MORAL AND RELIGIOUS TRAINING IN THE FAMILY IS ES-SENTIAL, AND JUST AS IT IS NEGLECTED DO THESE EVILS IN-

By civic evils we refer to corporate greed, financial immorality and official infidelity, as in the case of the insurance crimes and the group). of crimes broadly classified as "graft." I do not know enough of the facts in the packing house scandals to include them in this generalization, but, generally speaking, this class of evil is due to a LACK OF CONSCIENCE as applied to corporate acts.

A man will excuse much in his corporation which his conscience would condemn IN HIMSELF. Corporate conscience is negative. It minimizes responsibility and multiplies and magnifies excuses.

A rudimentary moral sense will keep a man from stealing his neighbor's goods, but the moral sense must be educated to see moral wrong, sin and crime in the acts of a CORPORATION.

There has been of late a great awakening of what is called public conscience. This has given rise to much broad, liberal discussion of prevalent abuses and their causes, fixing the responsibility and often disclosing criminality and is doing much to remedy those abuses and bring business morality back to the point of safety. This is at least my hope. I believe I can see a decided tendency in that direction.

Public discussion brings understanding, and men who have been blind to the wrongs of corporate crimes have had their eyes opened. THEY NOW SEE MUCH THAT THEY COULD NOT SEE

I believe the secret of the great increase of suicides is due to a lack.

An awakening to the sense of responsibility overwhelms a man whose moral courage has not been fostered by religious home training.

He has not the sustaining force which a sense of the sanctity of his own He has not the sustaining force which a sense of the sanctity of his own obligations would give. This moral cowardice prompts him to take refuge in death from responsibilities which he has not been trained to assume and discharge.

This is business morality. SOCIAL MORALITY DEPENDS UPON SOMETHING MORE. The family, which is the foundation of society, is the source to which we must look for its purification. The great crimes and scandals which are now exciting so much comment can be traced directly to a lack of sanctity in the family relations. Until the sanctity of family ties is MORE GENERALLY RECOG-NIZED I see little hope for improvement.

The principal obligation of the family is the religious education of JOHN TRAINOR'S the young, the importance of which is apparent.

Is the confirmed petty thief each time to be subjected to the same treatment as the man who in a burst of anger slays his neighbor, BUT HAS OTHERWISE LED AN UPRIGHT LIFE!

We are today applying reform methods to some so called first other. The sworn duty of public officials is to enforce the law. Refusal on their part, whether it G. H.: BEEBE offenders who never can be reformed under the present methods and are refusing reforms to some unfortunates who have fallen a number of times because reform was never PROPERLY applied. The reason for this lies in the fact that we have failed to grasp that which lies at the bottom of the whole problem, that just as each man commits a crime as a result of his environment, of temptation, of proclivity or whatever the weakness may be called, so that special weakness be treated IN AN INDIVIDUAL MANNER. Ninety-nine thieves may all be thieves and yet each one of the ninety-nine be a thief from different causes, and each should be subjected to different treatment. The discoveries of Professor Benedickt established the correctness of the claim that mental treatment and development is the sure method of reformation. If the prisoner be amenable to this, he should be discharged AT THE PROPER TIME and not until then.

My conclusions, then, are these: That the same care which is exercised in depriving a person of his liberty should be employed in returning it to him.

That the judicial function should cease when a person has been adjudged guilty of a crime and that then the presiding judge should ers, being subject to our own simply commit the defendant for such treatment as a commission of More Instructive and Far Better Than spleen against anything ever | experts shall advise and for so long a time AS MAY BE NECES.
