

Cannon's EASTER OPENING

For several days past we have been unpacking Spring Goods until now every department is replete with an astonishing array of Choice Merchandise. Prices have been placed so low that you will find them irresistible.

SPRING SILKS

Canton Silks in plain shades, 27 in. wide, 29c worth 50c.
Kennebec Silks dotted effects, 27 in. wide, 29c worth 50c.
Other Spring Silks in Jacquard designs, no two dress patterns alike—all the spring shades represented 50c a yard.
Galilee Dots, a shimmering silk, 35c a yard.

WHITE GOODS

Vast quantities of superior White Goods, immensely low priced India Linons, a little better for the money than you've seen before. Barred India Linons, much used at present for corset covers, 15c. Silver Tissue, a dainty filmy fabric at 25c. Other thin things at 10c and 15c, in novel styles.

WASH GOODS

The demand for Spun Silk increases as the fabric is better known. It wears so well, washes so perfectly and comes in such beautiful colorings that there's no wonder that its popularity is ever increasing, 35c yard in 10 shades.
Beautiful assortment of Spring Gingham in stripes, checks, plaids and plain colors priced at 10 and 12½c.
Nothing daintier for a dancing frock or a dressy gown than the new satin stripes we are showing at 25c.
New Batistes, Lawns, Dimities and Tissues at 10 and 15c.

CARPETS AND RUGS

We have just put in a brand new stock of Rugs and Carpets and our prices are away below those usually charged. In rugs we show everything from the smallest to the room sizes in rich colorings of oriental, floral and conventional designs.

Room sizes in Brussels Rugs from $12 to $20.
9x12 Art Squares $4 to $6.95.
Sultanna Carpets in new styles 25c yard.

Fillers of carpet and imitation wood.

HOUSE FURNISHINGS

New Furniture Coverings in damask, velours and satin russe at 50c yd.
Cheaper coverings, such as d. nims, cretonnes and twills in the choicest styles obtainable.

Attractive array of silkolines at 9c to 12½c.

Everything that is new in curtains, from the finest nets to the heavier madras and scrim effects. We want you to see this line before you buy, that's all.

Very good window shades in all the right colors, 25c.

Beautiful new designs in Nottingham, Cable, Net and Brussels Curtains, both white and Arabian, at attractive prices.

Panel Curtains 25c and upwards.

MEN'S SUITS AND OVERCOATS

The Hickey-Freeman Suits for Spring are by all means the handsomest we have ever shown. Every little detail of cut and finish shows the earmarks of high class tailoring. Greys hold first place among the colors for Spring and there is a goodly sprinkling of rich blues and browns, with fancy mixtures in abundance. The Hickey-Freeman Suits range from $15 to $25. Cheaper grades $8 to $12.50.

The new Raincoats we show are swell beyond compare. Most of them have the "Presto" collar, so much in vogue. Black Top Coats, silk faced and silk lined, at prices you can afford to pay.

Shoes for the Whole Family

We never showed such a complete line of footwear. Children's guaranteed school shoes for hard knocks. Fancy shoes for children in patent and fancy leather. Reed's women's shoes at $2 to $3.50 in a lot of pleasing styles for Spring.

Douglas and Walkover shoes for men, which for style and service have no equal at the prices.

YOUR EASTER HAT

The "Gold Bond" styles for Spring are fetching indeed. The quality better than ever before. Buy a "Gold Bond" and you will be topped off right—go where you will. $2 only—as good as most $3 hats.

LADIES' SUITS AND COATS

We have just received a lot of Ladies' Suits representing the latest New York styles, prices $10 to $19.50.

Coats, too, in all the fashionable styles. Our prices, remember, are less than out of town. See them this week.

INSURANCE MAN DEPARTS.

E. Raymond Smith Assumes Charge of Field at Wilkes-Barre.

Mr. E. Raymond Smith, one of the most successful of the younger insurance men of the city, who has been located in the Altoona Trust Company building for the past five years, left Altoona, recently, for Wilkes-Barre, Pa., to assume the management of a general agency at that point for the Continental Casualty company of Chicago.

This agency is an important one, being the oldest the "Continental" has in the state and controlling a large population in the heart of the Anthracite regions.

Mr. Smith, during his stay in Altoona has enjoyed the confidence and esteem of all with whom he came in contact, and his many friends while regretting his departure unite in wishing him every possible success in his new field.—Altoona Mirror.

All persons owing C. T. Livermore. Please call at the shop and settle at once.

HON. A. C. BARNEY.
Alvin Chapin Barney was born February 1, 1833, at Independence, Allegany Co., N. Y., and died at West Union, Steuben Co., N. Y., on March 12, 1910. He was the fifth child of Dr. Anthony Barney and Roxey (Chapin) Barney. There were thirteen children in Anthony Barney's family, of whom only two remain, Nancy C. Darling, of Wellsville, N. Y., and Granville M. Barney, of Andover, N. Y.

Alvin C. Barney grew to manhood on the farm where he was born, at Independence. On March 21, 1857, he was married to Mary Sherman, daughter of David and Minerva (Horton) Sherman, and the newly married couple at once began house-keeping on the farm which was their home for fifty-three years. Mr. Barney was Supervisor of the town of West Union for a number of terms, being several times chairman of the board. In 1871 he represented the Third Assembly District of Steuben County in the State Legislature. He was appointed assistant postmaster of West Union in 1857, and after acting in this capacity for a few years, became postmaster and remained such until his death. Politically he was a strong Republican and a firm believer in the party government. He served as delegate to many party conventions, both county and state.

Mr. Barney was one of the representative men of his section and state. In business affairs his advice was sought by his neighbors for miles around, and his willingness to help others sometimes led him to neglect his own farm work. Good citizenship was exemplified in his life, and he never failed to urge men to the proper performance of their duties as citizens. His faculty of looking at the brighter side of life, and his keen sense of humor, made him a delightful companion. His legislative experience at Albany during the stirring days of the "Tweed Ring," and a wide acquaintance with public men, gave him a fund of pleasant reminiscence for the entertainment of friends.

The warm, unfeigned hospitality of the Barney home is a cherished recollection of the many friends who have been welcomed there. Mr. Barney was always considerate of those around him, and even when stricken by the paralysis which caused his death, he regretted being the cause of trouble to others. He is survived by his wife, by a son, Charles S. of West Union, and two daughters, Emily S. of West Union, and Sara S. (Mrs. John D. Groves) of Kingston, N. Y. His son, Dr. Herbert A. Barney, of Belmont, N. Y., died in 1907, and a daughter, Jennie M. Barney, in 1883.

Mr. Barney leaves to his family the inspiration of an honored name, a long life well and honestly lived, and the example of good judgment, generous impulses, and a noble character.

Funeral service was held at the home, Monday, March 14th at eleven o'clock, conducted by Rev. James Herrick of Whitesville, and burial in the cemetery at Independence.

—If you want good glasses cheap. See Richmond the Optometrist at Swink's Hotel, Andover, March 23, Whitesville, March 25.

BIRTHDAY SUPRISE.

A small army, armed with a good supply of eatables, invaded the home of David Slocum, last Tuesday evening and took possession. All enjoyed the same good time that always accompanies these surprise visits. They left him as a memento of his 45th birthday, a beautiful oak rocking chair.

FOUND DEAD IN BARBER SHOP.

Henry H. Hammond was found dead Monday, at Bath, N. Y., in his barber shop, on Belfast Street, near the Soldiers' Home. A member of the Home who tried to gain admittance to the shop, found the doors locked. Going to the rear, he looked through a window and saw Hammond lying partially dressed on a bed, in a small room behind the barber shop. The investigation failed to show any evidence of foul play, rumors of which gained currency as soon as Hammond was discovered. He was partially dressed, the appearance being that he was disrobing preparatory for bed. Mr. Hammond was about 66 years old. He was a veteran of the 25th New York Cavalry.

W. C. T. U.
