A striking example of the determi nation of the people to take things in, their own hands once they become aroused is furnished by Chicago's vote for municipal ownership of the city railway companies. For years the INULTUILL people suffered every sort of oppression), from the "Railway bosses." They! suffered in patience but apparently they were doing much thinking. Now \ they have determined to assume control of the railroads themselves. So it will be with the great railway sys tems of the country if the dominant party fails to exercise proper control over the transportation industry.
