E ANDOVER, N. Y. PADOVER, N. Y., DECEMBER 13, $1.00 a Yearin Advance

baked dough for coffee, ground shells Trying to Get Even. for spices, glucose for honey, an Some people are philosophers enough knows what he is doing, there is no to accept defeat gracefully; others law or gospel that can reach him. nurse their wrath and spend much | The real concern is for the one who time trying to get even. A man went is persistently defrauded and who is to a Chicago hotel for one day, and he inclined to believe what is told him took dinner outside with a friend. When | by the seller. He is by no means a ' the came to pay his bill, says a report party to the bargain. It is a one- are here reproduced as a specimen of from that city, he found that he had sided transaction, governed only by been charged for the meal. He pro- the elastic conscience of the unprincitested strongly. The clerk tried to pled trader. The consumer simply explain that the American plan was has to take what he can get rather based entirely upon time, and if he than what he should have. It is need-find a yard for one, and the second to those men—they get their living out the latest George, secretary of that so- ning in kidney trouble. chose to eat elsewhere it was his look- less to say that there is a great need mate sent me and another to the hold to of that.' The German cook talked to me ciety, who believes that such an inout but the man would not be paci- for the most general and stringent find a yard. When we got down there night after night. I heard Mr. Boult, dustry can be made a success. He paid the bill under protest, laws to meet the urgent requirements we saw boxes of spirits, and knocked and his words made a great impression and asked whether dinner was still on, of the case in question. The revela-d the lids off some of them. I took a botd on my heart, and he made things plair and was informed that it lasted until | tions concerning the extent of the | the out and handed it to him. The fore | and made me feel that there was a G nine p.m. "Then I'll go and tackle it," | fraudulent practices are interesting | natch being off, I jumped up and he and another world. he exclaimed. "I've caten one dinner and startling in their way, but more already, but I'm going to get my mon- practical suggestions than have yet ey's worth out of this old house or been made to remedy the evil are necbust!" He rushed into the dining- essary before we can see the real end rooms, grabbed a bill of fare and or- of the miserable and disgraceful busidered everything he could think of, ness of tampering with almost everynis sole idea being to get even. What thing we eat or drink. he couldn't eat, he messed up so that it would be of no use to anybody else. One afternoon recently a farmer liv When he finally got through the waiter ing four or five miles east of Herringhanded him a check for $4.50. "What' that for?" he asked in surprise. "Your

from getting even. Voting machines were tested in sev- | supposing the boy was there, but on ineral New York cities at the recent elec- | quiry found that such was not the case. tion. The number distributed in Buf- | Search was at once insituted, and the falo was 108, Rochester 73, Utica 26, | neighbors were called upon to assist, Albion 5, Canisteo 2, West Winfield and it wasn't long before the cornfields Extra machines were held in reserve | were alive with men and lanterns lookin case of accident, but only seven were | ing for the lost child. And to add to called for, and there was vandalism or the grief of the parents and friends, lost keys in these cases. One minute the rain began to pour down in torwas allowed each voter. Buffalo pa- rents between ten and eleven o'clock pers pronounce the machines a com- -but the boy was nowhere to be found. plete success and the Rochester Demo- They continued the search in the rain, crat and Chronicle says they met every | calling for the little fellow, but hearrequirement of convenience, speed in | ing no response. The next morning voting, prevention of fraud, automatic one of the searching party came upon footings and prompt tabulation of re- | the wee one traveling in one of the turns. The exact result in Utica was | neighbor's cornfields, a little over half known 17 minutes after the polls a mile from home, wet through to the THE MATE'S WATCH ALL _____

already paid for it-in my bill," he protested. "I'm staying here on the Amer- ' ican plan." "Then you should have gone to the other dining-room," said the

walked out, further away than ever

A young man and a young woman out during the night and had lain down employed in a big supply house in Chi- to take a snooze. cago fell in love and were engaged to be married. The aggregate salary of Land and Water says the bicycle hold and stole another case of gin and New Voice. the two was $18. Man's salary, $8 a and yacht are the two means of locoweek; woman's salary, $10 a week. The motion in which the factor of safety young man notified his employers that is reduced most nearly to the vanhe was about to marry and rather ishing point. It is estimated that i hinted that an increase of salary would the case of a heavy rider on a road be acceptable. The young woman noti- wheel riding over rough roads, when first pay day after the marriage the strength, hence the frequency envelopes came as follows: Man's broken forks and buckled frames. salary, $10 deweek; woman's salary, $5 Commenting on the mishaps to the a week.

Defender, Columbia and Shamrock, says that while "in the larger ele-The town of Adrian, Minn., is overments of a yacht, such as the hull run with cats, and the local counci is seriously thinking of offering bounvies for the destruction of the surplus felines. At a recent meeting c that body the town clerk stated that a conservative estimate placed the the rigging, in which economy of manumber of eats within the borough terial may prove to be the worst form limits at 3.500, or more than three of extravagance." times the human population, which is ! " shooting bees twice a week, but the curred a few days ago at the small animals multiply more rapidly than village of New Liberty, in Pope county, Itl. Miss Nettie Clark, of New they can be killed. Liberty, placed a note in a bottle, which she threw into the river. Sevin which she explained why she thought that all widows were thinking of marrying again. "Ladies have began and was followed by the wed- They found it, and went down night parliament will be got together to repto be happy," she said, "if their hus- ding. The contracting parties never after night and became crazy from the resent inside the house the action of the bands are dead. A dead husband is met until two days before their marnot nice to think about, and so they ringe. think about a new one." All of which seems to apply with even more force to bereaved husbands. Lake City, Utah, it has been necessary, says a recent report, to bring a friend-

Food Adulteration .

adulterations of food and drink have restraining the defendants from ever Helena. This was in the seventies. thus far brought out the facts that asserting any claim to or interest in the practice is very prevalent when it the property, and it is understood that ship to get off the planks that covered pays to carry it on or, in other the suit will not be contested. words, when the original product is Pelzer, S. C., a town of 7,000, and most of them are dangerous are inexcusable, either in a business

Way, as a matter of economy or as products. The suggestion made that The Woman's Christian Temperal t man has a right to know exactly Union of Andover meets the first and what he buys is a protection so far as it goes, and if he is satisfied with MRS. G. W. PROBASCO. Press Superinten. his bargain there is no law which can govern either party in the transaction If he is willing to pay for commercial fats instead of butter, chicory

Lost in a Cornfleid.

indicating that he had probably tired

something would surely happen.

How Liquor on Board Ship Plays Havoc with the Discipline of the Crew-Awful Experiences.

believe it, and that he was frightene

THE SOCIAL FEATURE.

the Salpon-Experience of a

Patron of Salcons.

A correspondent of the New York

I needed, and left more money in the

NOTES OF REFORM.

Toronto, which has a population of Mrs. Maxwell, the Miss Braddon of

The Church of England Temperance

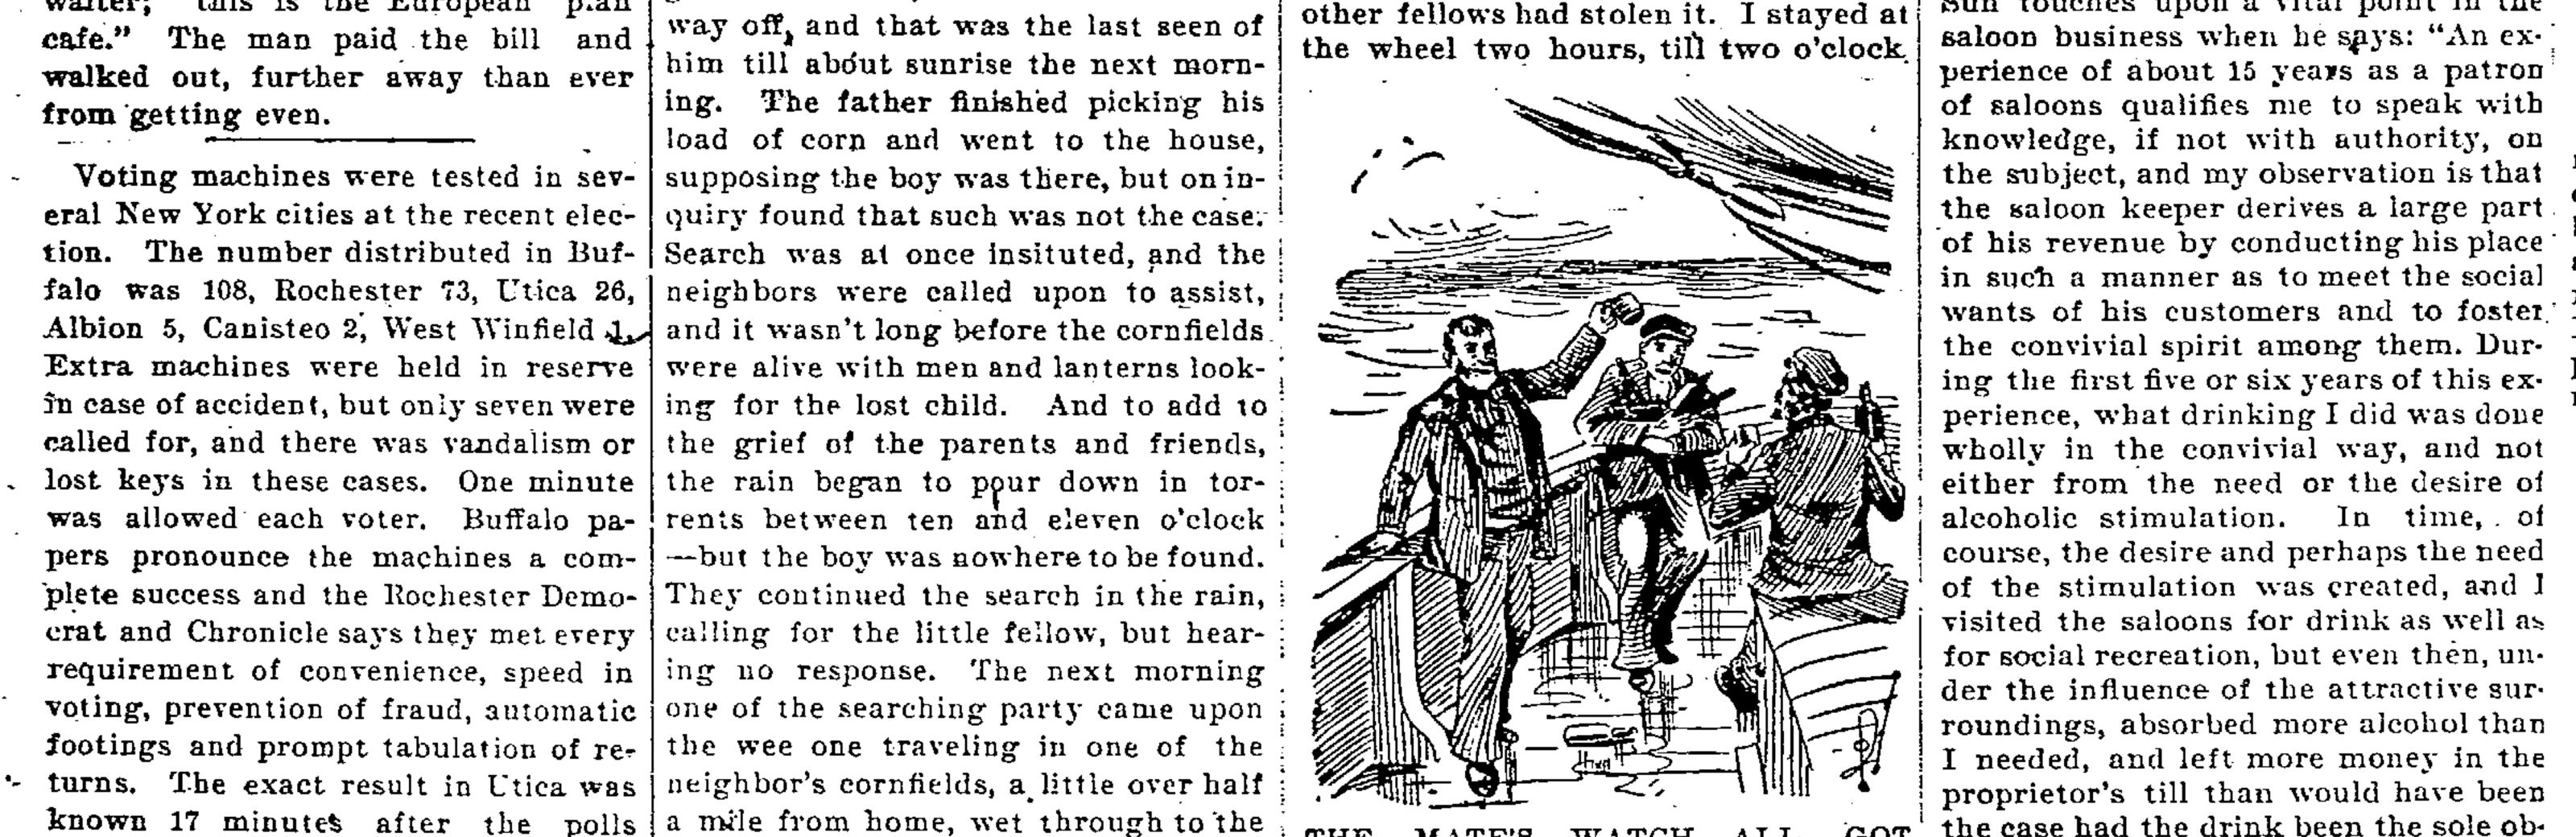

Sure Road to the Madhouse.

l ject of my visit."

Sun touches upon a vital point in the

Me and my partner got ours into Syc mey and the captain never knew abou The secretary of the American Seal it. We sold them to a Jew shop night men's Friend society says in the Sail after night. ors' Magazine: Oen day not long ago an "We were on the Jason from Liver | a good Christian. I went with hir

pool to Calcutta. We had good winded to pass the time. on both sides of the ship. We couldn't passed the bottle up and I put it in the an impression that I didn't want to leg of one of my sea-boots; that night hear anybody else preach. For two or we drank it. One of the watch asked $m \in \{three\ months\ this\ went\ on,\ and\ then$ where I got it. I told him. That night came to Christ. I never knew a day's the watch went down and got a case up | happiness until I came to Christ. And We kept it quiet for two or three weeks. | now I want to do all the good I can." and the other watch did not know of This is the sailor's yarn, almost word proper, as at B in Fig. 1, but also well Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmer it. One day one of our watch gave a for word. The editor has looked up back between the legs at A. Much of & Co., Binghamton, N. \ drink to a man in the other watch. They his record since his conversion and finds the market poultry fails to be thickfound out we had liquor, and stole it that he is an earnest out-and-out Chris- meated at this point (A), and this is a from us. The mate's watch all got tian. What hath God wrought drunk on deck and got to fighting. ton, Kan., was out in the cornfield shuck- While the men were fighting-drunk, a dinner, sir," said the waiter. "But I've ing corn, and a little four-year-old boy German sailor was at the wheel for four went along for company, as the after- hours. When I took the wheel from the Proves the Greatest Attraction of noon was pleasant and the little fel- | German the wind blowing off the star low wanted to "help papa shuck corn." board side, the captain stood close to Along toward night he started alone to | me on the lee side to smell my breath. waiter; "this is the European plan go to the house, which was but a little but smelt no liquor on me, because the other fellows had stolen it. I stayed at skin, his clothes covered with mud, and the man who took the wheel from me was half full, and he told me that: had it in the forecastle head. He told With the sanction of the law me to be careful when I went forward. liquor traffic robs men of money and When I went I had a drink. We picked health and character.- New Voice.

out one man as the man who stole the The man who is not prepared to be as Home liquor while we were asleep. Some radical as truth will never wear a rewanted to take him out of his bunk and former's crown, or bear a reformer's throw him overboard, when the vest martyrdom.-National Advocate. fied the firm that she was about to his machine experiences its heaviest sel was sailing ten or eleven knots an Mrs. Callas obtained a verdict of marry and hoped that she would be jolts, the metal is being strained to hour. 'No,' said 1, 'if we do, we'll be $1,000 in a suit against Fred Muntz, a permitted to keep her place. On the within 25 per cent. of its ultimate tried for murder. We'll just get his Carbondale, Ill., saloonkeeper, for sellof chest and throw that overboard.' We ing liquor to her husband, who was got it and threw it over the side. A murdered after he left the saloon. German was asleep on the chest rolled The Haverhill (Conn.) Temperance up in a white blanket. When he was union, over the signature of the presirolled over they thought he was awake dent, has offered a reward of $50 for the and would tell on them the next day; conviction of anyone concerned in the so they determined to throw him over- illegal sale of liquor. and spars, weight may be judiciously board. 'No,' said I; I drew my sheath saved to within a certain safe limit, knife and said: 'I'll cut any man who 200,000, boasts of having "more unithere are smaller but extremely vital touches him and I'll call the mate. versities than distilleries, more colleges elements, such as the spreaders, the They left him alone. The next morn- than breweries, more churches than steering gear and certain details of ing the man who owned the chest went barrooms." Good for Toronto! to the captain. Fighting went on then every day for two months. The captain literary fame, never touches stimulants knew about the liquor, but couldn't of any kind. For 40 years she has been stop it. At last we got to Calcutta, and at her arduous work, and her pen is still the captain hoisted a flag for the police, brilliant and apparently exhaustless. and we were all taken before a magis | She attributes her perennial youth to trate and tried for mutiny and broach- her total abstinence.—League Journal. - ing cargo on the high seas. Some got three months, some six, some nine, and "There was a ship going to New Zeaeral weeks after Mr. C. T. Anderson, land with emigrants aboard, and the report. The new board is practically -N. Y. Evening Journal. of Louisiana, a prominent planter in crew got hold of cases of candles and the old evidence board, which furnished that state, found the bottle and an- matches; and they lighted three or four evidence before the royal commission. swered the note. A correspondence candles in the hold to look for liquor. If possible a committee of members c effects of the liquor, and left burn- board outside. ing candles in the hold. The ship caught fire, and out of 360 emigrants there was only one boat's crew saved, 12 out of the Brigham Young graveyard in Salt 22 being seamen. There was nothing one's days in a madhouse is to stimua late a fagged brain by constant "nips" row. ly suit against quite 100 of Brigham boat was picked up by the British Prin- gree. In years gone by no person who soliloquy. She looked at me reproachment commission to examine into the Young's heirs. A judgment is asked cess and the saved were landed in St. was known to be of intemperate habits fully for several seconds, and then ex-"I worked four or five nights on a in the Spanish courts of justice, the au- funny!" -Washington Star. thorities maintaining that alcoholism the cargo so as to get at the liquor. Got was so prejudicial to the brain that it one or two planks down, and I got in- was unsafe to accept the testimony of Fair Maiden (a boarder)—How save is side, but there was little room to move, an inebriate. There is a singular i. so dear in price as to tempt substitusaid to have no lawyers nor editors. but I got hold of one case, but it turned stance on record of a merchant who tions are frends many are proposed. They may live so very peaceably that out to be jam. I passed it up, took the stance on record of a merchant who grew so accustomed to jogging his tions are frends many are proposed. They may live so very peaceably that out to be jam. I passed it up, took the stance on record of a merchant who sol, mum.

They may live so very peaceably that out to be jam. I passed it up, took the stance on record of a merchant who sol, mum.

They may live so very peaceably that out to be jam. I passed it up, took the stance on record of a merchant who sol, mum.

They may live so very peaceably that out to be jam. I passed it up, took the stance on record of a merchant who sol, mum.

They may live so very peaceably that out to be jam. I passed it up, took the stance on record of a merchant who sol, mum.

They may live so very peaceably that out to be jam. I passed it up, took the stance on record of a merchant who sol, mum.

They may live so very peaceably that out to be jam. I passed it up, took the stance on record of a merchant who sol, mum.

They may live so very peaceably that out to be jam. I passed it up, took the stance on record of a merchant who sol, mum.

The proposed is a singular in the stance of the jars out and threw the empty case over- brein by brandy drinking that unless Found out the liquor was at the | he could procure a "nip" he was utterly Got another unable to work. Needless to say, he gencase, which looked like a long trunk erally left his office in a state of intox-

find had a padlock on it. I broke it matton. The day that our posts our Over-Work Weakers desired and found it filled with isney slip- lapsed he went home and insisted on part, and divided them among four of putting every member of his family to me tought, each taking 50 or 60 pairs, bed, under the impression that they, and threw many overboard. Had jam too, had drunk not wisely; but too well. Unhealthy Klineys Make Impure Block enough to last all the way to Sydney. | -- Cassell's Journal. Two weeks before we got there the captain found out we had been bacach-

Intoxicants Fatal in Alaska. In a recent interview in Chicago, Joaquin Miller, the poet, who has spent the habitual coffee drinker. Tea is the popular drink. Whisky is a deadly thing to the Indians, and they are perishing in Alaska very rapidly.

heart beats, and makes one feel as though Among the many new industric which are opening to wage-earners by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and in Convenient Shape for the Housekeeper.

and Plymouth Rocks are specially,

FIG. L

manner, as in Fig. 2, in convenient and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fiftyes. You may have a The best market fowls carry the free, also pamphlet telling you how to find white meat not only on the breast out if you have kidney or bladder trouble.

meated at this point (A), and this is a vital defect. The pure bred Wyandots A BIG BARGAIN. Cut this out and return with $1 00 (money

All the blood in your body passes through

Kidney trouble causes quick or unsteads

soned blood through veins and arteries

f you are sick you can make no mistake

matism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected

your kidneys once every three minutes.

der or currency) and we will order the following "Family Combination" sent prepaid. WEEKLY TRIBUNE, 1 YR. NATIONAL ILLUST'D MAGAZINE, 1 YR. HAPPY HOURS FAMILY MAGAZ'E, 1 YR. VERMONT FARM JOURNAL, 1 YEAR.

ont timo di incentar onsi dai This combination fills a family need. We noted for carrying a generous quantity will substitute the Chicago Weekly Inter of white meat not only upon the breast, Ocean. Toledo Weekly Blade. Kansas City but also well back between the legs. Weekly Star, Denver Weekly Times. Twiceand this is one of the reasons for the a-Week Louisville Courier-Journal, San market popularity of these two breeds. Francisco Weekly Post, or Montreal Weekly

> O. H. JONES, Room 508, Cir. Manager Vermont Farm Journal, WILMINGTON, VERMONT.

For a private trade it is worth while to Gazette in place of the N. Y. Tribune it prepare in an especially attractive Clubbing list for a stamp.

birds carefully, wipe off any discolora-Honesty is the Best Policy. tion with a moist cloth, singe carefully | and remove any remaining pin feathers, and the bird is ready for cooking.

Customers appreciate getting poultry Surely brings success. n just this shape. The feet can be left! on, but when customers have confitry, this is not necessary,—Farm and !

The Parson-Are yo' gwine to school, society has formed a legislative board or gwine fishin'?

with the object of agitating for the car-The Pickaninny-Ah doan know, yet: rying out by parliament of Lord Peel's A'hm just wrasslin wif mah conscience. In Politics. Now this there is no doubt ofin proportion to the smallness of

The holes he has crawled out of. -Detroit Journal. Her Comment. One of the surest ways of ending was permitted to appear as a witness claimed. 'I don't think that's very Well-Posted Cattle.

goods are guaranteed to give satisfaction, that is will refund the money paid for the articles; Beagle & Lasey, Whitesville, N. Y., far from Beagle & Lasev's store or any other W. F. MAIN CO., EASTERN FACTORY,

> AMERICA'S REPRESENTATIVE FASHION MAGAZINE ****************

Published Monthly

* WITH HANDSOME COLORED PLATES. ALSO ILLUSTRATES

the Celebrated____ The only reliable patterns, because they allow seams.

Subscription Price: $1.00 a year.

THE DESIGNER, th Street, New York City ATTORNEY AND COUNSELOR AT LAW MOANS MEGOTIATED.

GREENWOOD, N. Y. ATTORNEY AND COUNSELOR AT LAW. GREENWOOD, N. Y.

G. M. WEBSTER & CO MERCHANTS. GREENWOOD, N. Y

DRUGGISTS, GREENWOOD, N. Y.

Woodard & Young GENERAL MERCHANDISE. GREENWOOD, N. Y SHAW & PLAISTEI

HARDWARE, GREENWOOD, N. Y. C. F. SMITH,

GREENWOOD N. Y HQYT & MAYO, FASHIONABLE BARBER. And many a paleface fellow has her eye-Rooms opposite Woodward & Young.

Shaving and haircutting done

nodern style.

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON,

With that old gray goosequill sticking in Interesting She's the very fairest jewel in our wester

BEGINNING SATURDAY MORNING. November 25.

Special lot of ladies' new jackets, they are' good value at $5.00, we will close them overcoats, one a handsome new cheviot and Mary from marrying beneath her, and his mind about Mary's not being in his fellow-helpers, who, having disthe other an English kersey. 16 years, the best value in the city at $2.50. have to give in and make the best of later, when the ribbons appeared again cy concerning Mary. Nels, the big One special line of boys' new overcoats. ' they are excellent quality at $3.75. Another entire line of men's fleeced underwear, regular 50c. goods at 39c. Lot of ladies fleeced shirt waists at 35c

regular $1.25 quality, we will sell them this Rutter, known in the foundry as "Lit | ment together and told Mary he was | chisel at his tormentor's head. For goods, there is no other line of dress goods like him and he was looking up at her as asked Mary. worth 50 cents, at 39 cents each.

Lot of bleached pillow cases 45 in II cents each. Our entire line of Warner's 333 corsets regular $1 quality, at 50c. with the dudes that perish.

Special Rug-Sale.

standing we were to offer them at the follow ing prices—which are much less than th Size 26x54 at Size 6x9 ft at 10.00 Size 9x12 ft at 21.50.

86 a Week to Start. own town; salary to start at $6 a week. | washed-out eyes, complexion and hair, I don't want you around." Many slow of speech and deliberate of movemake from $12 to $24 a week. You ment. san devote all or your spare time. Send It was at a picnic at Sharpshooters' you, Mr. Murphy," he said. The Bell Company, Dept. C, Philadel- All the boys from the foundry were phy. "That's the trouble. I sin't goin' could see the attitude of the lovers, and

THE SHOULE PEATHERED HAT Mary smiled kindly and binshed a lit stoutly propose walking over to where the too-doesn'tit?" went, however, and as Brother Dan | right / With that old gray goosequill sticking it to pass that Peter was with her most goes, though,"

With an old gray goosequill sticking

With that old gray goosequill sticking !

And the old gray goosequill sticking

low she calls to mind the warrior of red

With that old gray goosequill sticking it

With that old gray goosequill sticking !

She is out upon the warpath, be she plump

Many lovers' scalps are dangling from her

That sweet warrior with the goosequill in

That neat sage-hen with the goosequill in

Maids of statuesque construction 'neath

Or with wealth of floral beauty on their

their ostrich plumes arrayed.

-

BY KENNETT F. HARRIS.

E***************

TOR nearly a year Dan Murphy had

and rivals since the world began.

proud heads may parade.

a radiant song.

magnet every eye.

bright, expressive eye.

she passes by:

skin Indian race.

ing up her face.

or be she svelte.

beauty show.

-Denver Evening Post.

the rest of his days.

shot arrows felt—

help it, don't ye know,

her hat.

her hat.

of the day. Myra being the kind of "It's fer enough," seld Marphy. In her eyes there is a sparkle of most in girl that demanded a man's entire at- "All right," said "Little Pete," walk. tention. Dan did not notice the unmis- | ing to the gate with his chin in the takeable way Peter was buying red lair. pop and ice cream for his sister, but It was nearly a week after that that Fritz Schuler did, and so did Charley |"Little Pete" Rutter passing That it jars the old gray goosequill in Stokes and Nels Engstrom, and they phy's house saw Mary at the gate. He (all mentioned it the next day as they | raised his, stiff hat awkwardly, and sat in the narrow strip of shade | was about to pass on, for he had quit against the foundry wall with their a lot of pride for a small man, when dinner buckets open before them. Not | Mary called him to stop.

Her eyes are dreams of glory and her smile all the coating of foundry grime on | when they did so. As for Mary, it is quite likely that tain that when she returned home she twisting nervously in her fingers. They admire her style, her action and hell was glad to get to her room, where She looked at the apron, too.

she sat for a very long time smiling | "I was real sorry," she said, after a at the wall-paper garlands when she pause: "I hadn't nothin' to do with ought to have been in bed. it, I-I wanted you to know that," Peter had given her his badge—a red "I knew it already. I told him so, (ribbon with the emblem of the Amal- | too." gamated Gravel Roofers blazoned there- | She blushed at that. "Danny's all on in letters of gold. Before she did I got an' I'm all he's got," she said. that Mrs. Ritchie saw "Little Pete" and go to bed she opened a locked drawer "He's father an' mother both to me and took from it a box which contained an' has been since they died. I feel a little gold baby chain, a coral neck | I ought to do what Danny says-in lace, a tiny turquoise ring, a china dol. | most things." She looked at the with a fractured nose and a cheerfu little man half-appealingly as she expression and a tintype portrait o: spoke, but he had no comfort for her. Mrs. Murphy, deceased. Among these waybe you had; maybe you had," treasures she deposited the flamboy he said ant badge and then looked the box ur We all love her and admire her, just cawn't | again. When Murphy came home from work "Good-by." the next day he noticed that his sister | "Good-by," said Peter. "But I'm go- | wore more ribbons than usual and that ing to see you again." her color became heightened when he He kept his promise and walked loked as if he noticed it. down Arbor street twice or "Expectin' company?" he asked. There was no question about her col-

"Mr. Rutter said he might call this her eyes for awhile on that account, But they simply aren't in it with the dash- evenin'," she admitted. come at all if he cared nothing for "My lord," said the interpreter, begin- day while trying to get to a seat. With the old gray goosequill sticking in | tle Pete?""

"Is that what you call him? Yes; the thought. that's who I mean." In the meantime "Little Pete" was "Well," said Murphy, with fine scorn, having a bad time at the foundry. It sir. Now, what did he say?" "I like his gall. How'd that come? Why was not that Murphy bothered him well, my lord, you'll excuse me, but ruefully brushing the dust off her nev Little Pete's" Courting | didn't you tell him you was goin to at all. Since the evening at the gate | } fump the town this mornin an the foreman had hardly spoken to didn't you tell him you was goin' to at all. Since the evening at the gate he said: 'Who's that ould woman, with tailor-made gown. Judge. wouldn't be back for 11 years?" him, and while on casting days, when

"Because I wanted him to come," said Mary, truthfully. Brother Dan laughed. He thought it the shop was overwhelmed with blas impossible that she could be in earnest. phemous adjurations and sulphurous The next day Dan heard something | epithets "Little Pete" went free from Two splendid new lots of men's $10.00 been trying to prevent his sister at the foundry that made him change curses. The bad time proceeded from had so far succeeded, but Mrs. Ritchie | earnest. Still he had the good judgment | covered that Peter was sensitive on One special line of boys' suits, age 9 to said it began to look as if he would to say nothing to Mary until a few days the subject, joked him without mer. it or else be at outs with the girl for | -cherry-colored forecasts of Peter in | Scandinavian, took particular pleas.

a black diagonal cutaway coat too long | ure in this form of amusement unti Mrs. Ritchie came to this conclu- in the sleeves and too high in the col- one morning at the cleaning bench! sion when she saw Mary walking | lar, but sufficiently impressive and | Peter paused in his task of chipping | down the street on Sunday morning | declaratory. accompanied by the ineligible Peter | Then Dan lost his temper and judg- | ings and flung his hammer and cold

"Why should you be, Danny, dear?" Mary was looking tenderly down at

Lot of unbleached sheets 21/4 yards wide, umph in his walk and a carnation in brother, angrily. "Take up with a the general opinion of the foundry his buttonhole. There are circum-skate like that and then ask me why that if Nels had not reached that door stances under which a man may walk you ought to be ashamed of yourself! when he did there would have been on Arbor street with a carnation in It's enough just to look at him. But a general assessment in the mutual his buttonhole and yet not be classed that's neither here nor there. I ain't benefit society to which he belonged. going to stand for it and that's all From that time "Little Pete" was not Murphy was foreman of the foun- about it. You understand that now, annoyed, but he was avoided to some "Little Pete" was not even a Mary, don't you? He don't come here extent, and that was even worse. molder, but "dubbed around," carry- no more." ing-castings and flasks, baking cores, "I suppose that means you'll fire walkeddown Arbor street and stopped stacking pig and shoveling the moist him?" said Mary, meeting his look. black sand for his superiors—a mere That ain't my style an' you ought fully awaiting him. helper. Not only that, but he was to know it," said Murphy, with some weak-eyed, meek and somewhat indignation. "I think I can keep any bandy-legged. Murphy could not for man from coming into my house withthe life of him see what there was out making a club of his job. Ain't about the little rat to take the fancy father and mother both to you?" Size 30x60 at 1.80 of a girl, but that is something that "I don't think father or mother would Size 4x7 ft at 4.69 has been puzzling brothers, fathers have objected," said Mary. But the end never think that," he said. "I'm just of it was that she went sadly upstairs | waiting; that's all. It's coming out all

Perhaps Mary fancied "Little Pete" to her room and Dan sat out on the right. Say, if I came to see you you because he was so distinctly different steps and smoked while he waited for still wouldn't want me to quit coming, from Brother Daniel. Brother Daniel "Little Pete" Rutter. was masterful and subject to fits of | Presently the little man came along, hot anger that found solace in crock- whistling, and opened the gate. ery smashing at home and lurid pro- looked rather abashed as he saw Dan's fanity in the foundry. Mary had been stony face, but he gave him a cheerful dominated by him all her life, and al- "Good evenin'." though she had never been anything | Murphy made no pretense of civility. | all. I'm going to get $50 more and but outwardly submissive there were "Pete," he said, curtly; "I might just then I'm going to quit the foundry. times when rebellion was strong in as well tell you you sin't wanted around But I sin't got no business to stop an If Peter was bandy- here. It'll save me trouble and you talk to you—yet." legged and small he was at least trouble if you keep away. I ain't got l amiable. Mary was a large girl with anythin' against you, understand, but Peter grew white, but he stood his said. "Why haven't you, I'd like to ground boldly. "I didn't come to see know?"

Address, park that Little Pete first met Mary. | "I know you didn't," returned Murthere, and Dan introduced the "help- to beat about the bush. I know you | their looks, had to leave her post er" to his sister with a good-natured come to see Mary, but you can save espial at her window and go into the condescension of manner that Peter vourself the trouble from this on."

took as perfectly natural and proper. "She didn't my so," send "Lattle Pete," back room he order to langh unrethe the When Peter took heart of grace to | "I say so," shouted Murphy, "It goes, | right; I sin't got no business. I sin't foot races were to take place. She lift's your house an' you've got the went away with Myra Hanson it came | Peter." "That's as far as your right here any more?" she asked.

the crane was swinging around with its molten loads, every other man in tunately Nels ducked in time, and the next moment he was dodging a murderous shower of long files and chis-

A night or two after this event Peter

"I thought you wasn't never goin'

to speak to me again," said Mary,

Her hand was resting on the gate and

She evidently understood what he meant, for she shook her head, smiling-dred and fifty dollars saved up-that's hand, but she caught it quickly and Peter placed his over it and patted it

at the gate where Mary was faith-long I can talk to you." Then he went in that time. as often as he passed Mur phy's house and smiled at Mary, wh of his coming. That once he only stayed long enough to hand her a little slip of $200-GOOD-PAYING BUSINESS:

She was as direct as her brother. One night Murphy came home and "Did Danny tell you not to come

"Yes," answered Pete, mournfully "Is that so?" asked Marv. smiling brightly. She did not seem particularther keenly for a moment or two, drew expect him to be there so kindly eggs up his chair to the table and began | cuse."-Youth's Companion. to eat his supper with an easy mind. Later, as he read his evening paper, he heard Mary singing as she washed the And the next day was the Sunday ' Peter had said as she came out in her | best hat and the prettiest frock she | come.—Cincinnati Enquirer. owned: "Fmay never bring you back."

And Mary answered as she slipped her thand in his arm: "I don't ever want | soar aloft, and, cleaving the empyres o go back, Peter."-Chicago Daily Rec-"I think I had better go in," said What the Prisoner Said. Mary, with a little shake in her voice. A celebrated judge was once trying a case where the accused could only understand Irish, and an interpreter war accordingly sworn. The prisoner said something to the interpreter, and the times a week for that especial pur- | "What does he say?" demanded the pose, but he never stopped to speak, lindge Mary went about with red rims around "Nothing, my lord." "How dare you say that, when we all but she reasoned that Peter would not heard him? Come sir, what was it?" | ly on the floor of a trolley car the other

her, and so she found consolation in ning to tremble, "it had nothing to do sympathetic lady picked her up, say with the case:" ing: "These cars are horrid to rid - "If you don't answer I'll commit you, " in, aren't they?"- "They are much hor rider to walk in," replied Miss Fellove

drew James for not having went school yesterday. He started all right out him and another boy stopped

The Bitterest Cup.

Perhaps the most trying experienc

n the career of a maiden who ha

assed the first blush of romantic gir!

od is when she braces herself to mee

The Cruel Maid.

Ye Poet-Would that my muse mig?

blue, find words to sing the glorior glory of your hair of burnished gold.

Ye Maiden (Titian-haired, but pro

eribbler, but do you know the differ

Ye Poet—Ah, a conundrum. I give:

Ye Maiden-Well, my hair's red.

Strictly Correct.

Miss Fellover sat down ignominion

What is the difference, oh faires

ence between your poems and my hair

— That sounds very pretty, M

the shock of a proposal of marriag the rough shell edges from the cast. Be Prepared by Selecting is liable to come in like a

Your Winter Outfit Early

them for wear. Our price this week is 29c. tenderly. Moreover, there was tri- "Don't Danny dear me," said her els on his way to the door. It was We have just received a new line of Portland and Swell bod and can fit you out in style and at moderate prices.

CUTTERS,

Our stock of Stoves, Heaters and Ranges is complete and comprises new styles and Our lines of Heavy and Shelf Hardware are up to date, and we are prepared to name prices that defy competition: Call and see us.

"That's all right, then. I have a hun-

For Sale by Benedict and Van Noy, Andover, N. Y.

And Have it Done as it Should be, at Prices within Reach of All.

He made no answer, but looked fondly into her eyes. Mrs. Richie, who