Now that the Sidepath Commissio. ers have been appointed for Allegany county, and that the Commissioner. have organized for work, the building of the sidepath from Almond to the western line of the county, and from } Angelica up the river, will be pushed | as fast as money can be collected to defray the expenses. The price of the badges. (or privilege to use the side paths) has been fixed at $1. As the work progresses, and the sidepaths are completed, the annual fee will no doubt be reduced to a nominal figure to keep the paths in repair. It will be the duty of each wheelman to pay in his dollar as soon as the commis, sioner puts the badges on the market, so that the money can be used in the construction of the path. Few persons perhaps have a clear; idea of the material effect of the law! providing for the building of bicycle sidepaths through the state. Of the hardships then endured.

'Tis a tale that is now familiar

Of the battles fought and won

To the young as well as the old;

And the honor due our brave boys

All those who left their kindred

We love them one and all.

To answer their country's call,

Who fought and died for freedom,

They left home strong and healthy-

Were broken in health, and crippled,

But those who were yet alive

When they returned in '65.

All honor to the Nation's heroes

Our own brave boys in blue!

Did prove themselves so true.

And we are now gathered together

Ever since they have worn the blue.

In our hearts they ever will stay;

May they be as faithful and true

Each will answer to his name.

To honor our Nation's dead.

We miss their familiar faces.

On every Memorial Day.

And these who still are with us,

God bless the brave old soldier!

God bless them one and all!
