The Negro's Solemn Duty By BOOKER T. WASHINGTON

HERE is much that the brave, intelligent, patriotic white men of America can do for the negro; there is much that we can do FOR OURSELVES. The executive authorities should see to it that every law is enforced regardless of race or color and that the weak are protected from injustice from the strong. W these illustrated travel bulletins sent have examples in several of the southern states that this is being done back by wandering Harry and athletic in an encouraging degree.
