In the sanctuary, in the prayer and conference meeting, her presence, words and nfluence have been for the truth and righteousness, for Christ and His cause. Nothing but sickness or absence from her home kept her away from her place and part in the santuary and prayer meeting. She was interested and active in every good word and work. In the cause of temperance and every needed reform she was deeply interested, and will be missed by the W. C. T. Union, as well as in the church, in the community, and in her home. In her death, a devoted and useful life has come to its end, but with the Father's benediction resting upon it, for "the dead who die in the Lord and rest from their labors, while their works do follow them." Funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. Stephen Burdick, in the Seventh-day Baptist church of this village, Friday morning, and her remains were carried to Independence for interment.
