n the election of william Howard Taft to the Presidency of The United States. It means the continuance of ; progressive government, the clinching of the Roosevelt policies: We shall have four years of order2 dignified administration without noise or bluster. Sanity, courage and tect, if we mistake not, will characterize Judge Taft's term in the White House. "He will make a better pres- \ ident than I have made" is Mr. Roosevelt's prediction, and Mr. Roosevelt ought to know. He certainly will make a different President for in the two men are not in the least alike. For the work that he had to do Theodore Roosevelt was well adapted. He came at a time when there was need of arousing the country, to appreciation of the course into which our national life was drifting. He set men thinking as they had not thought before since the RUBBER 60008 There is no question but what we can save you a lot of money on Rubber Goods. There is also no question but what we can show you a much better assortment than you cau see at home. While we carry a large stock of Rubber Goods we do not load up on any one line thereby keeping our goods always fresh. We can show Hot Water Bots, from 50c to $2.00, Syranges from 50 to $2.50, Combinations (Water Bots. and Syrange combined) from $1.00 to $3.00. CANDY-We have just added Two of the finest lines of Box Candies in the country to our stock. Mary Elizabeth Candies made in Syracuse are without exception the finest cenfections we have ever seen. They come in a variety of shapes sellings, including assorted Chocolates, Bon-bons and Chocolates, Checolate Covered Almonds, etc. They are priced at 80c The Fenway goods are 60c and we have never seen their equal at the price. MEDICINAL LIQUORS—We cannot impress too strongly upon your minds the value of using a straight pure whiskey in the sick room. In our Old Amber we have just such a liquor; age, purity and strength are its characteristics. Sold at 60c the pint, $1 a quart. Our Week end Special tomorrow will be the Rexall Tooth Paste at 12c
