100 People Out of Employment---Other Damage Wellsville, Jan. 20.—The National Aluminum works, in Wellsville, and probably the largest independent aluminum factory in the world, was totally destroyed by fire here about 6 o'clock last night. The loss will amount to $250,000. The blaze carried with it the building of the Duke Hose Company and a greater part of the German Methodist Church, For some time it was feared that a greater part of that section of the village would be swept away. At one time ---six buildings were on fire. Over 100 people, many of whom
