"Ian Maclaren," in Ladies' Home tised for a wife recently and gave as his of beer or whisky before breakfast, After dinner the dispatcher remarked ever saw was constructed in this way, & Co. Binshamton. N. Y., be sure and :Journal, declares that "the difficulty reason the following: "There is no fun ! of disposing of the old minister has sitting alone these long winter days. I been felt so acutely that adjstinguished with the tark and go to bed with the divine of our day—who is now dead— chickens. Few come in and talk to me, proposed that a minister who was past | because they like to remain in their his prime should be taken out (I pre- own home after the work is done, and some to some sheltered spot) and shot. I don't blame them. It is too far to Certainly he expressed the mind of walk to Mount Pocono or Tobyhanna to some ungrateful and miserable congre- pass away the evening, so I thought gation who would be immensely re- what a nice thing it would be to have a lieved to get rid of an old servant in the wife to talk to me and help me on the quickest and cheapest fashion. Per- farm." haps, also, it would be the kindest thing to the minister when he discovers him- The humorist's assertion that talk is self to be an incumbrance on those cheap, women half price, seems in the whom he loves, and who once loved him, whirligig of time to have brought in its 'to give him by some means the coup de own revenges. At the recent Internagrace, but there are objections on the tional Council of Congregationalists part of an interfering law to this sum- every speaker exceeded the time allotmary method of disposal, and one must | ted him, thus encroaching upon the | HE TOLD MISS CLARK ALL ABOL abandon the idea of an ecclesiastical privileges of his successor. At a sub-'knacker's yard."

A party of 93 teachers attended a overstepped the limit of time, and the I don't, do you? convention at Hot Springs, S. D., and exception was a man! on returning from an excursion tri were saved from a train wreck by a 14-year-old boy. It seems that rancher had attempted to cross a railroad bridge on horseback, and his horse had fallen through the ties. While the man was trying to extricate the horse the boy came along, and he remembered that a passenger train was nearly due at the bridge. Having nothing else for a flag he took off his coat, fastened it on a branch of a tree and hurried along the canyon | 3 n. m and by waving his improvised flag and shouting frantically made the engineer stop the train. The boy refused to take any money as a reward for his services, but when it was agreed to give him a course of education in the state normal school he accepted with What the Scholar Thought.

There is a story going about town vice will consist of a short address by bu cently and was fairly deluged with in are cordially invited. mess only knows what else during his church. A musical and literary prostay, says the Post of that city. He gram will be rendered by the children. accepted almost none of them, and appeared, so far as I know, at but one have presents. Santa will be there in dinner party. There he sat next the person. young daughter of a noted naval officer. Her vocabulary is of a kind pe-Congratulations. man's brilliant reply, for, as a parsonage in this village, Rev. C. E. David said slowly.

nomes from the Eddones of the Golden - The Women's Christian -- Tel Regie hotel at Reading, Pe. It concerds Union of Andover meets the first and third an energetic young rooster that crowed Thursday in each mouth.

and grow fat while carrying in its gizzard a stickpin nearly two inches in Mas. G. W. Prosasco. Press Superint.

The oracle chicken story of the year engin, the sharp point of water and

Church Directory,

M. E. CHURCH.

Class meeting at 12 m.

Sunday School at 12 m.

Junior League at 3 p. m.

Epworth League at 6 p. m.

Rev. C. E. Sutton, pastor.

anday School at 12 m.

UNIVERSALIST CHURCH.

Young People's Christian Union

CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

Christmas Notices.

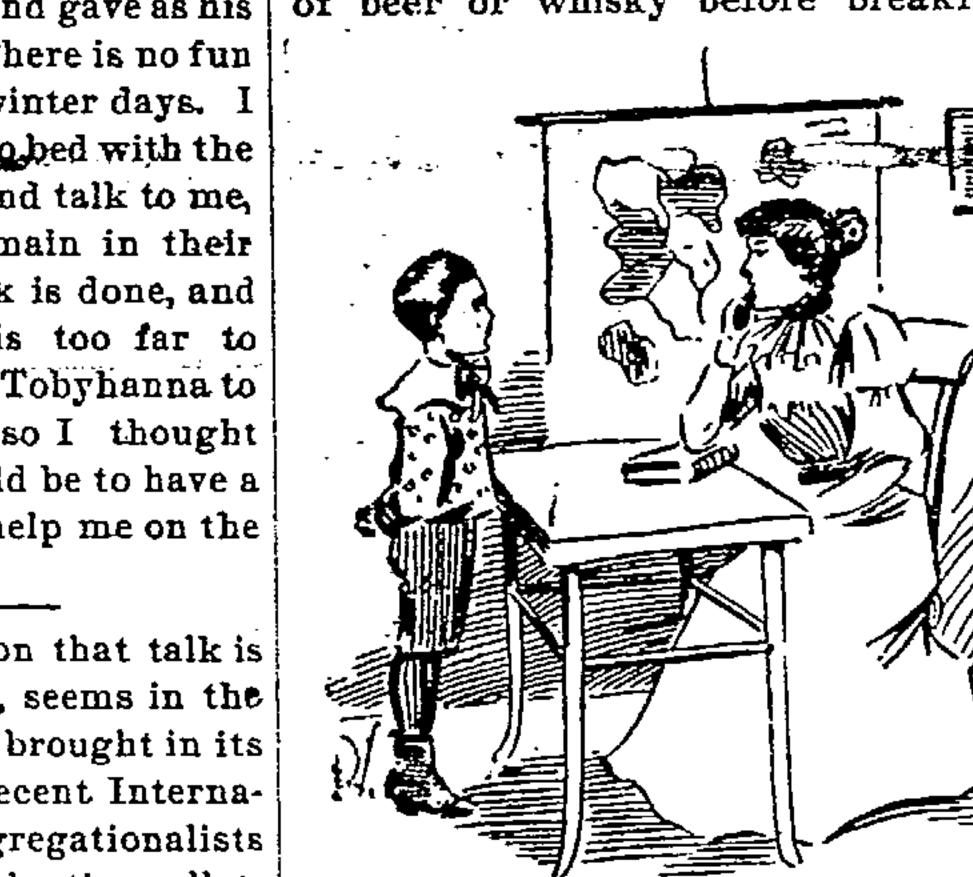

Marriage Notices.

DAVID'S CANARY. Bow a Little Boy Won's Victory Over Appetite and Made His Crips pled Sister Happy. The Kansas courts seem to have no the Golden Eagle was engaged in It was almost time to dismiss school. difficulty in arriving at decisions in a cleaning a lot of fowls preparatory to certain class of cases involving what cooking them for the Sunday dinner. and Miss Clark, the teacher, was tell their handkerchiefs, but the boys were whisky at all, any more."

dreadful thing to drink anything that can make one drunk? You see how first, and Flossy-oh! little Flossy will A Detroit man, whose wife was going | much sorrow it causes, and how much | be the happiest girl living. Do you to San Francisco, accompanied her to wickedness, and how much money it know, Miss Clark, I believe she is get

The children and Miss Clark were vocate It seemed quite dreadful to them for . a child to love to drink whisky, whisky would be sure to do him. He told her his papa gave him a A citizen of Coolbaugh, Pa., adver nickel every morning to get a drink club with the dispatcher of a rainfoad. at the cone. One of the best stables we thousands of testimonial letters received him go along, and about his poor little parent in the abstemiousness c sister Flossy, who was crippled so bad- practical men. This is not from sent. eves, when he teld how much pain cohol literally, and have felt. she felt sometimes, and how lonesome pressing action on the brain and nervshe was when he was at school and ous system. there was no one at home to amuse

He said he loved Flossy better than | members early in the week so that in the world, because he was the disability from the spirits used give anything if he could help her or fore the time for preparation for the keep her from being lonesome.

"Would you really and truly be willing to give up something you are very, tend public dinners because

"Yes, indeed, I would! I'd give up my baseball bat, or my top, or I'd- | tion of its conclusions from the ex-There will be special Christmas services at the M. E. church on Sunday, I'd go without any dinner, if it would perience of practical brain workers and Dec. 24. At the morning service the dc her any good," he said, earnestly. "Would you be willing to go without pastor will preach a sermon appropriate to the occasion. The evening ser- your whisky, and save the money to recently organized in Worcester, Mass., vice will consist of a short address by buy something to keep her company— consisting of the following local sociejust now concerning a famous man of the pastor and a special and elaborate a bird, for instance? You know if ties: The W. C. T. U., Reform club, six the Cuban market than butter for instance? letters who visited Washington re- musical program by the choir. All one has something pleasant to think lodges Independent Order Good Temabout or listen to when they are sick, plars, three American, three Swedish. vitations to breakfasts and kuncheons | Christmas night, Dec. 25, there will they are not so apt to think of their Each organization has a representative and dinners and suppers, and good- be a Christmas tree at the M. E. aches and pains," said Miss Clark. David's face turned very red, and he didn't say anything for awhile.

All are invited to use the tree for the A quiet wedding took place at the residence of James Miner, in this says it is good for the health."

'place. The ceremony was performed lit good for your father's health, do girl didn't give him a chance. She by Rev. Sutton of the M. E. church, you think, when it made him so weak that ted him all sorts of questions. It in the presence of the family and a or so nervous or so clumsy that was during a pause in the general few immediate relatives. Those dropped your dear little sister, and Monversation that she said to him: present besides those, above named made a cripple of her?" said Miss in awfully struck on Shakespeare. were Mr. and Mrs. Peter Rollins. Clark, looking into the boy's face. "N-o, I s'pose not, and I believe

Everybody listened to hear the On Sunday, Dec. 17th, at the M. E. can study better before I drink 1 which or beer or anything to make He drunk? And wouldn't your mothor be very happy, too, if she knew her little boy would never more make her. ery, by going into a saloon and per-Oh! David, if I were in your place, I'd try and see."

Devid looked up and saw tears in Miss Clark's eyes, and all at once he Till do it. Miss Clark, and, oh! How to Keep the Air in the Cow won't Flossy and mamma be glad!" oure enough, when the Christma. holidays came, he bought a beautifu canary for his sister.

lessons, have been a much better boy head of your class. Will not your "She just won't believe it at all, at tle eyes like two shining black beads Laura J. Rittenhouse, in National Ad. a board to lower edge of the inside open-cian a Valuable Lesson on the Perils of Wine Drinking.

down. -The physician inquired the rea. for intakes.-Ohio Farmer. son. He answered: "The wine I have Treed, adflough in small quantity, has bewildered my brain for accurate work. and I must rest. I would not dare to go on duty now. I should make mistakes and not know it at the time, and ' the mortification of having them corrected by my associates would confuse me still more." The physician thought: "I am going to make some very important calls in the homes the hospital where my best judgment and skill is required. Is it possible that dispatcher, and said: "You were right, yet only palliative measures have thus j of my best families by my indiscretion sequent meeting of a State Federation and he seemed to think his papa was and anger. I realize now that I cannot the disease to persons, especially to of Women's Clubs only a single speaker very kind to him when he did it; but use wine and have full possession of the bacillus producing myself." This is a phase of the revolu-tion of public sentiment which is com-Then he told Miss Clark all about tion of public sentiment which is comhis home; how his mamma cried be- inginto prominence among active brain cause his papa went to saloons and let workers. At banquet tables this is aply that she had to lie in bed all the ment or theory, but from experience. time: and the tears came into David's They know the anaesthetic effects of al

> An .old-time clergyman during pas-Sunday service.

A noted public man refused to very fond of, to please her?" said Miss | wines used. He gave as a reason that h ! Clark, patting him kindly on the could not use wines without injuring ! Science is receiving a strong confirma-thinkers.—Journal of Inebriety. A temperance federation has been which forms an executive board. ject, a strong, united effort against licensing the liquor traffic.

Some Truth About Champagne. There is more champagne drunk in one year than the champagne district champagne district exported 19,630,000 of 20 that has ever gone dry more Stable Fresh and Purcy Without Danger of Draughts.

The plan illustrated in J. H. Monrad's , "You see," he said to Miss Clark "A. B. C. of Buttermaking" is as cheap ' I knew I could earn some money after Build a wooden flue (A A) on one side uppear to the ordinary mind. Recently hand. He made an investigation and suit little boys and girls, and this school hours, besides doing without two feet square for 20 cows. This flue story was a very sweet one, yet sad | the whisky so I've just worked like comes down within a foot of the floor too, and a good many of the girls had the mischief, and oh! you don't know and runs up at least four feet above the wiped the tears from their cheeks with how glad I am, and I don't want the ridge of the roof, and is covered with a hood to keep out rain. On the op-ling, slanting upwards, to direct draft toward the ceiling. This intake need not be over six inches square. Train Dispatcher Teaches a Physi. Two flues on one side of building, each by druggists, in fiftyone or one and one-half feet square, sizes. You may have a the little would no doubt be better than one two sample bottle by mail A physician was invited to dine at the in the middle, piercing the roof ing all about it, including many of the

The Only Way to Destroy Them Is by

National Importance

and I have been taught a lesson I never It is known that milk from cows will forget. That afternoon's work whose udders are affected by tubercu- Daily and Sunday by Mail, - $8.00

Price 5c. a Copy. By mail, $2 a year.

AMERICAN POULTRY ADVOCATE, 1 YR

O. H. JONES, Room 508. Cir. Manager Vermont Farm Journal,

ATTORNEY AND COUNSELOR AT LAW. GREENWOOD, N. Y.

MERCHANTS, GREEN WOOD: N. Y.

W. G. SMITH & CO., DRUGGISTS, GREENWOOD, N. Y And while they rise to glory, I

WOODARD & YOUNG, 1 God knows no thought of envy stirs GENERAL MERCHANDISE, GREENWOOD, N. Y But some day, when the angel Death

HARDWARE, GREEN WOOD, N. Y C. F. SMITH

Physician and Surgeon,

GREENWOOD N. Y. HOYT & MAYO, MISS BEECHER'S JOURNE' FASHIONABLE BARBER Rooms opposite Woodward & Young, Shaving and haircutting done

Interesting

Tuttle &

BEGINNING SATURDAY MORNING November 25.

good value at $5.00, we will close them Two splendid new lots of men's $10.00 overcoats, one a handsome new cheviot and the other an English kersey.

One special line of boys' suits, age 9 to with her till it was completed. 16 years, the best value in the city at $2.50 One special line of boys' new overcoats, they are excellent quality at $3.75. Another entire line of men's fleeced under wear, regular 50c, goods at 39c.

Lot of ladies fleeced shirt waists at 35c. One entire line of our finest Whipcordsregular $1.25 quality, we will sell them this worth 50 cents, at 39 cents each. Lot of bleached pillow cases 45 in II cents each. Our entire line of Warner's 333 corsets regular $1 quality, at 50c.

Special Rug Sale.

hundred fine Smyrna rugs with the under-Size 18x35 at $0.69 Size 26x54 at 1.49

Size 4x7 st at 4.69 now?" Size 36x72 at 2.69 Size 9x12 ft at 21.50.

Hornellsville, N. Y.

One Minute Cough Cure, cures

price and easy terms. Inquire of Kellogg. Greenwood, N. Y., or Sebring, Corning, N. Y.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salvo Cures Piles, Scalds, Barns.

Thank God that some may reach morning. She accomplished all her ar- violent. We are near Green Pon 1 sta- he finished, simply. rangements without difficulty, and was | tion, and I think you will have to get | "Well," she answered, "supposing I the railroad and hotel officials.

She turned quickly away and buried toward them again and pretended leyes. He was a well-dressed | though Maud's mental comment was that he was "cheap."

[VI cago girl. She came to Boston on | head. Again the man smiled. person, especially with jewels, of which oned to the conductor. "Those men," pointing directly The two cousins did not find them- them, "are annoying me very much b selves very congenial and Maud soon their boldness." parts of Massachusetts in search of the conductor. "I will see that it does not happen again." And he moved toward She got on better with Tom Holland the young man.

17 and he found his cousin very amus- conversation which Maud could not nevertheless it was awkward, and he finished an article on "historic houses" said, "and this young man's sister. She looking wildly about her. Finding her and Maud generously offered to remain has been insane for some months) though quite harmless and quiet. She repeated her rash offer as the hot last her mind became so deranged that i summer days came on, but Teresa pro- we decided to take her to a quiet little tested that it was cooler in the library camp in the woods. Her mother is of the big city house than on the piazza | there already waiting for her. She like: of the beach house, where the glaring to fancy herself traveling alone, so we sand reflected in one's face, or in the humored her by getting seats over here) one of her fancies to pretend not to know us. Her brother has smiled at her have told you when we got on, but we hoped she would take the journey quietly. I assure you we will get off' she is troublesome," and he sighed decided to write an article on photo- deeply. graphic art studies before going away, "Sad case!" murmured the conductor

Teresa was surprised an hour later and fastened a costly diamond pin in] her hair, and another in her breast, to hold in her watch with its jeweled pendant. Onher fingers were many rare she was his interest would have been more than professional. As it was he

"Well," exclaimed Teresa, "where hurried his cigar and went back to his seat, which was next to Maud's. He "To the Maine woods to see Tom,"

Teresa gave it up and went back to take off her jewelry if she didn't wan. o get robbed.

eresa soon forgot all about her, re- wretches. The begreed to know if an i dinner bell rang. Then she remem- | without being estacked by raffians, bered with a pang that her cousin had | "Will nobody belo me?" the cried, I tion." he said. "Supposing you should one a very uncircumspect thing and lead, looking shout saw exercises gaze lead hack to Chicago as you have planted | the fish interest

t bound to write Mrs. Holland ing pitvingly at her, but not one start to do, next month, what a blank you | "Business is pretty a

"What!" she cried. "do you think As the train bowled along northward I am crazy? Oh, my God! 'And, sink- BOSTON'S LONE FISHER WOMAN' n the early morning she was congratu- ling into her chair, she buried Lir face of timid young maidens who never As the train slowed up the 🛪 o men traveled alone, when she became con- I took her by the arm and co nilenced scious of a mir of eyes riveted on her dragging her down the a sle. She face brightened.

"O, there's Tom Holland-Tom! herself in a newspaper. The eyes still Tom!" she cried, struggling with re-1 At that Dr. Aldrich's athletic form seems indifferent to the stares of the blocked the stairway. "If you know people on the passing boats.

Tom Holland," he said, "I demand o these gentlemen proof that they have any right to coerce you in this way." for Tom Holland, who had been on the self and her two little children. platform three minutes before.

and, seizing his grip, had made a rush | morning I take care of the house and Here was the doctor with an uncon- treat me with the greatest respect.

Special lot of ladies' new jackets, they are trip, Mrs. Holland and the younger have shrieked aloud could she have The station master brought him a mng with some whisky in it, and he succeeded in bringing Maud back to consciousness. She sat up crying and dress loosened at her throat she clutched wildly at her jewels, and finding all safe she looked in the faces of the doctor and the station master.

"Who are you?" she cried. "You are not the ones who carried me off." Then she called for Tom repeatedly, and sobbed out that if she had taken Be Prepared by Selecting Teresa's advice she would never have The doctor tried to reassure her, but

The doctor was far from comfortable. No doubt this girl knew the Hollands, but she might be crazy, nevertheless. Her actions were suspicious enough. Perhaps Tom Holland would not thank him for bringing this girl to the camp Two hours later the question was settled for him. They overtook Tom driving in and surprised him greatly. He had never received the doctor's letter saying he was coming, and of course

Maud's advent was a surprise. Explanations passed on both sides. and Maud's shaken nerves began ' quiet down. Mrs. Burridge put her to bed as soon as they reached the camp, and the doctor sent up a dose of bro-

Two days later Miss Teresa Holland arrived. Her mother's advice had been: ourself." Teresa found Maud very well taken care of when she arrived. man who professed to be her uncle, She was swinging in Tom's hammock look after her very carefully.

very pleasant companion, and she could

It was the first time he had let her | tions and promise maining absorbed in her work till the | American lady could not travel alone | talk of her fright, for it agitated her. "I was thinking of enother supposi- | skill the fishers

She Gets Them,

pectantly in her hand and with her eyes her. She scarcely ever looks up and fixed on the water directly beneath | Has the Lost Man Been Found?

ed to her essistance. One woman I would leave behind you! Then, again, said, with a smile, ? pulled in plenty of fish. "Wet weather does not frighten a the least. In fact, L enjoy it, to fish bite better. "I would advise very poor persons." , take to fishing. With a bent hook ex She Fishes Day After Day, Not for enough fish for food. Boston harbor is Pleasure, But for Fish, and filled with several kinds of fish, and they are good eating. Fish bite at all face. Whething in her chair she enfought them inch by inch, but they countered them. They were gray, unwere strong men and she as light girl many hundreds of passengers on the store cosing. Nobody owns the ocean Pru sa long as the wharfinger doesn't ting, man fashion, on the end of an Last got cross the fishermen should be con-Boston wharf holding a flabing line ex-

She enjoys the distinction of being | near Andrew's Settlement left his hom the only woman among the many fish to purchase a harness, having upward ermen who fringe the edges of Boston's Before he reached the end of his sen- wharves from sunrise until sunset. She of $200 on his person; that he fell in tence he and the young girl occupied comes to the wharf almost daily at an with a person, a stranger, and the the platform alone. Both men took to early hour with a small basket. She both came on the freight as far a their heels and have not been heard does not go home to dinner, but eats a of since. The young lady swayed for- light luncheon which she brings with Greenwood, reaching the station above. ward and would have fallen but for her. Fishing is by no means simply a 7 o'clock in the evening. Here the the doctor's strong arm. He lifted her pleasure with her. To a reporter she caboose was detached from the train down from the train and looked about said her fishing partly supported her- just above the station to take out som "I am not ashamed of my occupa- ed up the passengers were missing The doctor had seen him at the same tion," she went on to say. "All kinds of Since that time a neighbor of the instant Maud had cried out to him, weather finds me on the wharf. In the farmer has been here looking after for the door. He, too, was on his way send the children to school, and then I him, and the latest report is that he to Tom's camping place, and decided, come down on the wharf and fish. I can get no trace of the missing man tired of wheeling through the historic "I am very sorry," returned the polite down to Green Pond to intercept him. | who cast their lines from the wharf train drew in to the yard at Green on seeing him, that Tom had driven never suffer any annoyance. The men since he was seen in the car when the scious lady in his arms and no one in How much do I get for my fish? been found proved to be another man and often begged him to take her wheel- The elder man rose as the conductor sight. His professional training made Well, that depends. Sometimes I get Can any one throw any light on the is liable to come in like a

CUTTERS,

and can fit you out in style and at moderate prices.

Our stock of Stoves, Heaters and Ranges is complete and comprises new styles and

Our lines of Heavy and Shelf Hardware are up-to date, and we are prepared to name prices that defy competition.

Call and see us.

PLRISTED,

For Sale by Benedict and Van Noy, Andover, N. Y.

Printing Come

Have it Done as it Should be, at Prices within

" Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble. Kidney trouble preys upon the mind. dis-disappear when the kidneys are out of order that it is not uncommor neys. If the child urinates too often, if the afflicted with weak kidurine scalds the flesh or if, when the child control the passage, it is yet afflicted with The mild and the immediate effect feet square. Some place these flues free, also pamphlet tell- Home of Swamp-Root.

that he must go to his room and lie with elbow tile three inches in diameter & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and the Thorough Pasteurization of Milk and Cream. The subject of tuberculosis is one which interests the entire world. Although dollars innumerable and great atudy have been devoted to securing some method of successfully combat-'ling this disease, and although the world is startled now and again with, far been found effective in any degree. Daily by Mail, I losis is liable to cause a transmission of now interesting and important to know | that foreign investigations have dem- is the greatest Newspaper in onstrated that tuberculosis germs are often found in butter and that they will there live for a considerable period .

of time. The only way, it is stated, to feel sure of the butter and milk you are consuming is to know that the milk and the cream from which the butter is made is pasteurized and the germs killed. It is not now generally believed be directly inherited—it is acquired by the offspring rather from close contact with the mother. At the Wisconsinstation some of the best animals were found to be diseased. They were sepand fed on the milk of other cattle. They have proved perfectly healthy. Our Price $1. Regular Cost $4.

Imitation Butter in Cuba. sold in Cuba as American butter. ods which have so greatly injured the pasteurized.—Farmers' Review.

fraudulent trade American butter and their products.—Philadelphia Press.

A writer in the Jersey Bulletin says fore they course they been reco tratement the Well-top Carting State Comot go dry at all and other saws that go dry one or two months. so far an health, vigor or lasting applities . It is largely a matter of habit, and is a heiter is allowed to contract the first calf she is more apt to go dry a little longer the next time. Skillful pruning is absolutely neces. Bary for securing continued crops of good fruit of any kind.

belloon seared a team of horses, caus- find a stickpin therein. The pin was ashamed to cry, so they had looked up "Yes," said Miss Clark, "and that posite side of stable two or three el- courages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor reaches an age when it should be able to bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of

News and Opinions

the announcement that a great discovery levy has been made along these lines, CONTAINS BOTH the world.

der or currency) and we will order the fol-'I wing "Family Combination" sent prepaid.

poses after having been thoroughly will substitute the Chicago Weekly Inter Ocean, Toledo Weekly Blade, Kansas City Weekly Star, Denver Weekly Times. Twicela-Week Louisville Courier-Journal, San Honesty is the Best Policy.

liters, valued at 91,327,552 francs. Eng- | than a month at a time before calving. | these goods from our customer, we will sell the "Don't you think Flossy would love land bought more than half the total. That cow was brought into the herd warranty and delication was brought into the herd warranty and delication to the same To place of nower, to peaks of sonx. They pass me by.

Build in the vale my humble nest

And yet-and yet-my heart demura

And ceaselessly in yearning cries:

Unlocks the prison house for me.

Of higher raptures yet to be;

And nevermore in sorrow say:

And as I soar on eager wing

, too, shall catch the Heavenly breath

To taste the joys for which I pray,

My voice shall from the summit ring,

"They pass me by!"

-George Edward Day, in N. Y. Observer.

An Exciting Story of a Chicago Girl's Trip to the Maine Woods.

most tumble-down houses there.

"They pass me by!"

f They ness me by with kindly word with hands outheld to help me climb The pulses of my life are stirred With Aspiration's song sublime. i They cheer me on with friendly smile. And their example's shining star, And yet between us all the while The mists of purple distance are— They pass me by! They pass me by! they pass me by!

Mand enjoyed her journey immensely I fainted, another had hysterics and the suppose you should let me join you know, depends upon luck and and was not at all alarmed to find she little conductor bustled up officiously I therein the fall, and suppose you should | ness. I have see here see must spend the night in Portland, and and said, quite loud enough for Maud come back with me and let me take hours without getting as me leave at an unseasonable hour in the to hear: "She seems to be gutting care of you always. I love you, Maud," | nibble, while those sitting bear . The heart that cannot with them rise.

treated with respectful courtesy by all off here." lating herself and thinking with scorn in her hands.

pleasant eyes, and they did not drop of 20; so they had her at the door ferries for some time have seen her sitbefore hers, but their owner smiled when the train stopped. Sucdealy her followed her and she ventured to turn , fall asleep, thus gaining an opportunit to study the offender through half-shu

Ithought, angrily. "Well, I'm not than INTISS MAUD BEECHER was a Chi- kind," and she involuntarily tossed her a visit to her cousin, Miss Teresa Hol- | Just then an older man with | land, a girl with a fad, and that fad was | smooth, hard face joined him, and both old historic houses, of which Miss Te- | began to talk earnestly, frequent resa had made a large number of photo- | glancing across at Maud as though she graphs. If Miss Beecher had a fad it were the subject of their talk. At last was the adornment of her own stylish | she could endure it no longer, and beck ing with the other "fellows." Tom was crossed the car and engaged him in a him quite equal to the occasion, but as high as three cents apiece for good- mystery?

hear, but the conductor glanced back swore softly under his breath as he At last Tom and the other fellows at her several times, and she knew carried Maud's limp form into the little went to the Maine woods for a hunting there was some mystery. She would station house. children left for their seaside home, and heard what the cool stranger was say Maud and Teresa were left alone in the ling about her. "The young lady is my niece," h great city house. Teresa had almost Maine woods, where mosquitoes and and letting her pay for her seat. It is black flies made life miserable. goods, there is no other line of dress goods like them for wear. Our price this week is 29c. Lot of unbleached sheets 2½ yards wide, worth 50 cents at 20 cents at tumes, to see if one might not be a trifle, cooler than the others.

> Maud walked out of the room without Dr. Herman Aldrich was in the smoker at the time of the above interwhen Maud appeared with her traveling view, but when the conductor bag in her hand. She wore a covert through he stopped sociably and told cloth skirt and a silk shirt waist. She him of the case. Dr. Aldrich was a warm friend of the Maud replied, gayly. Teress dropped her pen in dismay. "Going to see Tom," she ejaculated, "and wearing all those jewels! Really, Maud, I shall have to telegraph mamma nearly all the people in the car had while Dr. Aldrich read aloud.

become acquainted with the story of The girls stayed two weeks and I will give up this article and go with the insane lady, and wherever she you to the beach if you wish. I thought turned she met curious or pitying camp, Teresa finding plenty to admire "No, Teresa, I will not let you sacridetermined to go fishing with the boys. Rising, she was about to pass down Maud was a good deal changed by her Mrs. Burridge is up there cooking fo. the boys. I shall be chaperoned right. It's no worse than wheeling with looked long at the girl's regular profile, and at last she turned her clear In some way, best known by the She grew more and more nervous,

"Mattie." he said, "you had better unhappy experience. She started quick- Old Age Postponed. when the elder man was by her side. tion, Dr. Aldrich found it necessary to Onenight, near the end of their stay, Mand and the doctor were strolling c and what Mand Beecher acted insane. both were strangely silent. Finally freight cars, and when the train start

Your Winter Outfit Early