fies, the world will exclaim at no one's having discovered the right way be- A balm to the eyes that are filling, at Odlumbus's egg. Each mechanical i step, so plain, once it is taken, looks beforehand like a leap into the unknown. It is a phase of evolution as aurely as the natural weeding out Back-back to the dance, and forget method of nature with animals; and were it not for rust and the melting erucible, generations to come would | But-kiss it, and toss me that tokenatumble across thousands of skeletons of machines that had to succumb to other more capable machines, just as we stumble across the bones of the mastodon, who died out before his nimbler opponents.

For some reason the south pole has enever had the attraction for people that the north pole has. Yet more north, and so great a reward will be matchless canons and valleys. there is not much to be gained by of childhood. these expeditions. But they will continue while the virility remains in the northern races: and what they do not make ap in picturesqueness.

books for youth say that the serpent | many tramps for the days to come. Always devours its own kind, when so | we noted the windings of mountain inclined, tail foremost. This peculiar- | road or trail among the hills and \ is generally believed. At dinner time | gan the descent over a shoulder the other day in the reptile house of mountain which we could see all t the London Zoological Garden a live way down to the rushing torrent rabbit was fed to a bos. The reptile | the bottom of the canon. crushed his prey and then began to after awallowing it, began on the boa. attempted to withdraw the smaller teenython disgorge, the latter was passable, overhanging rock. nowever, his dinuer. This little incident goes to show that reptites, under High Lights, Life is a bureau drawer which sticks and through a crack we helpless! thrust our fingers at the things would like to reach. Woman can't throw a stone when she drope a flower pot out window she always hits someboo The ideal woman is one whose served strawberries hold out until Iresh strawberries get cheap. Three-fourths of the bread cast upo the waters returns because it has atring tied to it. Few women can sit through a sermon without hoping that the cook won't let the dinner barn. In the chase after happiness there are too many crossroads and too few It is a wise woman who never reminds her husband that he forgot to

After a bad dinner human nature is zross; after a good dinner it is stupid, Man's experience is like his spec-

Ton cannot forgive a friend without And the yourself in his estimation. --

Ah, me! for the waltz and the lancers and lifted away such loose rocks as sans across the Rio Grande de la Pam- namite guns which wrought such ha-Sweet music? They cannot impart fore—as the Spanish court exclaimed | Nor dance down the grief of the

> You are there at the window. Not grieve you in darkness below! But dearest, this—this ere you go:

I care not for tender words spoken

By lovers that call you most fair;

That rose in your beautiful hair! _____ IN THE HEART OF THE ROCKIES

By Mary W. Ros. the southern than at the northern end outing, and invigorated by the cool of things. Perhaps that is it. The bracing air, had been glorying goal has been so nearly reached at the climbs and scrambles among the his, who makes the final step, that all | had found a quiet home among the foot-hills, and every day, as or are striving to do it. An Englishman strength came back, we increased o has just given $25,000 toward a Brit-! distance, until the dear old mounta ish Antarctic expedition, and that will already seemed like well-tried friends, probably give a powerful impetus to who had gently taken from us the cares and anxieties with which we . Commercially speaking back our youth and the elastic vigo

This morning we had climbed to the broken summit of a mountain which stood in the angle of two canous, surrounded by a perfect amphitheatre accomplish in practical value they hills. It was a hard climb, and I first we were too exhausted to see o. care for the wonderful beauty aroun

After a rest we explored the thre peaks of the summit, and traced out

As we neared the foot of the mountable the rope might hang free from back platform. The cowboy got up ing the logs. On the other side the tain, we came upon a group of people above. Avoiding any look into the and hurled a piece of ballast, which little force charged and devour it in the usual fashion, but be- staring up at the face of a granite depths below, his eyes sought that broke an end window, then started eighty Filipinos. He was the first "that fellow told the robbers to cut fore it had entirely disappeared down | cliff which lifted itself almost perpentage so far above. | and ran down the track, with Funston | man to enter Malolos after the capdicularly hundreds of feet above the Mine never swerved from the slender in hot pursuit, flinging ballast as he ture. Those who have seen Col. Funs. horses." stream at its foot. Under a pine sat figure up there moving steadily to the ran, until the fugitive distanced him. ton in action say that he has inspired a pale-faced lady in black, hushing in the trope upon the dizzy and By the time he got back to his train, his men with unbounded confidence in be | figures clinging to the cliff before her. climbing-minutes that seemed as long | The superintendent made inquiry ready to follow wherever he may lead. | teacher shrugged his shoulders. "The tile efforts to reach his son, but separ- point upon which he stood waiting. | did you go and chase him for?" is mode of procedure failed to make a ted from him by about 30 feet of imhours the boy had clung there, evi- face in her baby's breast. Jack waved | threw a rock through your window?" | dently unable to help himself, and for his cap, and the men on top, who could | "Probably; but don't do it again," a long time the father had been trying not see what was going on, looked at | said the Superintendent. to bring him assistance, but without one another with relief. Then, after | Whether because of this restriction | cessive trips. avail. Almost immediately after we a colloquy, instead of drawing them or for other causes the young man joined the rapidly gathering crowd, a both to the top. Jack let down a rope, soon left the railroad's employ and cast white-haired gentleman touched my and in a few minutes father and son, about him for something else to many of you men will go with me to ing his hat again to me, he disappear spirit, so he asked him instead to go | __the father, holding the rope, wor

in their manly hearts. Walking right or it will cut our rope." One of them | to a record already long.

over the ledge, and, bounding from had a few remarks to make. He pro-him indigestion, which, added to the everything on me."

carefully. It slid down like a serpent. | gan to tell what kind of a man Fog- | weighed but ninety pounds. slowly, and we watched breathlessly horn Funston who had been the butt | Shortly after he had recovered his chest in ten minutes."-Life. to see whether it would be within of so much ridicule, really was. In normal health and energy the war i at all to grasp it. An involuntary | had his audience with him, and by the | en him to go on Gen. Miles's staff, but over his shoulder and into his lap. We I tion it was a Funston audience, and I failed of recognition in his project body, fasten it securely, and gave the | dent on election day.

povements of the boy, as, encouraged | and lying down on his back in the teers who could swim. Col. Funston | jarms and legs away from the rocks, lalong the aisle, and threw him off the their guns on logs and followed. push-husband's shoulder, and said: "If only tied fast together, began their long, The chance came in an expedition I were once more young, I would go dangerous descent; and Jack, winding Dakota, followed by one to Death Valanother rope around him, was drawn lev. From this latter half of the travl Jack's cheery voice rang out: "How by glad, strong hands to the top. Wavsave that boy?" No answer. Again ed. So slow was the progress of the and he liked so well the exploring waited. the question, and a young man frall man and boy before us that before in his big eyes, said, "I'll go, sir!" the distance the rescuers were down. line. The Agricultural Department iod he was a regular purchaser of t' I Jack knew that he could never-make Clinging with their hands and feetthat climb, in spite of his willing for they had thrown down their shoes to the foot of the canon at once for aid the boy to a place of safety, and for Funston, at the same time warn. The editor replica, in substance, as while, he himself climbed up far last they neared the foot; the poor " enough to send his voice on to the tortured mother climbed, baby in arm, man, "but as my botanical knowledge your poem will appear. There are just west. The mariners seemed to have father, urging him to wait for the help up the first slope, and stood waiting doesn't extend much further than 975 ahead of it, and we only give place made a westerly course in order more coming. By the time Jack had climb to meet them at the shoulder of rock knowing a violet from a sunflower, I to three poems a month. It will come, easily to fetch an English port, probaed down and taken a few mouthfuls around which they must come. Jack, don't think I'd be a valuable collector." however, in its regular order." of food, urged upon him by kind ladies, his face white and drawn with fatigue nevertheless the prospect was so Then the author went out and fig. a strong tide or current, struck the our friend returned, bringing several and excitement, so filled my mind and alluring. that he set to work to learn ured just how old he would be when Casket Rocks. The ship soon went to hundred feet of lariat rope. There thoughts that I scarcely saw the little practical botany, and in 1892 was in the 975 were exhausted, and rolled up pieces, but the Prince was put into the without pork and apple sauce on his Indians, hunting and exploring, and will run around in just 365 days, and answered: "I would never let you do | From his boyhood days Fred Funs- on learning that fifty prisoners, gue- open mouth of a waiting ash can. bein' there's a human at the other he became a Congressman and was | Enraged at the barbarity of the Cu- any of these remedies on me." below, with a thrill of agony, his little posed to his father's candidacy, but With a letter from General Garcia or- "I knew that cold was coming on," wife saw his familiar figure, with the that made no difference to young Fred. dering transportation to this country she said, with a joyous, therapeutic old felt hat as usual on the back of his | In fact, it was the reason for his being | for him, he went to the coast and fell | sniff. head, hanging over 500 feet of space. | there. After all the speaking was over in with a number of Spaniards. As "Nonsense!" replied saw him wind it twice around his the effect of his oratory was very evi-traise a regiment of rough riders. on to Jack, and he to the men above. Led the Kansas State University, where but his chance came later when i As the rope tightened, the boy slowly | he was a classmate of William Henry | was ordered to the Philippines. lief that his legs were not broken, as his inquiry, "What's the Matter With Francisco, where Col. Funston met, liago. A gang of bandits had been we had feared. He had remained mo- | Kansas?" White says that if it hadn't | wooed, and married a young music Instead of drawing him to the top, perienced with some of the text books, In the fighting before Malolos he to belong to a better class than his we soon saw that they were directing | he didn't graduate, but in 1887 became | found himself with part him to the left toward the rock upon | city editor of the Fort Smith Tribune. | mand on one side of the muddy Mar-

her arms a laughing baby, while with constantly narrowing ledge above the sweating and breathless, half an hour him and that he has only to call for to the interpreter. horror-stricken eyes she watched two boy. After some minutes of perilous had been dropped on the schedule, volunteers and they will be at his side. The question was put and the school 500 feet up; one, that of her boy, mo- as hours—the father, with eager, about it, and the conductor explained. The temper of his men is shown by the 'cacique' does not understand," he tionless; the other, that of her gallant reaching arms, seized the boy, and ' "It was all right to throw him off," feat where two of them, on his call said. "It was I who saved the prohusband, straining with brave but fu-drew him to the comparatively safe said the Superintendent, "but what for volunteers, swam the river towing prietor's life. These men came to me A great shout rang out. My quiet | "I suppose I was mad," said Funs- to a tree on the further bank while us what we demand. Shall we kil. For little black-robed neighbor buried her ton, "Wouldn't you be mad if a man the Filipinos were firing at them all him?" Then, as they asked me for > elers came back permanently disabled | letter of acceptance. but it seemed to agree with Funston. Then the author sat.

ing him that it was a perilous job. "That's all right," said the young came with him three stalwart men mother as she quietly but with deepest Alaska. He went over Chilkoot Pass his sleeves, and went to work, and long boat, and was clear of the ship, who had just arrived in some prairie feeling called down God's blessing on in a late blizard, struck for the inte- shook the dust of literature from his schooners, and were encamped on the my gallant husband, or the father rior, reached the spot where Dawson poetical feet.—Atlanta Constitution, when he selzed his hand with manly | City now is, and started down the Yugrasp and turned hastily away without kon alone in a canoe which he had Within eight more centuries leap year she sank and all were drowned. s, the call being able to speak.—The New Voice. built. His canoe was caught in rapids, will have become a relic of the pres. butcher of Rouen was the only person. split on a rock, and that would have ent time. By that time the extra who survived. He clung to the must, By excluding this country's food pro- been the end of Fred Funston but for eleven days lost to make up the and was taken off next morning by: don't know whether we can even get ducts the German Emperor hopes to a missionary who chanced to be going changes from the old Julian calendar fishermen.—Household Words. convince America that he is too friend slong with some Indians, and who to that of the present day will all have to permit the possibility of its going saved him. That winter he spent with been duly accounted for, and the world when he returned it was with a store no more.

That fain would make sorrow a song! threatened to fall down on the boy | panga on a raft hastily constructed for | voc among the Spanish troops, and | bottles and powders into a great paper. When the flying machine finally Do you know the heart speaks in the beneath. Then, as the men afterward the purpose, formed them on the other was again wounded. At the same time bag, and, with the training that yet told me, Jack said: "Men, I will have side, and took the fortifications at the his horse was shot and fell upon him, lingered from his days on the baseball." to go down to that sharp-ledge below, charge, adds one more heroic service badly injuring his hips. Wounded field, threw his burden with straight as he was, he hobbled to headquarters | nim out of the back window into the it, captain, but I just cannot keep my | ton has been a fighter. He was born | rillas who fought on the Spanish side, | "There," he muttered, triumphantly, head anywhere near that edge. We'll in Ohio in 1866, but his father, E. H. were to be executed, and begged for if this cold develops during the night hold on to this end of the rope, though, Funston, soon moved to Kansas, where their lives. The petition was refused. my wife won't have a chance to try known as Foghorn Funston. His first bans, Funston swore that he would It was two o'clock in the morning. "An right, fellows, let her go," and, public appearance was made when he never strike another blow in a cause In spite of his utmost effort, Witherby thankful for old gymnasium practice, was about sixteen years old, at a that permitted such an outrage, and had sneezed one moment before. Mrs. Jack let himself over the edge, and political meeting at Fort Scott, Kan. thereupon resigned his commission, Witherby, like a white-robed guardian began to overhand down the rope. Far The meeting happened to be op- having fought in twenty-two battles. angel, stood instantly at his bedside.

> Just as he started, a large piece of and Foghorn Funston had been pretty it didn't seem advisable to be found | "Can't a man sneeze? Besides," he rock that the natives call "rotten gran- | well torn to pieces, the young fellow | with papers signed by Garcia upon | added, securely, "there 'isn't a thing ite," broken by his movements, rolled got up, took the stage, and said that he him, Funston ate the letter. It gave you can do for me, You've tried about the rocks, actually grazed the knee of | ceeded to make them in the face of | malaria and the effects of his wounds, | "No I haven't," replied Mrs. Withthe boy below. We saw Jack, on strenuous opposition, but when the au-sleft him in very bad condition when serby, with a glad smile and a brooding reaching the ledge, lean cautiously for- | dience presently discovered that he he landed, the Spaniards having treat- hen manner that boded no good to the ward and note the position of the boy. was telling a good story on his father ed him well and put him aboard a victim. "I haven't tried flaxseed. For-Then he drew down the rope from it quieted down. He finished that ship. For three weeks he was in a tunately, I bought two pounds to-day, above, and, weighting it, lowered it story and then another, and then be hospital and when he came out he and it's downstairs in the kitchen now,

> > FRIENDLY ADVICE.

Saved the Man's Life.

' Breckenridge, who has recently return-accompanied General Breckenridge.

On the Anxious Beach. One of the great magazines accepted from Cuba and Porto Rica. the 'sense of moral responsibility of the Taverage Cuban is extremely limited.

"I had nothing to do with the affair." pluckily made his way around the pro- ing. The little conductor kicked the follow him. and. holding his revolver men-live and I gave them advice. jecting cliff, pushing his body with revolver out of his hand, vanked him up, swam the stream. The men put give every one advice who comes for

"Ask him why he made such a ma-

| paid and I had saved the man's life. There is surely nothing malignant about that. I am his friend."

An Historic Disaster. The recent disastrous wreck of the long list of casualties on the same dangerous reef. Historically, the Caskets are famous as the cause of the disaster First, sailed for England from the port of Barfleur, on the Channel Coast. near Cherbourg. The wind was fair. back to save his sister. The crew and retinue crowded on board the boat, and

The output of English shipperds is d 1898, frichtding warships, was 805 ven sels, aggregating 1,559,125 tens.

to Take the Lifeboats.

which sails from here today.

192 steerage.

300 yards ahead.

slack lookout.

work of lightering proceeds.

Comments by the Press.

The Morning Post and The Daily Mail

connection with the German Baptist ▲ church conference. The seating capacity large crowds were unable to gain

children gathered at the tabernacle

the morning. Three services were F

Boys Lost Their Places.

boys. Mr. Wilson, the proprietor, re-

Frehman Gets a Comedy.

I man, the American theatrical manage

Very little difficulty in filling mittance. Four thousand Sunday

during the day.

of the structure was overtaxed, and

front, and spreading with unusu- concerning the consideration shown him president of the chamber of representa- ucational qualification would not prove Jection of the Cubans' proposition to al rapidity, driven by a strong wind, by American naval circles that When the vessel struck, assistance destroying everything in its way on brought a strong letter of thanks from de Korko, Marquis Imperiali, secretary hensive to exclude those taught espe- the towns. was summoned by means of rockets. As | that street down to and including Don- | the minister of marine of Germany to state the signals of distress were ahue & Smith's establishment and tak- | Secretary Long and to some extent offsees at Coverack the rocket apparatus | in all of the water front buildings | set the tension arising over alleged d' was made ready, and a crew of four men | abreast of the same blocks. The fire | ferences between the American put out in a lifeboat and proceeded to | crossed the street, burned through and | German naval officers in the Philipthe stranded ship. The men report that | spread over to Second street, covering | pines.

when they reached the Paris they found | the principal business portion of Daw- | Speaking of the technical construc- | not the slightest sign of excitement son, leaving it all in ashes, with the tion of American ships, Captain von Retific world and society. As he entered merous and enthusiastic. aboard the ship. All the passengers | firemen helpless and powerless to do | beur-Paschwitz said: were below at the time. As there was anything. The fire consumed every- "It is quite noticeable that your him. His eloquence and perfect com- qualification is that a majority of those 35 years old, by stabbing her. evidently no immediate danger, the life- thing from the Simmons Royal cafe American naval constructors and ship- mand of French made a delightful im- in cities who formerly had property, boat crew left the Paris and came to down to and opposite the Fairview ho- builders show the characteristic energy pression. His theme was "The Opportu- the Spaniards in particular and many tel. Every building burned like tinder, of Americans in wishing to find some- nities For Youth In the New Century," | capable Cubans, have been totally ruin- | The first intimation of the vessel due to the fact that they had been thing new. While the American ships a century which, he said, would be full ed during the last three years and striking the rocks was a slight grating standing for nearly two years and the are built on the same general lines as of problems for church and state. sound, which was followed by a second logs were as dry as powder. The fire the German and English ships, yet they Later he dined at the United States property qualification enforced. Senor city market, yesterday shot and probaand more pronounced shock. The look- spread with such great rapidity that show a tendency to try new ideas, to legation with a number of diplomatists Capote is carefully considering the bly fatally wounded Mrs. Jennie Campout gave a warning shout, but before the people were unable to save any- experiment on details. For instance, of note. Today he leaves for Paris. the engines could be reversed the ship thing in the way of furniture, goods the disposition of ammunition and the Mr. and Mrs. Storer will go to Madrid! and clothing, so that the losses when ammunition hoists are admirable con- on June 1.

aware that an accident had happened I than at first estimated.

cabin passengers, 109 second cabin and lopening of navigation, which will not be for several weeks. Mr. Henry Wilding, managing agent I of the line, who arrived from Southampton by special train to arrange for ' The Coming Currency Reform Megsthe transportation of the passenger ure Briefly Outlined. said: "I have had no opportunity to in- ' WASHINGTON, May 22.—It is under- ' quire as to the facts and certainly have no theories to indulge. The Cherbourg | stood that the house Republican caucus was by no means unusual. Captain of currency reform has agreed upon a Watkins is one of the most trustworthy | measure along the following lines: officers on the Atlantic, and I must The redemption of all obligations await the results of the investigation | the government in gold on demand. ...) before passing any judgment." tion as when she struck, her bow being

The Paris lies in much the same nosi- | gold, to be reissued only for gold. Permitting national banks to issue stern about 200. Almost in a direct line | ment bonds deposited in the treasury. and about a mile ahead lies the wreck instead of 90 per cent, as at present. of the Paris is a great ragged rock, and national banks to be $25,000 instead of liance, and that in turn may be the reaa ridge of recks projects into the water $50,000, as at present.

It adopted because harmonious agreement American man-of-war are probably Newport News, Norfolk and Hampton Bryan. Covers were laid for 300, and has been decided to await special sal- on it was possible, which was not the equal to those of any naval service in went to Old Point to see the cruiser, and every seat was taken. Judge William vage apparatus and the next tide to- case when more radical measures were the world." day. The sea is still smooth, and the suggested. An effort was made yesterday afternoon to tow the Paris off the rock,

way. Captain Thurber says that when hour. The attempt was entirely unsuc-I ure his papers were signed by the Fili-LONDON May 22.—All the morning sel cleared by them. On arrival at who were just out from the Philippin hegan wreck, in which the loss of all | ports will be put under police protection | and of the fraternizing of your sailors the officers left the position of the ship. | to prevent boarding house runners tamso far out of its proper course, unexpering with the crews. plained, the verdict only showing a

Instructions From the Czar. LONDON, May 22.—The Morning Post call attention to the "mysterious and publishes the following dispatch from the White House from an unofficial napolis. its correspondent at The Hague: "M. / urge an improved system of buoys and | Staal, head of the Russian delegation ( until the fullest investigation shall have ed final instructions from Emperor Nicholas to deal with the question of ed and had sunk the Nicaraguan vesrealizing compulsory arbitration, wheth- sel. The report finds no credit here. edge yesterday near the docks of the Large Gathering of German Baptists. | er by a supreme tribunal c ROANOKE, Va., May 22.—Fully 20,000 | great powers or by private tribunal c people were on the grounds and in at- sisting of the powers whose interesty tendance at the services held vesterday | might be at stake, with the subsequent

Dams Washed Away Long Pond and McAlester dams have the parent dam. The rush of water; sweeping everything before it. The loss will be $50,000. The mishap will serious. week ago for an increase in wages have | per streams. Heavy rains caused been supplented in their work by other | trouble.

> Hamburg, will land today 1,308 Galicians, who are bound to northwest Canada to become settlers. One of the in

A Poetess Keeps Birthday. LONDON. May 22.—Mr. Charles Froh-RENTON, May 22.—Clementine ble same a generation ago, celebrated comedy, "The Tyranny of Tears," by day in this city. Among those who vis-

Those of Germany, but We Adop More New Ideas - Our Sailors Equal to Any In the World.

A majority of the passengers were not | footed up promise to be even greater | trivances. The ammunition is served | through one central chamber and is deuntil they were summoned on deck, This fire came at a time when the livered immediately back of the gun, when they found the boats all ready to mills and dealers in building materials | ready to be placed in the breech and | ▲ receive them. The sea was calm at the | had exhausted their winter supply and | fired. This is so obviously the right | ▲ time, and the passengers were safely | were waiting the opening of navigation | thing and so practical in the rush and [ got aboard the lifeboats without diffi- to replenish their stocks. The result is confusion of action that all navies foi- Alberto Barretto, one of the Filipino with the military administration and culty. From the boats they were trans- that there is a famine in all kinds of lowed the lead of your American con- commissioners, had an interview yes- persuade General Brooke to sign deferred to tugs which had gone to the building material and furniture, such structors when they first adopted this terday with the American Philippine crees under a belief on his part that the assistance of the distressed vessel and as sashes, doors, locks, hinges, etc. The method of getting the ammunition to commission. The meeting was approved people desire them when as matter of The mails of the Paris will be for- the burned district have quadrupled in points which appeal to the naval ob- commanders, who is thoroughly in ac- except their own individual-wishes. server if not to those unfamiliar with cord with Aguinaldo in his efforts to Major Eugene F. Ladd, treasurer c steamer Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, door locks $8 each and everything else | naval architecture, and altogether they obtain peace. in proportion. The town is paralyzed, are developing and perfecting the ideal

"The American naval officers have ment that the United States proposes to much technical knowledge, perhaps establish here. The Filipino more than German officers, but it is a sioners have no power to effect a setsion of those larger subjects of strategy. torpedo maneuvering, etc. "As to the American sailor, it is hard | the insurgents, carrying their arms | Ladd's plan. different. Physically the American sail- | decided to disarm the remaining for is a splendid specimen. The Ameri- I tiamen.

to get a good class of men, drawn from | regiment will start for Negros today. a wide stretch of country and with freauent infusions of new blood, while can system gets a better class of men in Hampton Roads yesterday afternoon tends to give the men greater self re- | Wrecking company's tugs I. J. Merritt | gave its initial banquet at Creighton son they are such good fighters. They | steamer S. T. Morgan. She is now at | served to bring together the Nebraska | 😿 certainly know how to keep your ships anchor nearly two miles off Old Point | followers of Populistic doctrines, espe-

When the return of Admiral Dewey! launches. The Mercedes left Santiago a | toastmaster. Among the speakers were The Stillwater Arrives From Hoilo. | was referred to, Captain von Rebeur-NEW YORK, May 22.—The Nova Sco- | Paschwitz spoke of the enthusiastic and When she is released from quarantine. of Iowa and W. J. Bryan. the devotion felt for him by the Amer- | she will go to the Pertsmouth navy yard ; stopping at Delaware breakwater on the lican people. Then, referring to alleged i for repairs. Noted Lawyer Dead. DUNKIRK, N. Y., May 22.- Judge ! Francis Smith Edwards, one of Chaulaffairs at Manila. While at home Judge Edwards was born in Windsor in 1838. He represented this district in

> The Rumored Bluefields Fight. WASHINGTON, May 22.-The presi- | marle fame to Washington and made ! dent discussed last night with Secretary lupon in Nicaraguan waters by a war

, she was always of a happy disposition

Allegemeiner-Alster club. has invited Still Fighting Snow. the Yale university boat-club to send crew to participate in the annual gatta to be held under its auspices g

Homes For Workmen

has declared the city of Alexan-

COMMISSIONERS MEET

sults—Negros Militia Desert.

Arrival of Reina Mercedes.

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., May 22,-The congress for a number of years, begin- J ining in 1854. While in congress he took

Lieutenant William B. Cushing of Albe- ' pointment to the Naval academy at An Oil Vessel Burned.

ing bark Ariadne. Captain Ehler, of dermany, was burned to the water's '

Standard Oil company at Bayonne, N

i missing, and it is believed that he lost !

i his life in the fire. The pier to which I'

. stroyed, as was also the large buildir

Two other piers were badly damage

The loss on the piers and the ship will

German Invitation Declined

rowing club of Germany, the Hamburg

The Yosemite at Gibraltar.

States auxiliary cruiser Yosemite, carrying Captain Richard P. Leary, U. 5

4. N., the newly appointed governor of Thy more aban the Demand.

. tion company has announced a 5 per

GIBRALTAR, May 22.-The United

NEW HAVEN, May 22.-The crack

Hans Rencke, 22 years of age, is

mer of Lawingking-New Treasury System Will Be Adopted July The Bonded Debt of Havana,

tives, M. de Beernaert, Comtesse Delie satisfactory unless sufficiently compre- surrender their arms to the mayors of of the Italian legation, and Marquise | cially for elections. He says the Cuban | David J. Field, a retired capitalist of league is doing much in the way of pre- | St. Louis, who shot and killed his negro Saturday the archbishop addressed paring the voters to exercise the elec- man servant last Thursday night at his the students of the university. The hall toral function. Day and night schools residence, was exonerated by a corowhere the address was delivered was are conducted in all the villages for ner's jury. crowded by distinguished representa-; this purpose, the education being gra- | While watching a ball game on the tives of the diplomatic corps, the scien- | tuitous and the attendance being nu- | hillside by the West Shore railroad, bethe entire audience rose and cheered The great objection to a property Moretta murdered his wife, Gavinna, problem and will submit his views to bell, Mrs. Emma Landis and Mrs. Anna Governor General Brooke about the Meck. The Campbell woman had demiddle of next month, when he will ask serted Moore for another man. He had i for the issuance of such a decree as he | requested her to return his photographs. will then have in readiness. The Cu- | She did not answer his letters, and yes-I bans for the most part, however, dis- | terday Moore armed himself and went Interview at Manila Without Reapprove the present system of making to her rooming house. laws, contending that Senores Capote!

Eugenie Not Dead. few articles still remaining outside of the gun. There are many of these small of by General Luna, one of the rebel fact the secretaries considered nothing She is well and yesterday received her The primary object of the interview | begin a new treasury system of dis-

> Twenty-five native militiamen at Ba- | principal cities and correspondents colod, Negros island, have deserted to others to facilitate carrying out Major The Third battalion of the California | Jan. 1. The issues are made recallar

A Populist Banquet. OMAHA May 22 .-- The Peter Cooper ' and Rescue and accompanied by the hall Saturday evening. The occasion There is about 16 feet of water in the than ardent advocates of general curthree forward compartments, but the the forward compartments, but the than ardent advocates of general curthree forward compartments, but the than ardent advocates of general curthree forward compartments, but the than ardent advocates of general curthree forward compartments, but the than ardent advocates of general curthree forward compartments, but the than ardent advocates of general curthree forward compartments, but the than ardent advocates of general curthree forward compartments, but the than ardent advocates of general curthree forward compartments, but the than ardent advocates of general curthree forward compartments, but the than ardent advocates of general curthree forward compartments, but the than ardent advocates of general curthree forward compartments, but the than ardent advocates of general curthree forward compartments, but the than ardent advocates of general curthree forward compartments, but the than ardent advocates of general curthree forward compartments, but the than ardent advocates of general curthree forward compartments, but the than ardent advocates of general curthree forward compartments, but the than ardent advocates of general curthree forward compartments, but the than ardent advocates of general curthree forward compartments, but the than ardent advocates of general curthree forward compartments, but the than ardent advocates of general curthree forward compartments, but the than ardent advocates of general curthree forward compartments, but the than ardent advocates of general curthree forward compartments are considered forward compartments. The than are considered forward compartments are considered forward compartments and the forward compartment curthree forward compartments are considered forward compartments. The third compartment curthree forward compartment curthree forward compartments are considered forward compartments. The considered forward compartment curthree forward compartment cur shipshape, and the discipline and gen- | Comfort, where she will be held in quar- | cially that wing that has been ardent | }

> Stove Works Burned. DIGHTON, Mass., May 22.—The works | cost of same in the U.S. and foreign countries company, acting as depository of the

tween Hoboken and Jersey City, John

Shot Three Women.

KANSAS CITY, May 22.-In a fit of

We advise, if patentable or not, free charge. Our fee not due till patent is secured A PAMPHLET. " How to Obtain-Patents." wit

ONE GIVES RELIEF.

Don't Spend a Dollar

TATOOTTO STATE

until you have tried

GODENES) DADED EDED

You can buy them in the paper 5-cent cartons

Ten Tabules for Five Cents.

If you don't find this sort of

Ripans Tabules

