Berber, after a camel ride of eight hundred miles through the eastern Soudan. He reports that everywhere he found the natives exceedingly thankful for their release from the ling through the rifts, lit up for a moterrible sufferings to which they have I ment the grim. Siberian prison been subjected for many years by the low, throwing the low buildings into syrannical and blood-thirsty rule the Dervishes, of which he found abundant evidences in all directions.

General Wilson, military commander of the province of Matanzas, has set | toned up tightly to keep out the biting an admirable example for the commanders of other Cuban provinces in the action he has taken for the protect outer block of buildings nearest tion and care of the unfortunate little | river, a scene of silent activity was ones of the province who were or taking place. phaned by revolution's tragedy and Weyler's assessinations. He has instigated and covered with the influ- | the guard will not be round for an ho ence of his position the establishment of an asylum for the shelter of orphans of reconcentrados and destitute children.

Every European market has been audibly. A moment later two similar invaded by the United States and taps were heard from the other side. Great Britain's trade has suffered consequence. It is not difficult a supply an explanation. A better arti cle at a lower figure has been fur- | from this awful horror," said .Chanished to consumers by American off. manufacturers. The English make many articles by hand which we make by machinery. They have thus tallen | danger or not, to try and win a wobehind American manufacturers in man for my wife." trade competition because of inferior skill and higher cost of production, says the St. Louis Republic.

A Chicago physician advocates a story," continued Chakoff. Tarpeian rock from whose top the Romans hurled to death their malefactors. 'The doctor errs, though, in ' the old times, to go no further back torture did not prove an efficient de- | ered that the information must have low." terrent, while in England in one year | come from one who could be no other three hundred peop e were hanged for than his rival." robbery, which continued to increase. The Chicago doctor is working at the their emotion. A strange recogniwrong end. It is not the severity of | indeed, to take place in the darkness the death penalty as it is the uplifting | of a prison cell—each to have been the of the masses and the creation of conditions that will lessen crime.

The history of the arts and sciences, and especially of those which concern | each other's identity. history of man's successful effort to set in motion the latent energies, the | Clank! clank! clank! The guard was inert masses of nature, and hence there approaching. opment of transportation and the continued, forgetting in a moment exciting climax through which they mere love of the spectacular; for the i with a Russian oath. "A taste of my formance is a further breaking away from that universal stagnation arts and sciences to overcome

Europe has one or more public baths | which was rising. The lamp droppe which have a swimming-pool and are to the floor and went out, and a rifle coat, Chakoff, it is neccessary. Brookline (Mass.) public baths, an l city-have its public baths in each Proceeding cautiously into the open pointing towards the wood. rootine anthorities have chosen for

One Who Feiled. He started out to make his name And few have heard That there is such a man as I Upon this twirling sphere-clouds obscured its face.

| wind, paced slowly to and fro. Insic

I the prison all seemed still, and to the unsuspecting guards was so; but in the

"Have you got your cursed irons

"Almost, Ivan. But do not hurry

What a lucky thing it was yo off?" inquired a voice, in a whisper.

managed to secrete these files. Now.

Give the signal gently, Ivan."

' night it is for the attempt!"

our comrades can escape with us.

"Providence is helping us to escape

' "Oh, what thoughts does freedom con

"What? Then that is another tie to

"But I had a rival, whom I never

I only their heavy breathing telling

' cause of the other's imprisonmen.

fust at the time they intende

be taken to a Siberian hell to live

Chakoff. "And I told you my story,

had just passed, and only thinkin threatened, the guard walked slowly to the door, and, unlocking it, looked · Stepping forward, he was about

To and fro the men staggered,

into the cell. A deep groun smote knout will do him good!"

bind us. Although we never met be-

Had more such fallures here. He missed the goal he had in view And grieves to-day; He's bent and gray: He's won a greater prize But they'll weep when he dies.

wards the river, and, plunging in, all rections. The dark, heavy clouds were drift ing slowly across the sky, driven by a I steadily rising wind. The moon, ship safely reached the other bank. end of a rifle in the hands of Ivan, Ivan: the clasp of a wounded soldier, and, when they came to a stop before a hid. strong relief, then leaving everything I blacker than before as another mass on the scene, and he taking the com- mains of horses and men. mand, a strong force set out in pursuit | Here and there around the place, a three hours later. light flickered feebly, showing the no-. sition of the sentries; and they, but

men had succumbed to the horrors of finite peace on his face. the day's march through the broken ountry, and the remainder were sleeping, not caring whether they were re-Ivan was keeping guard over the camp, and, finding it a difficult matter o keep his eyes onen, he walked to his frame, and he muttered a startled exclamation. In the distance, haps not a quarter of a mile away, he Ivan silently went to the wall of the saw the camp of Cossacks!

"Yes, they are ready. Chakoff, and I will await our signal. What a grand, "The soldiers are here," was the north of the wood, and, knowing we are here, wil, attack us to-morrow. Then we may expect no mercy; we 'shall be shot down like dogs." For a moment Chakoff did jure up. Back to Moscow, whether in a 'speak. He was thinking of Clarissa, the woman who held such a place in! that would appear incredible, were ; iis heart. Ivan seemed to know what: was passing in his mind. "You are thinking of--of her," he Jerry Eke of Norfolk, England, was a free man in Moscow, I loved a done anything to win her for my meat of the animal was cut in small "One night, while at my society's manner? We shall continue at once about to give up the contest. He had meeting, the police broke in and I was through the woods, where those brutal stopped, however, to inquire when the

For a moment the men were silent: enemies' rifles! No, the only way is defeated only once and then through soldiers are very near to us, and are armed and strong; fifteen of us. a. armed and weak. If we become a the confusion and darkness." "There is another way," said Ivan. · forward, "by which nearly l of you may escape." "The dawn is near, therefore my ber of the Cossacks detach themse.

From the main body and after an hou. to not return, follow Chakoff's plan. nuired Chakoff, anxlously.

'Good-bye, and forgive me." "Come back: Ivan! come back!" cried i

' A figure crept toward the Cossack is

The health about twenty, who armed themselves and activity, and a few minutes leter

They formed in charging order, and ganged in locand.

Suddenly a loud cry for help, in- with a wild cheer, dashed along the upon their ears, and they direction. The sound of beating boofs | Jests and Varan by Funny Men of the Press, reglized that in some way the cap lerew fainter in the distance, and at tured man had eluded the vigilance of last died out altogether. Instantly a scene of wild! Suddenly one of the anxious watc of them there for a very little offense, la wild cry of terror: the opportunity offered them for es- credited.

the precipate of the prison without l return. The sun began to rise,

Then the visitors, after eating of the The officer in command had been food they found, followed in the path | me with my example and I'll tell you stunned by a blow from the butt of the company of soldiers led by something. For two miles they journeyed on,

therefore, no instant chase was given; ideen chasm, at the hottom of which but the deputy governor was quickly they dimly discerned the mangled re-Descending, they searched among of women just by your style?" the gruesome mass, and at last found l the body of a man, which they regard | and me with this same old dress for A band of fifteen hungry and weary ed with great tenderness. And they | the last two years!" men rested the night following the reverently buried him just as he was, escape in a clump of woods. Seven in his large, gray coat—a look of in-

> In a cozy little room, in an English household, a man and woman were seated. On the knees of the former "And why did your brother Ivan > > tear came to the man's eye, and

"When he went to the officer." way that we were escaping round the r end of the wood. He let him lead the men there, and, going at full speed they jumped straight over the chasi

GLUTTONOUS FEATS.

larissa, is it not his bedfime?"

Anthentic Instances of Abnorme Capacity That Seem Incredible. The Evening Standard of London gives in an article on gluttonous feats not for the statement that they are sustained by unimpeachable record, ' weighed it wi'the pun'o' sugar I gat muttered, brokenly, "And it was I cording to Dr. Jessop, agreed at a ! ing can break. Let me tell you my who parted you. I. who in my blind harvest supper on a wager of £5 to eat hatred, spoilt two lives. And yet she an entire calf at one sitting, barring was so beautiful that I would have the hide, bones and entrails. woman who loved me in return, and wife. Chakoff, say you will forgive pleces and made into seventeen great said Mrs. Winebiddle, who had been pies. Jerry attacked one after anoth- waiting for her husband. "What did I say when I told you er until he reached the ninth, when be any more of a deterrent from crime | saw, nor even learnt his name, and he my story last night? It is I who must he halted, much to the consternation new typewriter." than hanging or the electric chair. In determined to rid me from his path. beg for that. But why talk in that of his backers, who thought he was a trick of a sportsman, who wagered with a sigh; "and, therefore, we die at two shillings' worth of victuals." Wood 'your school teacher writes me o those around, for the conversation finish with an entire sirloin of beef. and awakened the sleepers, "the The conditions were that he was to Whereupon the parent went consume the two shillings' worth of only waiting a while before attacking. food within a certain limit of time. stairs to enjoy the laugh over There are about forty of them, well The sportsman bought six pints of times alone.

"Oh, Georgie! Who opened the than two hundred years, death with arrested. From what was said, I gath. Cossacks with their horses cannot fol- calf was to be brought on. After ex. canary's cage? "You do not know the country," was the remaining eight pies without fur- was a-whispering to you when I was | Can't you sleep well? Pain | the reply. "This wood only extends ther delay. Nicholas Wood in the sev. | naughty, so I knew it must be him, a few miles south, and if we followed enteenth century held the title of as there was no other little bird about. we should get to the mountains, champion eater of England. He ate at | So I opened the cage, and the cat's where death would be slower, yet a single meal a whole sheep, an entire eaten him. That's wot he's got just as sure as from the bullets of our hog and a peck of damsons. He was | telling on me."

mighty ale in which he soaked twelve penny leaves of fresh bread. Wood attacked the mess, but the fumes of the bills, dear, that came in to-day asleep and lost the wager. Rogerson, you wait until I've had my dinner tershire, was an epicure the like of [OWn bills then, whem Eugland never saw before or since. He paid his chefs $40,000 a sweet thing who had something of a ished cook. A relay of messengers When it was gone, he Microbes and Tickets. The question of the possibility of the conductor take his ticket to punch and Miss Kumfort were? Well, she was lying bound hand and foot on the the horizon the watchers beheld a Frenchman who recently refused to let has thrown him over. Duddy-How did it happen? it, on the Western Railroad of France, | Fuddy-Charley Titler, who also | towns, small and large, will follow the bunch of keys. "Take his great- camp, was challenged by the sentry on the ground of possible contaminate has an eye on Miss Kumfort, saw her the example. Why should not every to us."

the example will follow coat, Chakon; it may be very useful and taken before the commander. An excited interview followed. Ivan was rights and insisted that the railroad as two turtle-doves. He got a woman should force the conductor to disinfect in the next seat to ask Tom if he ward, especially if, as is likely, they wind-swept square, Ivan arrived un "Is he a traitor?" the watchers wonseen at the next cell, and, selecting dered. No, that could not be; but it genius for microbes was finally arrest-course Tom tried to comply and of a key from the bunch, he liberated was evident something strange was on ed, taken before a magistrate and fined course he failed mis-rably. That was for his theorizing.—The Path- too much for Miss Kumfert, A woman in California and Australia A Californian pine tree whose sees ones can only be opened by THE ROBE OF LONG AGO. great heat has been attracting consider. She kissed a rose—a sweet red rose erable attention at Kew Gardens, Louis And dropped it to the floor;

SEEDS THAT HERD, FIRM Ourlous Fasts About Cortain Avenue

Charley (to papa, who likes to spend

Papa—What will you tell me?

SHE HAD THE LAST WORD.

Charley-I'll tell you where mamma

Mrs. Hornbill—''I don't wonder,

ENJOYED IT.

"How did you enjoy the banquet?

CUBIOSITY.

Belle-Ned Grant asked me to go

summer making a study of coquettes.

HER ANSWER.

"Isn't this the most belightfor weather you ever saw?" exclaimed the

She turned upon him with that icy manner, which only a girl can com mand, and answered: "I never saw

THE GROCER'S COLLAPSE.

who is supplying him with butter)

Greedy Grocer (to farmer's wife

Gudewife—Blame yersel', then:

A RAPID METHOD.

YOUTHFUL REVENGE.

A DIPLOMATIC BOY.

Wife.—I was going to give you my

"So he spoke of me," said

THE CAR WINDOW AGAIN.

who has made himself ridiculor

with the red tie and vellow vest.

t shaker and a sugar bowl."

Harbor last year.

exuberant young man.

"And may I keep it." he implored, 'tormer Australian living in London "To treasure all through life. writes as follows to the London Mail: ' Bhe said he might, and later on "The wattle tree of Australia (acca-He won her for his wife. tia decurrens) also possesses the same eculiarity, and its seeds will only rerminate when subjected to great "I'was seven years ago. i Last night she asked him where it was; A TOUNG DIPLOMAT.

heat. Soaking the seeds of this tree in boiling water or roasting them in frying pan for some hours has been ather methods have failed. -After the the evening at the club)—Papa, help teed has fallen from the tree it will loften lie dormant in the ground for 'years, but immediately a 'bush' fire comes along and reduces all the parent trees to ashes cas is often the case in 'Australia), the seed germinates, and a perfect forest of young trees will Mr. Hornbill—"Do you know, darl- | spring up within twelve months. Even ing, I could pick you out of a crowd on ground where there has not been a i wattle tree growing within living memory, these trees have been noticed to grow up after a bush fire. The. wattle tree being very susceptible to fire, is easily killed, and if the same means that caused its destruction did

don. It seems, however, that this:

salamander-like requirements. for s tree, pinus muricata, is not alone to its

| not induce it to grow again it would "Great," answered the young man | very soon be eradicated." The teak is said to be another tree got away with three spoons, a salt whose seeds can only be sprouted by

A Valuable New Zealand Tree.

The kauri belongs to New Zealand. driving with him several times at Bar | The kauri tree grows to a height of from 120 to 160 feet, with a diameter Nell-Did he? He told me in the of from five to twelve feet. Kauri spring that he was going to spend the | timber is unrivalled for masts, and for a hundred years it has been exported to British shipyards for that purpose. 'The kauri tree is also noted for the "gum" or resin which it produces. This resin, one of the most useful and most expensive of all resins, is used for making varnish, and for this purpose has long been exported in immense quantities. Not only in the kauri, but in many other trees New Zealand nature ally possesses a great store of arboreal wealth, one of the greatest and richest In the world; but, as has happened in so many other new countries, this wealth has been prodigally wasted, and the present timber export of New Zealand, even of the valuable kauri

> About $100,000,000 is invested in the candy business in the United States.

In vour back? Lack energy? These are sure signs of

From what poisons? From poisons that are alif the contents of the [] bowels are not removed from the body each day, as nature intended, these poisonous substances are sure to be absorbed into the blood, always causing suffering and frequently causing severe

24. E. They daily insure an easy "

You will find that the use of

with the pills will hasten it cleanses the 1 d blood from all impurities and 18 a great tonic to the nerves. . Write the Doctor.

ROCK OIL PRODUCTION,

MANILA. June 12.—The Filipino o

(LOODS Atth blocescarions or ricentismb. The Thirteenth infantry lost one man | 000 gailons. killed and six wounded: the Ninth infantry, one man killed and five wounded: and stand almost abreast in the quantit the Fourteenth infantry, three wounded and the First Colorado volunteer regiment. 11 wounded army has ever seen. The battlefield from Laguna de Bay to the harbor.

Sevent Thomas Werriors Decare

Were Fighting

Carly Become Friendly.

nague and Las Pinas all day with the full power of their batteries. until the American lines had passed a then attempted to not stragglers from the trees. Thanks to their poor marksmanship, this was without result At the outset the Colorados, the Ninth infantry and the Twenty-first infantry wheeled to the left and drove the enemy toward the lake. During this maneuv the brigade, partly owing to the high grass, had few hit. The Ninth infantry crept around to the right, flanking the trenches, driving out l the Filipinos and killing many of them. es on top of a knoll, where the Filipinos a volley upon the advancing Americans The Coloradoans charged and drove them wounded in the arm as he jumped in the trench. In the meantime General Wheaton's column advanced one and a half miles toward Paranaque, where the American. found a strong trench on a ridge, out which they drove the Filipinos by haro The enemy tried to flank the dismount ed troops of the Fourth cavalry, accorvance, throwing a skirmish line to flank the Fourteenth infantry. But they were About 3 o'clock in the afternoon

eral Wheaton's brigade, headed by General Lawton, who, in his white cloth. and helmet, on a big black horse, was . ers, circled to the south of Las Pinas. the shelter of the trees. General Lawton of the enemy the horses of three of staff officers were shot from under then. The Colorado regiment bore the brunt of this attack and dispersed the Filipinos.

which the Ninth infantry and a part the Colorado regiment drove away. this time nearly the whole division was around Las Pinas.

south of the town and in the midst of a ! At 6 o'clock yesterday morning General Wheaton advanced upon Las Pinas with a troop of cavalry, the Twenty-first infantry, the Colorado regiment, part the Ninth infantry and two mounts. guns, crossing two streams and entering the town without firing a shot. He then advanced upon Paranaque.

many were toru by the shells from t. warships. Everywhere the Americans found white flags flying. So far as can yet be ascertained Filipino loss is about 50 killed, about 350 wounded and 20 taken prisoner and the natives who were probably carcying guns are now dolling their hats and groveling before the Americans with of.

Movement a Great Success. rection. It shows that the movement cablegram is dated Manila, June 11, and

"Terrific heat vesterday did not permit troops to reach positions at hours desigasted: enabled majority of justirgents today at Lee Pines and the World's Petroleum. ${f WASHINGTON}$, June 12.—Over 5.000. I to the treasury bureau of statistics. this amount 2.500.600.000 are produce While the United States and Russia furnish the bulk of the world's petroleur of crude oil product, the amount fined illuminating oil supplied by th Inited States is more than double produced by Russia. This is due to the I fact that a given quantity of United States oil produces three-fourths bulk in refined illuminating oil, while and the gunboat Helena shelled Para- | same quantity of Russian oil produce jonly about three-eighths of its bulk refined illuminating oil. Sumatra. nexto Russia, is the most formidable com ' netitor of the United States, because the rapid growth in its production of the fact that its crude oils produce and the further fact that they are muc. nearer to the orient, the countri which form an important part world's markets for this class of export. the quantity of oil produced in Sun. ties in northwestern Wvoming. ' is small compared with that of the \tag{L} 'ed States or Russia, its figures for 1897 not walk abreast is the only gateway being only 72,258,000 gallons, again 2.543.000.000 gallons for the United

The United Kingdom is the largest co sumer of mineral oils exported by country in the last fiscal year being . 265,563 gallons, against 155,203,222 Germany, 53,398,115 to Japan, 552 to China. 20.561.084 to Brazil. 495,398 to British Australasia, 12.835. to France and 260,431,316 gallons to o. er European countries.

FLASHLIGHT EXPLOSION.

One Killed, Seven Injured, at Launching of the Columbia. BRISTOL, R. I., June 12.-A revises ist of the casualties resulting from explosion of the flashlight apparatus were injured than at first reported. The list is as follows: Napoleon & 11 years, both legs lacerated and large wound in his back, condition very seri ous: George Balfour, 10 years, seven I scalp wound; Luke Callan, 8 years, piece d, taken to Rhode Island General . oital; George Belmore, 12 years, sca ated wound on the knee; John O'N telieved that a large three sided tin re blown to atoms by the explosion. pieces of tin have been taken from many boy. If he does, the case will be put

Mediation Not Unlikely. BERLIN. June 12 .- The London correspondent of the Frankfurter Zeitung says: "The idea of having the United States mediate between Great Britain of the old Knickerbocker

' a grandniece. Mrs. Vandegrift died. The found by Mr. Woods when he returned

Lord Kitchener For India. the viceroy of India, Lord Curson o and westward, which they effected durestimated at £200,000.

Be Hunted to the Death.

The State and Express Companie

Have Offered $3,000 Each For the Outlaws, and a Band of Fron- .

tiersmen Will Persue Them.

ess at Rock Creek recently and escau

travel the known trails, and the e-

Wall" country is believed to be near.

this small army of the allies alone.

tity. Many of these men are convimurderer, is living there, herding catta

or another murderer. George Balk

CATSKILL, N. Y., June 12.-Up in Music Moves the Caterpillars.

' many orchards threatened with destruc

The Feast of Roses.

feast of roses was celebrated vesterda

Indians Starving.

Crawford's Death Remembered.

TOLEDO. June 12.—Seven thousand

tion may yet be saved.

at Manhein.

who killed his wife at Cheyenne.

"HOLE IN THE WALL" TO BE TAKEN.

right of the people to choose their rule: is engaged in the effort to deprive a di tant and alien nation of the same right.

l might has always employed in a conte

is expected 200 men will be engaged in I heroic leader of the Filininos, comes this responsive utterance, written at Cavite, The state and the express and railroad | June 18, 1898, at the headquarters companies have offered an aggregate of Admiral Dewey: "'I proclaim in the face of the whole $3.000 each for the heads of the members | world that the aspirations of my whole life and the final object of all my desires who are arranging for this chase will be | and efforts is no other thing than your | big cattle companies of this section dur- I us the redemption from slavery and tyring the time they are engaged. Thus they | anny, the reconquest of our lost liberty are enabled to enlist a typical band of and our entry into the concert of the civtough riders, and every man of them a lilized nations.' dead shot. Many of them are cowboys.

which they will now pursue the bandits, outdo in savagery the vanishing Span bublique!" The president did not bear a and still others are the trained detectives I jards and to make the name of America t the big corporations. The various leven more accursed by his hunted and bands of man hunters will be accompanied by Indian trailers, bloodhounds and "To Aguinaldo, fighting in the same cause for which John Brown died, sus-

in as deputy sheriffs and will be in l tained by the same hopes and aspiracharge of the officers of the several counl tions, our sympathies are due, as were I licemen the sympathies of all lovers of liberty to A gorge so narrow that two horses can-"We are a great assassin nation, and to the "hole." There are naths over the the blood of patriots stains our hands. I the Elysee and Longchamps literall Ielpless, as in a nightmare; we cry out Leading in from Montana, there are two I in agony, and Christian ears are deaf. In or three obscure routes that eventually | hyprocritically professing to democratize | along the whole route, and there was the context of the outlaws, but they are known to but few 1 trailers and Indian fighters. The man hunters in this case, however, who have DIED OF STARVATION.

Errell Claimed on His Deathbed

the outlaw reign in the "Hole In the The six road agents who looted the Untruth. Edward Errell, an old man who ion Pacific express box will not oppose estimated that at least 50 men on whose mendous forgeries on the Bank of Eng. and police under arms. graver with a firm of iewelers in Union priminals, and some of them are und that Bob Taylor, the condemned Misson met Austin Bidwell. Errell was found at Fourth avenue at lessly weak. He told the police that way to fight the pests has been discovered. A woman blowing a horn under a had been driven away from every r chance to wash himself. He had even found that his story of starvation at least was true. He was so weak that the ' earth and were gathered up and destroy

To Abolish Dynamite Monopoly circles here that President propose to the Transvaal raad the abou ' the Orange Free State is using its . the uitlanders in the Transvaal, LANCASTER, Pa., June 12.-The able rolling stock to Johannesburg to be ____ Nantasket Fire Swept.

| and each year from that date it has been | be learned at present. The fire started brated with elaborate and beautiful from a lighted match thrown from a lunch cart in front of Hotel Montasco. A Dinner For Picauart.

CINCINNATI. June 12.—Elaborate l ea will be in attendance:

Dewer at Singapore. Ordunate works here were destroyed by finues to improve. The Olympia will arel discharged soldiers from the Philip for alleged intimacy with and arel discharged soldiers from the Philip. probably leave Singapore on June 14.

faction For Recent Outrage.

Revisionists and Socialists Lined the Way From the Elysee to Long-champs - Drowned Discordant

Orles When Loubet Appeared

The Revisionists and Socialist organs

summoned their readers to assemble along the thoroughfares to be traversed by the president and his party, and from i the hour of noon thousands of demonville and other working class quarters big organized bands, all wearing a small artificial red flower in the buttonhole. and marched across Paris, taking up positions along the Avenue des Champs | Elysees and the Avenue du Bois de Bou-

"Little could he have dreamed when he They gave M. Loubet a tremendous others are old frontiersmen who have penned those inspiring words that the lovation, confining their cries almost encountrymen of Abraham Lincoln were to birely to "Vive Loubet" and "Vive la rei discordant crv. although there were or two scuffles before and after he passed headed anti-Drevfusard who tried to ' shout "A bas Loubet!" and was imme diately pounced upon by a swarm of po-

> Although the visit passed off quietly ' the government was prepared for every leventuality, the whole district between portant points, while through the green foliage of the Bois, on each side of the avenue, could be seen heavy masses detachments awaiting orders. of dragoons and republican guards were

I no one was allowed to walk between the in the forgeries. He would not tell who | races, while several republican guards)

' ident drove through the naddock to the . and "Vive la republique!" which settled M. Loubet and his party were so comsurrounded by guards and police | Seattle. The inspector ordered them rethat it would have been impossible for I turned to Victoria. any one to get within ten yards of the i steps of the box.

Immense Mica Venture. COLORADO SPRINGS. June 12.- | club topsail of the Defender fell to the t corner on New | but fortunately did not injure the under-Mexico's mica deposits. New Mexico has body. the interests of the company and options

Not a Pauper After All. POUGHKEEPSIE, June 12.-Alexan-

Cable Steamer Arrives. Britannia, Captain Woodcock has arrived from Faval, from which nor

Congressman Bland's Condition

A Becord Breaking Trip. Halifax and Boston was 23 hours and minutes, made by the steamer Olivette and ought to be exposed. Frederico Mora, fiscal of the supreme vana. says that one of the first duties of to establish the writ of habeas corous appointed to do away with all the objectionable laws of the late regime. According to the present law any Spaniard lengaging in business in the island has l and all other foreigners. This is especially the case with large corporations.

Transport From Manile.

TWO HUNDRED DEAD. Gold Hunters Perished on the Edmonton Trail.

Wash.. June 8.-The steamship Laurada is in port from Wrangel, Alaska, with news of the death and suffering of American miners who tried to reach the Klondike goldfields over the all Canadian route from Edmonton. Several parties reached Wrangel last week from the interior after spending from 17. to 20 months on the trail in a vain endeavor to reach the goldfields. They say that no less than 200 prospective miners have lost their lives by drowning, starvation, exposure and freeze ing during the past winter. Most of states. Scurvy is now ravaging the miners who are stalled on the trail, and before relief can reach them many others will have died. The Hudson Bay company and the Northwest mounted police have started

TACOMA. Wash., June 12.—All the American

Defender's Topsail Falls. BEISTOL, R. I., June 7.-The big deck yesterday while the yacht was on a ' sailing trial off Newbort and narrowly Lebanon County Anti-Quay. LEBANON. Pa., June 12.—Returns of the Republican primaries in Linanon county have now been received trein all the anti-Quayites, who will have a ma ' inrity of five in the county committee.

Opera House Parcheses. ST: LOUIS, June 12.-The Grand Co pany of Unicago. Frank R. Titte city, Lold & Middleton and others are in the new organization

Perth, with Velasquez second.

and 4.500 workmen are out. been successfully launched at H

CONDENSED DISPATCHES Three cases of vellow fever at Panel

The yacht Columbia, which is the said to