The Comstock Wagon.

Years ago the first Comstock wagon was made, by hand. It was a good wagon,—as wagons go; better than others, at the same price. From that time down to this, the Comstock wagon has held its own,-and gained each year in popularity. In fact you, yourself, have probably used a Comstock wagon at sometime or other,—and it was a good wagon, wasn't it?

We take the entire output of Comstock Wagons. They're hand-made throughout-and the irons are forged by hand, insuring long life. We warrant the Comstock Wagon in every respect; and, if you have any special idea as to how you'd like your wagon, we'll change our regular style to meet your views, at very little additional

OUR PRICES:

For the regular 3 1-4 In. gear $40.00 For the regular 3 1-2 In. gear $45.00

If you bought a wagon by mail to equal the Comstock, you'd pay $55 or $60—and the freight, besides.
