WHITMAN and TAMMANY

Mr. Whitman was nominated for district attorney of New York city 1900 on a Fusion ticket, on which John Purroy Mitchel, George McAneny others ran in an effort to overthrow Tammany Hall. Mr. Whitman " made the following pledge:

"I will say that if elected I will not appoint to office any man who is affiliated or in sympathy with Tammany Hall: because I believe that no man who has lived under the moral blight of that organization is fit to prosecute crime."

Mr. Whitman was elected district attorney. In September, 1911, be the notated Thomas J. Nolan, a Tammany man and a leader in Tom Foley's cità 1 to the position of deputy assistant district attorney in the district attorney office at a salary of $4,000 a year. By this and other appointments Mr. What man deliberately and clearly violated his pledge of 1909. The public did no know this when, in 1913, another Fusion and good citizens' movement inaugurated in New York city to defeat Tammany Hall, Mr. Whitman nominated on this Fusion ticket as district attorney and accepted the nominated nation. A few days afterward, much to the chagrin of the citizens of New York city, who realized what a desperate fight they were about to have with Tammany Hall, Mr. Whitman accepted Tammany Hall's nomination for the pens once in a while but it is by no for this letter and give the soldiers profound psychologist, knew that the of the world unless we're on fire, and Mr. Whitman prevented himself from taking any real part in the good etc. means the rule as your article gives of the Hawaiian Department a chance breast-beating moment of complete leaven is very much alive says the gens' movement to defeat Tammany Hall lest fail, and in that campaign is spoke favorably of Mr. McCall, who was Mr. Murphy's candidate for major. Mr. Whitman was elected after making that pledge. Mr. Whitman broke that pledge in 1911, Mr. Whitman accepted the Fusion nomination in 1913,

Mr. Whitman accepted the Tammany Hall nomination a few days later. Mr. Whitman spoke favorably of Tammany's candidate for mayor. Mr. Whitman's speech was used by Tammany Hall to help its candidate.
