This store is holding a sale that will help relieve the Cotton Situation in the South

You can help too, for the items listed below are all made of cotton and are all items you need

The South needs help—President Wilson's "Buy a Bale of Cotton" movement is furnishing great aid—but greater aid is needed. Miss Genevieve Clark, daughter of Speaker Clark, appeals to every woman to buy at least $1.00 worth of cotton goods. There's a vast supply of Cotton in the warehouses of the South—Cotton intended for export but "tied up" because of war. To move that Cotton out of the South requires the consumption of more finished cotton products—an increased demand that
