What the Andover Pastors Spoke About in Their Respective Pulpits Last

Choosing for his theme "The Rev-) elation of Character," Rev. H. D. Bacan spoke Sunday morning from the text, For there is nothing covered that shall not be known." Luke 12:2. "Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them." Matt. 7:20.

The pastor contrasted character and reputation, emphasizing the thought that the men for a time may disguise themselves under an outward respectvisited Misses Bernice and Avice Mead ability, yet finally they are known for just what they are. As every detail of life influences character, so also it tle acts reveal it. A man's conversation, the friends he seeks, the thing he desires and strives for, are as a rule a sure revelation of his real self. While this is true every day, it is true to a greater extent as character is shown when one approaches the end of earthly life and the revealing light Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Webber of Hor- of eternity.
