CENSUS APPLICATION FORMS.

Those for Enumerators Received by the District Supervisor.

Census Supervisor, John L. Campbell, Supervisor of Census, whose office is at Brocton, N. Y., has received from the Census Bureau a supply of blank applications for persons applying for positions as census enumerators. These will be forwarded to his list of applicants as soon as possible.

The applications, properly filled out must be returned to the Supervisor not later than January 31, the Census Director having extended the time for filing from January 25, which was the date first set for closing the consideration of applications. The "test" will occur February 5, as previously announced.

The instructions printed on the application form state that a definite answer is required to each of the questions, which are:

- "Are you a citizen of the United States. If naturalized citizen, when and where were you naturalized?"
- "Of what State or Territory are you a legal resident? How long have you been a legal resident thereof?"
- "Of what county and of what town or city ward are you a resident? How long have you been a resident thereof?"
- "What is your sex and color?"
- "What was your age at last birthday? Where were you born?"

feeding and the production and care of milk and butter. Agricultural chemistry, soil fertility, farm sanitation and plant and animal breeding are among the topics to be discussed. Several demonstrations are to be given, and many of the lectures will be illustrated with lantern slides.

While raising of high grade farm animals and crops receives proper attention, the farmer's family is not considered of less importance, and human nutrition is also given a prominent place on the program with many details contributing to the comfort and pleasures of country life.

During many of the periods two lectures will be given at the same time, thus allowing a choice of subjects. All of the sessions are free and all are invited to attend. This opportunity for hearing so many speakers of acknowledged authority should not be neglected.

"What is your education? (Give principal facts.)"

"What is your present occupation? What is your professional or business experience? (Give the principal facts, and if at present an officeholder, name the office you hold.)"

"Have you ever been employed on census work, either national or state? If so, in what capacity and for how long a period? If an enumerator, for what territory or district? (Describe as accurately as possible.)"

"Are you physically capable of a full discharge of the duties of a census enumerator? Have you any defect of either sight, hearing, speech or limb? If so, state nature of defect."

"Do you speak English? Do you understand and speak any language other than English? If so, what language? (Specify languages spoken as Bohemian, Chinese, Danish, French, German, Greek, Hungarian, Italian, Japanese, Lithuanian, Magyar, Norwegian, Polish, Portuguese, Russian, Slavic, Spanish, Yiddish, etc.)"

"Are you a member of a political party? (Answer 'Yes' or 'No,' but do not indicate what party.)"

"In view of the fact that you may be required to take a test before a post master, state what post-office would be most convenient to you for this purpose. (This test is of a practical character, consisting chiefly or wholly of the filling out of a sample schedule of population regarding typical families, and in case of enumerators whose work will be in rural districts the filling out of a sample schedule of agriculture.)"

"Are the answers to each of the foregoing questions true to the best of your knowledge and belief? Are they in your own handwriting?"

Indorsements of each applicant must be secured from two representative citizens of the community in which the applicant resides. They must be at least 21 years of age and acquainted with the applicant not less than one year. Indorsements will not be accepted from any person who is in any way related to an applicant. The indorsement certifies that the applicant "is a thoroughly trustworthy and honest person of good habits, and, in my opinion, fully capable of discharging the duties of a census enumerator, if appointed."

ARMY LIFE TOLD BY ONE ON THE JOB

DESCRIPTIVE OF THE LIFE OF YOUR UNCLE SAMUEL'S SOLDIER BOYS.—TOLD BY FIRST SERGEANT E. KEMP.

Article 3.

Every branch of our army must be kept on a war footing, consequently troops are ordered to take the field for a certain length of time each year. This Field Service for Infantry is in the form of practice marches and maneuvers.

The first march of the season takes place in May requiring three days. In that time not less than thirty-six miles must be covered. These three day practice marches take place each month, during the summer until November, with the exception of two, one month of which is spent on the target range, while a two hundred mile march to and from the maneuver grounds, including time spent there occupies the other.

Leaving barracks the soldiers carry the same equipments that they would in time of war less eighty rounds of ammunition, only twenty being carried. This equipment consists of the following articles, which I will also describe. One magazine rifle, cal. 30, powerful enough to kill a man at three miles distance, being constructed of the very best material. The entire length of the barrel is encased in wood to prevent burning the hand while handling the piece in time of action, when it becomes heated from excessive firing. The magazine is located in front of the trigger guard and holds one clip of five rounds. The bullets used are steel jackets and sharp pointed, being a very little larger than an ordinary twenty-two. Loading is executed by drawing back and closing the bolt, as the rifle has a bolt action on the plan of a mauser. The bayonet resembles a two-edged sword, flat and sharp on either side and about two feet in length. It is carried in a wooden scabbard with a russet leather covering which is fastened to the belt. The twenty rounds of ammunition is carried in a heavy canvas belt having compartments called pockets in which the clips are kept. Attached to the belt by means of small hooks is a canteen of aluminum, canvas covered, first aide package containing bandages, etc. and haversack in which the knife, fork, spoon and mess kit are kept. Then comes the shelter-half roll which is the most cumbersome of all. The shelter-half is made of light water proof canvas and is so called because it is but half of a complete shelter tent, and when buttoned together with another man's makes a tent occupying a space 7ft. deep, 1. e., from front to rear, by 6 ft., 4 in., in width by 4 1/2 ft. in height. The shelter-half is spread flat on the ground and in it are placed a woolen blanket, rubber poncho, towel, tooth brush, soap, comb, housewife (a small case containing sewing or mending outfit,
