EASTER VICTORY.

Easter means that our joy for the sead shall be greater than our sor ow for the dead. It means ertainties, our loved ones who have one are beyond the reach of uncertainties and sorrow, and that they are in the home which is, and is to be, our home. And Easter means that in the rising of one who was the him was made, not a matter-of hope, matter of certain knowledge Let us not only rejoice in this Easter victory, but let us honor the day by bringing some one, who has not yet laid hold on this joy, into a knowledge of the truth.—Sunday School Times

Interment was nade in the family burial plot in the andover cemetery.

The deceased has been a life-long about 18 years of age and, while not possessed of a sturdy constitution, ne continued to be active in his acustomed pursuits 'til long past the age at which men ordinarily drop out of the ranks of the workers. He loved his home above all things earthby and was a kind devoted husband and father, a thoughtful, conscien-tious neighbor and a good citizen, who will be greatly missed in this community where he has been a amiliar figure for nearly 74 years.

CARD OF THANKS.

Through the columns of this paper we wish to return our warmest thanks to the friends and neighbors tho so generously aided us and shared with us lonely vigils by the sick and death bed of our dear departed husband and father. We wish, also to express our heartfelt appreciation and gratitude to Funeral Director, Mr. S. J. Fowler, and his assistant, Mr. Wm, Embser, of Wellsville, for the excellent service rendered and their unceasing routine of kindness and attention which did so much toward essening the burden of our responsibility and care in this, the most trying hour of our lives. To the quartette, for the comforting words xpressed in sweet song, do we also
