how very pretty nigh impossible; and yet, Alice, child, New Yorkers when they were all seat. Chicago. From 11.30 o'clock, the time 1. the words, "Private mailing card, au-19, 1893," be printed on the address the dove-eyed girl was, and wondered look here. I will pay your fare to ed. side. The postage is to be attached. | why she had no more color in her Creswell Manor. Go to my mother. |

Youthful pupils in geography are wift has an exceedingly thick crust... closing melted matter, it would yield into Miss Vane's lan. whole is varily more rigid pocket of her mantel. Fook upon her surface a fact !

The winter's ne'er so dreary

O golden bees! bring honey From the fragrant fields and sunny: birds! be not a-weary on the wing Till earth grows glad to greet her-

Till Love kneels low to meet her,-' For the love of her has taught my heart to sing!

4 LOST LOYER.

"Halt a dozen pairs of gloves—fifteen

"And I don't want to make an un- and the major found it in.

And Editha Vane lent it, unwillingly Miss Lee?" "Mind I must have it back again on

But, in spite of all her attractions. twenty without an eligible offer. Pen-I niless young officers there were in plenty, briefless lawyers, and interest-,

"I'll marry money, or I won't marry And Major Creswell had money, the privilege granted to the public a | ners, and Major Creswell had driven | thing."

tell that it was best promptly to mee globe on which we live consists of a | Vane, carelessly turning over the varcrust of earth and rock covering a lous packages that Alice Lee laki out tude showed how well-timed was the packages, piled carelessiy on top of and, after a brief search, responded, had begun, I watched, one day, a o'clock in the afternoon the buggy was .

Boames & Hopgood will overcharge

Hopgood, stopping short, and beto count up the packages-"missing? And don't you know Miss)

"Yes. sir." faltered Alice; "but-but; Miss Vane took them. A package

"And why didn't you speak," de- the glorification on January 1, when coffers to help him ploit worth noticing, and it is no won- bill! I'm sure I don't knew what I'm "A likely story that! You must take of Spain. By and by they heard the not seek variety; instead he assigned of Spain. By and by they heard the not seek variety; instead he assigned of Spain. By and by they heard the not seek variety; instead he assigned to every part of the day a particular seek variety. here—if this package of gloves don't Then the rattle ceased. They thought t pay its value, or you leave the estab. expletives hurled about in a furious pline, that brought on in the first in-

"Everyone does it—at the races. And Miss Lee—the rule of the store! And Stepping to the door, they saw a Ripley, the malady which was destinding a stage career, and tells this making a stage career, and the stage career, a I made sure that Lightning Rod would whatever you do don't let me hear any Cuban volante occupied by a fierce ed to be his constant combeat. And I should have had such a more nonsense about Miss Vane. I looking old Cuban with gray hair and method, also, he in all probability fos-When a man in England sues another delightful outfit of summer gloves, it wouldn't have such a thing get to her long gray mustache. The horse had tered the disease. Always a nervous in the long gray mustache. The horse had the long gray mustache. "Well," said Editha, with a toss of Major Clarence Creswell was at the effort to get him started. For perhaps Previous to that time he had never we stopped at a little way-station I in that he seeks to prevent her major her frizzes, "I shouldn't pay the bet if "Labor Bureau," engaging a new five minutes they watched the negro's Than and John the bet if "Labor Bureau," engaging a new five minutes they watched the negro's Than and John the bet if "Labor Bureau," engaging a new five minutes they watched the negro's Than and John the bet if "Labor Bureau," engaging a new five minutes they watched the negro's Than and John the bet if "Labor Bureau," engaging a new five minutes they watched the negro's Than and John the bet if "Labor Bureau," engaging a new five minutes they watched the negro's tried to sleep. esty from receiving the taxes due to I were you. Gentlemen never expect coachman. Lawrence O'Grady, the Fruitless efforts and then the two New "He will, though," said Alexia. gether too fond of the flowing bowl, we big strong fellows, and getting

"Alice!" he cried out. "Surely it is, "Major Creswell!" For Alice Lee was the daughter of property. When John Blake went Tuesday, for my new bonnet," said the old housekeeper at Creswell his well herself who had obtained her the cause he was really making an assault | tressed girl, with rich, rose-red cheeks, authoritative tones of an elder brothupon the American flag. She was ac a ripe, scarlet mouth, and a complex-er, "how is it that you are in a place an she had reached the age of five and answered, in an almost inaudible the "I thought you were well placed" in

"I_I have lost the place!" He took her hand gently. "Tell me how, Alice," he said. And she told him all. "It was no fault of mine," said she -a rich, elegantly dressed lady, whom gro driver gave a yell and started after detail. After a light breakfast he walk-Major Creswell's dark brows met.

Do you know who it was?' said he. his best, but he was distanced in three "Oh. perfectly well," said Alice. Major Creswell started. "Child, are you certain?" he asked. He looked in the direction his horse "I saw her myself." Alice replied. Major Creawell thought of the six cloud of dust growing fainter in

't Soames & Hopgood's. with Miss Vane's perfumed card at him, but the Texan only laughed a.

"What day did Miss Vane buy half h. a dozen pairs of gloves here?" asked them all it had a rude sense of justice becured h

"Miss Vane has bought no kid gloves seesaw that they had made of a plank climbed into it and made the same a liquid. A globe of glass of the just the right size, exactly what "Miss Vane generally patronizes us, Irish contingent rode the plank, all at it. "Quite true." answered the clerk, years and her long reach, saw her and deighbors. The last in the to here to make it up, thought shop with Miss Lee-has been dis-

" barked out Mr. Hiram if only Miss Vance knew everything.-

The Texas Started the House in a Way That Seemed Mysterious. Three Americans were sitting 1. recent afternoon. Two of them were "Nonsense!" said Mr. Hopgood, tart. | young New Yorkers just down here | ત્ The other man was | of that પ breadth of shoulders and a twinkle in entice forgetfulness. Four times a millionaire, by the esti-" his shrewd gray eyes that marked him i for a wag. All three were discussing the American flag replaced tue banner storming and goading at him in an hard labor that he could not sleep, the sleepy people in our car, and when into court, the conspiracy is dropped, ting interested. Oh, the gloves must standing waiting for a candidate to make a change. He was than a St. Bernard dog, they began ing employment for him; as Edward ingly told me standing waiting for a candidate to make a change. He was than a St. Bernard dog, they began ing employment for him; as Edward ingly told me and the money question is tried out. be got, somehow. If you could lend be sent in, when a slight, soft-voiced him of his haunches. They lifted him of his haunches. They lifted him of his haunches. spread, and they couldn't budge him dividends.

out of his tracks. ' All this time the Texan had been ! leaning against the door jamb with bis eyes dancing and his mouth puckit an example of continuous motion. "Hold on boys," he said pretty St I "I b'lleve I know that critter. Jes' wait "land up to the horse's head. The old i "I am looking for a situation," she this time that he had alighted from orating a daily time card. the cab and was watching the pro-

"Oh, yes," said the Texan. "I know i the critter well, and he knows me. Old ever. friends, old friends, ain't we Bill? Then he leaned over and placed his face close to the animal's right ear. Those who were watching him saw his lips move and in an instant away. of such a it. His dignified old passenger grew ed from the house a short distance to and the conductor who had crawled in purple in the face and shouted to the a horse block, where his buggy awaitdriver to run faster. The driver did ed him. Bain owned large tracts of land. fenc-.

'He fairly tore down the street, leav. ing a frail of dust behind him. The driver came back hot and mad. was set down on the platform at the went back to his seat in the fonda.

"|"Why you poor, tenderfoot, I tes' blow-

Cat Alley had its faults, writes | Kenosha. that did not distinguish its early build. | mild beverage and a sandwich. When

"Pression Campage" by Mrs. Buthal plicants for its benefits must be Asserted "Practical Gardener" by Mrs. Wilhel- trian citizens. "Dally Times." Britist is not only in There are only two cows in Dawson

For fifteen years Edward Ban.

Sometimes he did not sleep more tips. The bottom of the shallow than thirty minutes in the course of a streams are heavily manured, the and the plants kept down by in the frequent intervals to take long hold. U.

man of leisure. The Bain Wagon Com- rocked like a cradle, for it was a cheap |sport, and I kept stoking, getting black Dr. Ripley asserts that insomnia was not the result of any discernible man's brain appears simply to have | undergone a subtle change that made |

Mr. Bain constituted himself his own a cup of coffee, I was soon back in doctor, and seems to have reasoned the cab. lat Kenosha, there was no shifting o. time I could gather my wits, we were going across the prairie lickety split. Awaking from his nap with the an-1. I didn't know what to do, but the one I pearance of the first light in the east. be was hurried by his attendant to . stoke up I did, frantically and with talked horribly. While we were backling up to get the engineer and fireman

Struck by Battleship Figures. of the train's arrival at the Wells the interview between the Czar and child of Vienna have established

New Antomobile Vehicle. stock will be issued only for | was being loaded into a special train of |

It is said that he decided to place one o.

by, Admiral Dewey and General Otis.

thely of the Future of t to manufacture, buy, sell and deal in and apparatus, locomotives, ensines, trucks and cars and to manufacture all 1 lus and the Auto Truck company will ased by the two companies.

unection with the new Auto Truck great field for operation, but I de rare to go into details about it. I will make a statement about it later. b. just at present I have nothing to say." torf-Astoria and said that the Air Pow-ing end of the concern.

ed air is taken in. ' the chairman of the commission. but). in any way," said Mr. Leiter, "with the | will probably be Professor Schurman. Hardle air motor tried some time ago | Admiral Dewey was mentioned for 1 on the Manhattan Elevated road here. the purely civilian members at its head occupy the chairmanship of the board | ' There is little doubt felt that the per-ranged will consist of Professor Schur-' man. Professor Worcester, Colonel Den- , quisition of additional plants," said Mr. Letter. "This move is made necessary Representative Dingley's Funeral. by the tremendous influx of orders for automobiles. People are very anxious sands of tons of freight, of which the been inclosed in a casket of plain black | Henry White, who, however, telegrap.

Dingley, Jr., Born Feb. 15, 1832; Died basis. Many trucks are already being. Couden of the house of representatives, States must be a source of pleasure to week. The Democrats hold their sev mains will be taken to the Pennsylva-York business nia railroad station and placed aboard. a car attached to the 4:20 train for New Called to a Pastorate. York, en route for Lewiston. Me. The terome nation has been strang by conversing with friends. He was the Departure of Spanish Troops. Refore Bengyating the Town.

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.-The Rev. Wil the accepted the rectorate of St. A Soldier's Sudden Death. HARRISRURG. Jan. 16.—Captair Cherokee Treaty Signed.

The officer in command explained to the common stock for proper- | coaches which was lined up along the the proprietor that the flag ought to be Appretors are Robert I. Mc- | steamer dock some San Francisco Chi- lowered, because it was likely # pro-The prolation william aese residents of this city created a luce further disorder. The prol terry E. Knight of New | sanic among their newly arrived coun- in reply, assured the officer that iold into slavery and would never be ing seen the English and German . Your Anto Truck company | permitted to return to the orient. A laying he thought he would be at liber will make the flag of Spain. Two men then state the share. The in- lofficials were obliged to resort to great loers of the company lowered the fla torporators are Elebard Croker, Nathan I violence in order to check the rush of At Marianao yesterday, at the the men, which was in the direction of 'the water. A score of them were knock- | vate meeting was held, at whi ed down with clubs, and the crowd was a number of prominent military is 'only stopped in time to prevent its oresent. Considerable displeasure was olunging over the docks. A number of expressed at the acceptance by General the Celestials got away from the offi- Mario Menocal and other Cuban officers 'cials and were secreted in and about

of positions under the United States - Searching parties were | military government, the criticism I started in pursuit of them, and it was ling that Menocal and the others hi leaving their colleagues of less influ has wired greetings to President Kinley and General Maximo Gomez &

I sent a friendly message to the Cuban assembly at Marianao. The municipa

McKinley has selected... Jacob Gould 133,400; making a total for the month Panay, indicate that the natives a Schurman, president of Cornell univer-The latest advices from Cienfuegos the Philippines and to arrange a plan of Santa Clara, Major General J. C. from Matolos, the seat of the so called are that the entire military department - Major-General-Francis-V. uation will be completed Greene of New York has been obliged to the middle of February. Ann Arbor university has not signified it is regarded as certain that he will . President McKinley has not selected) tain Rickard. United States signal corps chairman, but in view of the president's to establish an adequate service, duties of the commission will be more of a civil than of a military character i

Sister Ship of the Cruiser New Orleans, Purchased From Brazil. NEWCASTLE, Jan. 16.—The United 'States cruiser Albany was successfully . launched Saturday in the presence the United States naval attache, Lieu-' tenant Colwell, and many other Ameri- .

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16. — Final ar-The Albany was named by Mrs. (the public funeral today of the late Rep. 1 well. Afterward Sir Andrew Noble, vice resentative Nelson Dingley in the halresting place in Maine. The body has the United States charge d'affaires with silver handles. A silver plate bears ed wishing the Albany a successf which. Mr. White added, has given 18, 1899." The body will be taken | great satisfaction to her-officers an would be a pleasure for the whole counin the hall of the house, where try to know that the vessel was built by Rev. S. M. Newman of the Congre- erything tending to make closer the ties gational church, assisted by Chaplain between Great Britain and the United Spain Will Sell Islands.

the Second army corps, stationed at laws. The government has no Trauble In Johannesburg.

present. The attempt to read the re- | and the laundation of lowlands.

JOHANNERBURG. South African R.

the mutual

remany and Italy."

The Last Petard. indent of The Daily News savs:

ILOILO PEOPLE FRIENDL' Are Disposed to Treat American

Well-Officers Allowed to Land. The customs receipts Saturday were just received here from Iloilo, island of disposed to be friendly, although abso ly opposed to the landing of the quartered in the warehouses and along | the Eighteenth infantry, the Iowa batin to go ashore and furnish them with an mitted.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

is said to be revising his statement. The White Star line steamer Oceanic. the largest ship ever built, was launch. d at Harland & Wolff's yard, Belfast

The war department received a disl patch from General Otis denying alarm ing reports regarding the situation enorted that President McKinof Cornell university on an important i | vana were formally installed in office | many of the irregularities which . The North American syndicate which | vailed would not have occurred.

West Virginia Legislature. there for the United States "because ev- I the nast week without doing anything.

British residents was held Saturday | river has been stationary since 8 o'clock | submitted to the house a petition signed |

Outrages on Priests In China.

ganization Will Be Held

aponsible For Chief Evils.

'It will show that Secretary Alger ! with Major General Miles, but it will will be a majority against him too large ised for his conduct before, during and h camps at Miami and Chickamauga: that ' it was one of his aids who selected the camp sites at Camp Alger; that before

"So far as the Santiago campaign 1. that General Shafter conducted that movement as efficiently as could have

"No fault will be found with General "The commission will recommend to the transport system be placed L der the navy. Colonel C. F. Humphrey. t now on General Brooke's staff, who had ' charge of the fitting out of the trans: ports, will be called upon tomorrow to and he will have to make a very good i 'explanation to satisfy the commission.

Commanding officers of the transports will also come in for a share of transport work during the war and which was sunk at Fernandina. had radical reorganization of the inspect ' general's department and, it is said, will sharply criticise General Breckinridge service. department to take part in the Santiago battle instead of staying at home to at tend to his inspection duties. Had there

"General Brooke will be criticised . and failure to carry out proper sanitary "The quartermaster general will be at quitted of charges of high prices paid,

I for animals for the army, and the report will state that he obtained them very t cheaply, but he may be criticised to I clothing furnished the men. "The report will also show that con-

"Faults which existed at Santiago so existed in Porto Rico, there being I great deal of illness at that place. '- plaints which were filed."

he Commander Muckle and nearly all the civil war, and low on Wednesday." Mr. Vanvalken-Subordinate officers will be know that he cannot win and are only ions which existed | slaving for position and looking for # Senator Quay's friends tieclare he . bo confident of his re-election that he will start next Thursday for a month's "Major General Miles will be criti- | fishing at St. Lucie. Fla. Benator Vest. of Missouri and Dr. L. Webster Fox of Philadelphia will go with him.

On the surface the result is very muck infident as to how the fight will e. AUTONOMY FOR SANTIAGO.

A Celebration Talked of In Honor of the Joyous Event. venir publishes an extra giving a cable message from Dr. Joaquin D. Castillo. and Wood in the interest of the Santiago 'complete autonomy will be granted the brovince. The whole city is talking of a auld never have permitted Miles to go | demonstration to celebrate the pros-

' ciously injured. The local press is mak-

| antanamo district. More than $1.000 is Involved. The officer is under arrest.

Time to Havana Shortened. NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—At moon tedan a train service will be started from ' Jersey City over the Pennsylvania rail-' road and the Plant system which will ' reduce the time of travel to Havens W three hours. Hitherto the train ship connections at Tampa for Havens has left Jersey City at 9 a. m., but the New York and Florida special which nections though starting three Kours later. Added interest in Cult. is indicated by the fact that all apare in this first train is taken, and stateresses are fully engaged until late in Friedry. The Plant steamship Olivette, which He sail Jan. 21 to enter the Tampa Havana Mass Meeting of Shoe Werkers. MARLBORO, Mass., Jan. 16. - The shoe workers held a mass meeting in the city hall yesterday, the room being growded to the doors. John J. Dalton vresided, and the speakers included . O. Pierce of Worcester, president of the State Federation of Labor: Representative James F. Carey of Haverhill and Representative James H. Mellen L Worcester. Some of the speciment condemned the shoe manufactures in the tifying the tenants of their houses to vacate the premises at the Tornado In Texas. LONGVIEW, Tex., Jan. 16-44 nado passed through this could have day from the southwest, form northwest of Kilgore. The wept down and demolished a terminal house on the Moore place perhaps fatally injuring Mrs. The husband was away from The Acres of forest trees are uprocess.

Stormy Voyage of St. Louis. NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—The American line steamer St. Louis, Captain Rough, which left Southampton on Jan. 72. rived Sunday morning after a mon casing the spars and rish