A GREAT FIGHT

attempts at liberty in the past, some of the people of Nicaragua have bruck a final blow.

Paragrapher No Longer Funny

We of the nothern republic have same sport of southern revolutions. anug in our contentment, we have encored the librettist's stage idea of a blow for freedom. We have put aside memories of Bunker Hill, Coneerd,Saratoga, Yorktown and laughed progriously over the evening paper paragrapher's jest at the expense of a Central American patriot.

Now, with the murder of two Ameri mans, who were fighting a tyrant ac-cording to their Yankee conception of the right to protect their source of

It's a long step from the liberty of down trodden republic to customs house graft, but it serves to show ver things, and then it takes a still longer time to apply remedies. I can cite one instance. Up to the I can cite one many important in the matter of the execution of Cannot diustment of the Emory claim the matter of the execution of Cannot against Nicaragua there was for a ong while a United States Consul in bluefields who was interested in the business of his office just to the bare extent of keeping "in right" at Wash instruction. He had a two-by-four room the United States citizens on the Pacific coast who are sympataizers are 2 Zelaya wins extent of keeping "in right" at Wash-ington.—He-had-a-two-by-four room in the hotel Tropical, which served as the United States Consulate, and the flag of the greatest republic in history flew from a dinky rear window of the hotel, its folds affording shade to the flies that whiled away their spare moments on the hostelry's garbage pile. Now it dosen't take more than a quart of printer's ink from here on to tell that this "Consul" was about as interested in his sworn duties as the red monkeys of Rama are concerned about the circulation of the right to protect their source of kying and revenue, perhaps the migaty republic of the north may wake from its sleep and take notice of a situation that is more pressing for settlement by far than the proposition of an open door to the Orient. Ton may well ask: "If conditions are as bad as you assert they are, why have they been allowed to exist." There are plenty ofreasons and I will same a few of them, but it may clear up the situation in a small measure by inquiring how it is that the Washington government has just now discovered that it has been robbed of more than $30,000,000 in the last twenty years by Irregularities in the sixteen long comparatively matter of policy you see! Then, interrupted years of his absolute of hymn books.

Then here's another reason why the unbearable conditions in Nicosarda have are trading at the stream of the proposition of an open door to the free are plenty of them. But it may clear the stream of the proposition of an open door to the free are plenty of the situation of an open door to the free are plenty of the situation of an open door to the proposition of an open door to the free are trading at the same a few of them, but it may clear the proposition of an open door to the free are trading at the same of the proposition of an open door to the free are trading at the same and the proposition of an open door to the free are trading at the same of the proposition of an open door to the free are trading at the same and the proposition of an open door to the free are trading at the same are trading at the gradual have been permitted to obtain without let or hindrance. Americans Unsafe Without Action There was a New Orleans mining engineer on the boat which brought me from New Orleans to Bluefields He has mining interests in the Print Apolka District. He knows Nicaragu well. He said today: "If Washingtor does not produce some real action in the matter of the execution of Canno the United States citizens on the Pacific coast who are sympathizers with the rebels, in case Zelaya wins is not hard to answer. If Washington fails in summary action, an American had better remain away from Nicar-

The present uprising in Nicaragua is not a "monkey uprising" by any means. It is a final despairing at tempt of a manacled people to rid themselves of intolorable conditions of living. It is not the attempt of one man Estrada, to elevate himself to power. But it is the outburst of a common, united people who are in tensely earnest as the "MinuteMen" of our own history. Persons here whose mouths have been closed for years have now dared to come out in the open and declare against their in the open and declare against their persecutor. Merchants, Doctors, men of business have gone to the front with Estrada and Chamorra. The fibetive lists at the front read like a business directory of the Nicaragus coast. The fighting men care nothing about Estrada. He is to them as and who cares about the iden the physician as long as he tity of the physician as long as he applies a remedy that cures the
