crowded sections of the city, and make their homes centers of helpful influence for the people about them. Christian residents not only a mental stimulus, the story. with the vast populations among which His son Daniel, then a young man, was ithey labor, says Youth's Companion, in hearty sympathy with him, as was these settlements are only tiny sparks, the whole family. That rendered him but each one burns with a steady light, reighbors, who were determined that it brighter.

An Enormous Drain. country and spent by our leisure and house one afternoon and insisted on his traveling classes in Europe each year. joining them, and would listen to no It is now proposed, according to a chief proposition for a further delay. Again of one of the treasury bureaus, in Wash- he declined, and spoke of his illness as | 1/1/2/4 3 ington, to compile an accurate set of an excuse for wanting them to leave statistics upon this subject. Several him, but they wouldn't. They had his years ago such an effort was made, but | favorite saddle horse brought to the ... it was not carried out as thoroughly as door, took him out of bed, helped to it should have been. Even then, how- dress him, led him from the house, placed him in the saddle and started ever, the total ran up to over $230,000,- for Fairfax Court House. He was so 000 before the work was abandoned. It seriously ill that he could not sit up. is proceed a now that the forthcoming | He lay down, throwing his arms around | in will be very thorough, in- | the neck of his horse. They had gone | t will data from steamships, several miles. While passing through of the distribution of taxation. Women Farmers.

in Kansas who are successfully operat-son mansion. Every member of the ing the position of charge bayonet. cumulated $10,000 in cash and paid off a cuing their son and brother. mortgage of $1,750. Mrs. Sarah Buch- Strange as it may seem, the long ride camp. ;acre farm since the death of her husband ten years ago and has also managed to save $20,000. Mrs. J. O. Martin) at Akin has cleared off a big mortgage in ten years. Miss Mary Barker is tho leading stock raiser of Barber county. ther farm comprising 3,000 acres and her annual sales of cattle being 4,000 head. Mrs. Mary J. Reese, of Linn county, has paid off a big mortgage on her quarter section and is now loaning money to men in her neighborhood who don't know how to farm. As to the experiences of Mrs. Lembach, first named the article says: "Mrs. Lembach pr iher hand literally to the plow and until reaped, not by proxy, but with her own hands. She kept her children in school. double stint every workday of her life. later he was able to take quite long advance later it was found that the Indigo Blue Calico. lings of the 'seven devils;' she never so well. One day, when some distance washed away the earth, leaving the Fancy Pique. istood in the doorway watching and from home, a body of confederate troop- limbs partially exposed, and the hogs Ladies' Summer Vests. waiting for the 'octopus of Wall street' grs flew at him like a bunch of wild of the neighborhood had fed on the ex- All wool Serge, yard wide... to come prancing down the road. She cats and demanded his unconditional posed parts. Some of the foragers capjust 'tended her knittin' ' and in seven years the mortgage was a grim recol-

husband of five sisters.

the family did not risk themselves out-

MUNSON OF MUNSON'S HILL from his Virginia home to his duties six days in the week. He has grown ! The Thrilling Experiences of a Loyal secure him, and so did threats.

"NOW, POLLY, FOR HOME."

hard work and poor pay of farming. building several miles from home, field pork for him.

. Young Unionist and His Chicago Times-Herald. HUMORS OF WAR.

interesting chapter. Dr. Corbitt's wife North and South, New York there are more than 20 of | ton after the first battle of Bull Run. | ments each intended, a somewhat face- | colonel prisoners of war.—Our Dumb these settlements, most of them in the | Soldiers and others who were in and | tious colonel of a Philadelphia regiment | Animals. idensely crowded East side. They dis- about Washington at that time will re- composed largely of Irishmen formed . play no sign; they avoid all appearance | member the, wild stories about the part of the command of Gen. Stone. of charity. They conduct art and lit- Davis government planting guns on then lying near Poolsville, Md. One It was probably invented by a wifeless! ierary classes, teach: sewing, cooking, ital, plainly in view from that point, late making social calls, returning to singing and child-training, and take but over six miles away. There were his camp without the countersign. As charge, during the day, of babies whose no guns in existence, at least none in he approached the camp he received Jack-My grandfather had a fine colmothers are obliged to go out to work. the United States, at that time capable the usual challenge from the guard. At lection of silver which he bequeathed The settlement residents also go into of sending a missile so great a distance, the command to advance and give the to my father on the condition that it the homes of the crowded tenement | though to-day they have them that can | countersign he rode up to the guard | should always remain in the family. population, and by gaining their confi- | send a solid shot or a shell three times | and explained that he did not have | Ethel-Then you have it still? dence establish the intimate personal as far. What a shelling Washington | the countersign, but that of course the | Jack-Well-er-my uncle has it.-N. relations which form the best possible would have received soon after the first guard knew him as his colonel. foundation for effective help. The Bull Run, over 36 years ago, had Beau. "O, of coorse, shure I knew the

ings in the Struggles Between and makes at least a little space around the young fellow Dan should enter the Munson was taken down with a fever.

custom houses, consular estimates, reports of special foreign blunder on the part of his enemies, blun to have great interest and value to students of political economy and, especially, to all interested in the problems faithful animal to a standstill. A moment later it was facing the other way, ment later it was facing the other way, length to colonel returned in the same man on guard. In response to the usual challenge the colonel rode up and suavelenge the colon and heard the command: "Now, Polly, ly attempted to establish his identity. for home," and with her master's arms The response came quickly: "Arrah, clinging about her neck, still unable shure, I knowed the colonel's white A Topeka newspaper devotes a page to sit up, the fine blooded mare made harse wance, but, be gorra, I don't know No doult every one has made up to the enumeration of plucky women rapid time in getting back to the Mun- him any more," at the same time assum- their minds as to certain things to be ing farms. Mrs. Anna Lembach, near family petted and fed "Polly" sugar The colonel was compelled to ride

Erie, during the last 12 years has ac- that night as a partial reward for res- back to headquarters and get the countersign before he could enter his own LOOK. TO er, near Douglas, has managed a 450- and hard experience did not have an At the second battle of Bull Run some union army. They were resting in a YOUR OWN field under guard when some of the union soldiers gathered around and entered into conversation with them. INTERESTS The most voluble of the union soldiers argued on the policy of the confederates giving up the fight. "You know,"

"Well, we may be beaten in the end,

much ceremony over the dead. Those | We invite your attention to the folof the union army who fell within the lowing prices: lines subsequently occupied by the confederates were simply covered up with | Yard wide Percules, worth 10c..... 6c. earth where they fell. When the union Apron Ginghams..... 4 to 51/2 cionist. Two or three weeks army passed over the ground in their Shirting. surrender. His answer was a call upon tured a young pig in the woods near Polly for another dash for liberty. She by and donated it to the officers' mess. sprang to her work grandly, but the It had been roasted to a beautiful Crash. lection. The mountain of debt had dis- next instant fell pierced by half a brown and placed on the mess table be- Curtain Scrim. appeared from her perspective. She Rozen bullets. Munson then attempted fore the guests, when the host, as he Lace Curtains. still manages the farm on which she to escape by running. Volleys were fired poised a carving knife and fork in his Dress Cambric accumulated $10,000, practically un- at him, fairly riddling his coat, hat and hands, inquired of a German lieutenant | aided, in 12 years." The success of trousers, but, marvelous to say, none of Walter, which are the success of trousers, but, marvelous to say, none of Walter, which are the success of trousers, but, marvelous to say, none of Walter, which are the success of trousers, but, marvelous to say, none of Walter, which are the success of trousers, but, marvelous to say, none of Walter, which are the success of trousers, but, marvelous to say, none of Walter, which are the success of trousers, but, marvelous to say, none of Walter, which are the success of trousers, but, marvelous to say, none of Walter, which are the success of trousers, but, marvelous to say, none of Walter, which are the success of trousers, but, marvelous to say, none of Walter, which are the success of trousers, but, marvelous to say, none of Walter, which are the success of trousers, but, marvelous to say, none of Walter, which are the success of trousers, but, marvelous to say, none of Walter, which are the success of trousers, but, marvelous to say, none of Walter, which are the success of trousers, but, marvelous to say, none of Walter, which are the success of trousers, but, marvelous to say, none of Walter, which are the success of trousers, but, marvelous to say, none of Walter, which are the success of trousers, but, marvelous to say, none of Walter, which are the say of these women is an object lesson to the bullets hit him. However, as he Yankee." The officer addressed, with Soda, 6 packages. some men in Kansas and elsewhere who could not run as fast as those Virgin- out making any response, fled from the Soda, bulk.

learn from them in the way of husWhile looking through the small window in an upper room Munson saw one lay a union army hat. An Irishman be Grand Dutches Flour, every sack tracted his attention. The man drove and then exclaimed:

and then notified the Munsons, who in man in that were room without his hat; some way succeeded in bringing shows shure he might catch his death av release of the Joung man. After that cowld."-Chicago Tribune. Horse Made Two Prisoners.

We are indebted to the Buffalo Horse out, of our cavalry, appropriated him. In a charge made a few days later the horse took the bits in his teeth and car-my mind to try it. I was troubled with ried the major, in spite of all his effalling of the womb; had sharp pains in GAVE little thought to my health," writes was. Wis. V.

BELL, 230 N. Walnut St., Canton, O., to Mrs. Pinks

"I had had my days of not feeling well and my monthly

Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

to know of the wonderful good it has done me, and a good health. I wish others have many friends taking it ?

Mrs. A. Tolli 1946 Hil-

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM-

was very thin and my

Had continual healthy woman; have gained in weight 95 pounds to 140

BUSINESS AND SHORTHAND COURSES.

The place to buy Tinware, guaranteed not to rust.

We are making a run on the above named goods.

Do not forget that we handle everything found in a first-class

HARDWARE STORE.

We have a Large Stock of Shelf Hardware,

We have a Large Stock of Builders' Hardware.

We have a Large Stock of Sash and Doors.

We have a Large Stock of Paints and Oils.

We have a Large Stock of Agricultural Implements.

All of the above bought at low prices, and we will pounds, and everyone asks what makes me so stout."

friends thought I was in con-falling of womb, and my eyes were affected. Every one noticed how poorly I looked and I was advised to take

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vege-

relieved me, and after tak-table Compound. One bottle

now. Will always give your medicine the highest praise.'

ham, muntil I found myself unable to mend b my suffering, and a good deal of backsche.

"I had doctored for some time, but no medicine seemed to help me, and my physician thought it best for me to go had read and heard so much of your

to the hospital for local treatment.

forts, a prisoner into the confederate camp. Here the horse was appropriate by a confederate colonel, and a little later, in another engagement, took the bits in his teeth, as before, and brought In the early stages of the war when | the colonel, in spite of all his efforts,

A buttonless shirt is a new invention Still in the Family.

Disparagement. foundation for effective help. The regard's men possessed a battery of mod-dwellers in the tenements find in the ern long-distance guns. But this is not guard stood at a salute while the bert's mind than he chooses to say," recolonel rode past. It was but a few marked Ethelinda. but an incitement to order and cleanli- Mr. Munson, of Munson's Hill, who minutes after the colonel reached his "There'd have to be," said her father, 'ness, the better cooking of food and the had gone to Virginia from a New Eng- quarters when the guard found him- savagely. "Otherwise they'd have had better care of children. By comparison land state, was a stanch union man. self relieved and placed in the guard- him in an asylum long ago."-Wash-No Special Privileges.

> | sleep in your office?" was asked of a A Small Voice.

Little Clarence—Pa, money talks.

ier—Didn't you think that last in I sent you was very bright?
Editor—Yes, while it lasted. L made a mistake and lit my cigar with it.

Mae-That fellow you were with last done during the coming year.

and decide to buy

YOUR

Goods, Groceries, Boots and Shoes give our customers the benefit of the same, notwithstanding Crockery, etc., where you can the general advance in prices.

are continually complaining of the ians mounted on racers, he was again table to his own quarters. He subset 10 bars soap. captured and made a prisoner in a quently said that was the last battle- Blended coffee, 15c., 2 for. 3 cans Corn The man behind the hoe has much to where he was kept for several days. Still covered up but in a perpetual 3 cans Peaches.

> close to the house, saw who he was, "Ah, the haythena! To bury a poor G. M. WEBSTER & CO. DeWitt's Little Early to the house, saw who he was, "Ah, the haythena! To bury a poor G. M. WEBSTER & CO. The tensors little pills DeWitt's Little Early Risers,

NATIONAL ILLUST'D MAGAZINE, 1 YR. HAPPY HOURS FAMILY MAGAZ'E, 1 YR. A & CO. 381 Broadway, New Yor

may be secured by our aid. Address, WILMINGTON, VERMONT

MERCHANTS. DRUGGISTS, GREENWOOD, N. Y.

WOODARD & YOUNG, GENERAL MERCHANDISE, GREENWOOD, N. Y.

GREENWOOD, N. Y. C. F. SMITH, PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON, GREENWOOD, N. Y

FASHIONABLE BARBER, Rooms opposite Woodward & Young.

Closing out Ladies' Slippers at cost,

it Webster & Co.

CASTORIA.

Cures Piles, Scalds, Burns.

CURED AT LAST.

DEAR DOCTOR KOOH:

they seeme

the last stages of consumption and then no his answer raised a fear that he con-both hands. Then, nerving herself for one could cure me. Knowing that Prof. Koch was the first man to cure consump | sidered himself her only servant, and | touch was torture to her, yet he was tion I at once put myself under his Lymph that he would allow no one but himself tender and reverent and pulled as she My improvement was slow for to serve her. Therefore she remained had instructed him; steadily, firmly the first month, but gradually I regained silent, revolving what was expedient straight. When the strain was felt she my strength. I now do my housework and and what was possible as he bore her screamed, but maintained her positio wish to be. I would advise any one suf- He carried her through two dark and when the joint snapped into place

o West 64th street, New York. I used Koch-o-lene which the doctor fur- very irregular in form; so low that the bathed the swollen member. Then she

Dear Sir,—As you know I was treated for 2 years for catarrh and asthma and a dry scabby nose that would always bleed when I blew it. My lungs were effected as without backs, given to the people; a large pitcher, a few cheap dishes of odd sets, a wash basin; two lamps, one of an old fashwhen I blew it. My lungs were effected as ion baing a triangular iron pan filled with the father and he will provide."

Yillon; in the secret of fils tabel nack shall set me upon a rock. Let not your heart be troughted in God, believe also in the shall set me upon a rock. Let not your heart be troughted in God, believe also in She fell back and drew a coil of the people; a large pitcher, a few cheap dishes of odd sets, a wash basin; two lamps, one of an old fashwhen I blew it. My lungs were effected as ion bains a triangular iron pan filled in the secret of fils tabel nack.

Yellon; in the secret of fils tabel nack without backs, given to the shall set me upon a rock. Let not your heart be troughted in God, believe also in the secret of fils tabel nack.

Yellon; in the secret of fils tabel nack.

63 Huron St., Brooklyn, N

beside the burning lamp.

the hut had been built at the entrance

By the dim light upon the altar Miss bound the injured limb.

116 West 22d Str Kuch-o-lene.

death and the elect from suffering.

Be Ward Rics

COPYRIGHTED BY THE C. P. A. ALL RIGHTS RESERVED.

THE PROPHET AND THE VIA

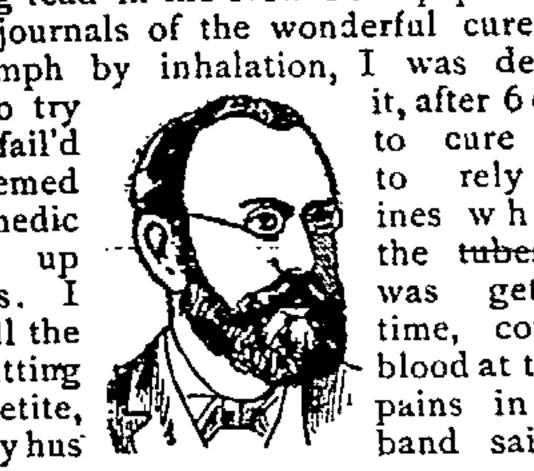

laway, miles away, then close at hand, him: etanding over her. been Miss Stella's familiar terror. Now, prepare His way."

clad bones and she fainted again. lyirgin whom He hath blessed." "and awoke to find herself clasped in accomplished."

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve

'that he was aforetime."

Having read in the New York papers and

She now felt assured that he meant fering as I was to try Dr. Koch's Lymph chambers, into a third where he laid she fainted.

At of a coal mine and she concluded that she was already provided with Every sack guaranteed.

overpowering individuality and the perhaps gone away for one of his fre- ential deference to the will of Him in The words at first apparently away, When the Prophet arose she said to Had he wandered away to preach pate men from temptation.

aroused the fainting girl and she open- "In the hollow of His hand hath the ed her eyes and saw the Prophet father sheltered thee since the first ad- the place! She could not endure it, From childhood the Prophet had ald the second coming of that Son and but she had not the strength to stand "I am the voice of one crying in the |she crawled back upon the bed. pled and helpless, the sight of him, | wilderness, saying: 'Prepare ye the | cried aloud for help. She was sure there, was more terrifying than would way of the Lord; make his path that hours had passed since the Prophhave been a sight of the spectre in un- straight." "For me thou hast searched long and to perish alone under the earth out of "The time is ripe! Father! Thou hast | to-day, through great tribulation and | the sight of men! Forever out of the |,

"| revealed unto me the Virgin! His suffering have I been guided to thee sight of men! chosen one whom all creatures and that thy soul may rejoice and that thou men and angels shall hallow! The shouldst minister unto me as thou Once more she heard that deep voice | that thy mission might at length be | terror; her mind became chaos; delir. the strong bare arms of the Prophet as | "No mortal hath revealed it unto e bore her toward the ironclad door | thee. Men scoff at the prophet of the | about her a multitude of living terror of the stone hut. Her terror was now | Son who cometh unto his own. In oth- |in distorted forms; o great that instead of depriving her | er times he came unto his own and his | horrible giants, grinning

care. She continued her struggles as | ness, saying, 'Prepare ye the way of the |ous, and whose talons and beaks | OUR OFFICE IS OPPOSITE U. S. PATENT OFFICE | she said:

and we can secure patent in less time than those | and we can secure patent in less time than those | and we can secure patent in less time than those | and we can secure patent in less time than those | "You are the good Prophet, John the remote from Washington.

Send model, drawing or photo., with description | Baptist, are you not?"

Baptist, are you not?"

The said:

"You are the good Prophet, John the may lave my limb which an accident puls." "He hath revealed it unto thee. Thou hath injured. Oh, hasten, hasten; I They hustled and fought each other for reart the Inspired Mother; no man hath suffer!" "Behold, oh Mother of the Son, I am They clung to the walls and hung from as the lightning cometh out of the east | be come. I may not leave thee." in a cave as it is erroneously written | relief was great and when the pitcher | eyes and blistering feet scampered c was empty she sent him to refill it. Up- her quivering body and a thousand, "Oh, take me home; please take me on his return she said: Some? I am hurt and I am lost." art thou revealed unto me whom He sacred forms of speech, but the Proph- the snapping turtles would let go of it. hath preserved, commanding me to et did not notice the fact. minister unto thee that His name may | "The Father will give me knowledge

"I must treat him as a crazy man," | "You must carefully exert the great of she said mentally; then, aloud: "Since strength He has given you as I direct. your Lymph by inhalation, I was deter— it is God's will that you should minis- Take hold upon this foot thus," and a finning of enarbling enring L it, after 6 doc- ter to me, bring me to the water and she fixed his hands upon the heel and to cure me. It is God's will that you should minis- Take hold upon this foot thus," and er full to dripping, of sparkling spring to cure me. It is God's will that you should minis- Take hold upon this foot thus," and er full to dripping, of sparkling spring to cure me. It is God's will that you should minis- Take hold upon this foot thus," and er full to dripping, of sparkling spring to the terture. And yet she could not realize to cure me, ter to me, oring me to the water and she fixed his hands upon the heel and water, carrying it with as much care as that she had slent beyond a few hours! on one skilled in surgery for I am badly all your power, straight away, till it is replaced. Mind me not if I should cry "Blessed among women and forever out or faint; for I know not if I shall getting to be revered among men art thou, be able to endure it." since thou art the second Mother of the Son. Surely it is His will that I shall the Father hath sent thee to me on the ground, crazed from pain and care as thou shalt require." Sne placed her uninjured foot firmly her no harm; that he regarded her as against the foot-board of the bed in sacred and himself as her servant, but laid hold upon the head-rail with the agony, she bade him pull.

Perspiration gushed from every pore her upon a bed of hay, spread upon | When she revived the Prophet was | rough boards that were supported by kneeling in prayer at the altar. She bade him bring water and with great This chamber was long, wide and difficulty she sat up in her place and cy shall follow me allathe days of my Prophet could not quite stand erect said: There were three stools—old "Bring bandages that I may bind h

My lungs were enected as ion, being a triangular iron pan filled prayed. This time as a confiding child there was soothing in his voice, his food half foorful that she was now an indulgant with melted fats in which floated a bit asks a simple gift from an indulgent of cotton cloth, one end hanging over parent, he asked for linen wherewith the edge of the pan and burning. This to make bandages as the Chosen Virgin and she was calmed. She began to lamp stood upon a small broken stand might have need. which was arranged and draped as an | While the Prophet prayed Miss Stelaltar with curtains of old cotton prints in tore from one of her muslin skirts as and an open Bible was upon the altar much material as she required and made bandages with which she tightly

After a time the Prophet released her hands and repaired to the altar before Stella was able to see that the apart- | Having concluded his prayer the again communed in his simple, reliant | regular respirations told him that she um directed her imagination.

" Ask ye and ye shall receive;" " In immedia Protector! When the suppligood thing will be withhold from them less arose the water caught his eight of the world from sin and lask for what they want and want only bitcher and poured the fresh, pure, Miss Stella emptied the remainder of of the delirious sufferer until the bandthe water upon the bandages and asked | ages were thoroughly saturated; and When that was all used a nationt tenderness born of that he t been familier since long before she she sent him again. This time he was which is deeper and greater than the whom was axed the faith of the loving Her spirits fell: the gloom of the gervant

thing intangible but terrible overcame the trustful disciple who regarded the Could he have forgotten the Virgin? free the world from sin and emanci-The devout nurse never forsook the bridgl couples to go to large cities o. presence of his charge, save in her |

among the people as he often did? Oh, the horror, the awful horror of service: to bring fresh water, to get vent of the Son that thou shouldst her- she must escape! She got up to go out her a drink; to minister to her; or to kneel at the altar whereon stood the up and she fell to the floor. Feebly. ever-burning lamp, and appeal to the Father in her behalf. Day after day, night after night, her et's departure! She would be left there, neither the patient nor the nurse knew ' | aught of the flight of time or the mul- | An awful agony of terror was upon her; the horror was greater than she ened she had been by his long absence,

> She was no longer alone. She saw . slept. She asked: "Did you get the water?" her, and she, wondering why her voice "Please let me have the water? She made an effort to sit up but every day. "What is the matter with me? I am i The whole cave was filled with re-space and opportunity to attack her. "'I am the voice of one crying in the way of the Lord; make His path "Please help me to sit up?"

her garments, and with arched necks "Thank you! Won't you please take bodies, darted glistening tongues at

She sat in silence, her mind fixed Motionless and silent, with the water ONE DAY IS AS A THOUSAND was endeavoring to collect the fragmentary recollections of many days of anguish, many nights of norrors, many against that Son for whose coming he weak? She saw her hands and vonder held them to the light. They

> What year? How long have I been I now is the day of salvation!"

"No, no, not twenty years! I have

words, his touch; or perhaps it was face, half fearful that she was now an times to Bell Morton; most of all, to | Barton!

Over her stood the Prophet still b. lently extending the water toward her., which he so frequently prayed, and When her tears ceased and her heavy,

Leaving her there he silently went

[TO BE CONTINUED.] Honeymoon At a Farmhouse. It is no longer fashionable for the

on a trip to Europe for their wedding journey. The sentimental period mus. be spent in some country place, a wa. that is distributed well over the Stat fever and her delirium continued and way of an ideal resort for their honey days after the advertisement appeare they received a dozen or more answerk One afternoon she awoke from a Previous to the wedding the husband sleep and saw the Prophet kneeling to-be visited several of those whose four weeks they spent there were mor she thought that she had fallen asleep like a story book than a reality. The and that he had returned while she rooms were large and airy, the table was exquisite in its cleanliness and th viands that were spread before the > plentiful that a new one could be foun The Age of Athletics.

and carriage were at their disposa.

and scenery and loafing spots were a

to the safety of the traveling publi tion was gone and there was not even is degenerating in the human anima L. W. Stone,

DR. MILES'

Book on heart and nerves sent free.

v And Have it Done as it Should be, at Prices within Reach of All.

victim of consumption, but now w wilderness, saying, 'Prepare ye the run from it as if it were the plague. ' Medical journals are calling atten tion to the fact that unimpaired hear He gently assisted her and she add-1, the pitcher and pour water on those as normal eyesight. A recent examina come serious. But it does not pain me only three possessed perfectly norms now; before I went to sleep the pain hearing. Whether this defect is du She examined the injured limb and to the constant noise or to the fact that was utterly bewildered. The inflamma- the sense of hearing, like that of sigh way with that Father whose will ruled I slept again he put aside the vessel and Dr. Miles Medical Company, Elkhart,