

The Burrows National Bank

Condensed Statement of the Condition taken from the Report to the Comptroller December 27, 1916

RESOURCES
Loans and Discounts	$228,132 08
Overdrafts	428 26
U. S. Government Bonds	25,000 00
Bonds, Securities, etc.	33,150 00
Fixtures	1,000 00
Cash on Hand and with Banks	39,191 89
Federal Reserve Bank Stock	1,500 00
Redemption Fund with U. S. Treasurer	1,250 00
	$329,652 23
LIABILITIES
Capital Stock	$ 25,000 00
Surplus and Profits	30,653 70
Circulation	25,000 00
Dividends Unpaid	1,009 00
Deposits	247,989 53
	$329,652 23

New York State Depository

MAILS CLOSE

Going East
A. M. Train 222	8:55
P. M. Train 26	2:30
P. M. Train 8	8:00
Train 8, mail closes at	7:30
Going West
A. M. Train 7	8:55
P. M. Train 541	6:00

W. F. O'Connell, Postmaster

Our January thaw has had a skill.

Oil has broken the $3.00 record. It went to $3.05 Tuesday.

The lumber and tiling are on the grounds for the new out-lary.

Mark V. Loughlin died recently at his home in Belfast, aged 35 years.

Dr. B. C. Wakely, of Angelica, has been appointed physician to the County Home.

Several carloads of brick have been received and placed on Greenwood Street to be used in paving.

Mrs. Susan R. Tucker Hall died at her home on the Vandermark Tuesday morning, Jan 2nd. Burial was at Soio.

Marcus D. Merwin died recently at the Willard State Hospital. He was a life-long resident of Fillmore and vicinity.

The annual church meeting and dinner at the S. D. Baptist Church last Sunday was well attended and satisfactory in every way.

Miss Helen Ackerly and Haynes Setchel, both of Cuba, were united in marriage New Years day, at Christa Episcopal Church of that place.

Preparations are completed for cutting ice from the Andover ponds and Mr. Prangen expects to begin work next week if the weather is favorable.

Hugh J. Coyle, of Wellsville, died in Buffalo last Friday, when he was under medical treatment. He was born in Soio, June 1857, and was held in high esteem. The body was brought to Wellsville where it was buried Jan. 15th.

Eggs are selling for 65c in Warren, Pa.

The live merchant advertises, who cares to purchase goods from a dead one?

Among recent deaths in the county was that of Mrs. J. W. Ellis, of Alfred.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Duke Jr., of Wellsville, Tuesday, January 9th.

Dr. H. Hulett, of Bolivar, is in the Higgins Hospital at Olean for treatment and possibly an operation.

Miss Edna Ellsworth and Clarence H. Southwick, both of Bolivar, were united in marriage Tuesday, Dec. 2nd.

The VanGorder stock barns, between Pike and Five Corners, burned Tuesday of last week. The origin of the fire is unknown.

A Black Hand letter was left at the door of G. Chilleo, an Italian cobbler of Canaseraga, New Years day. The police have the case.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dodge, of Elm Valley, welcomed a little son at their home New Years day. The little fellow is named Ralph Francis.

Olean is having a diphtheria scare. The disease seems to be centered around school No. 7, as six of the patients were in attendance at the school.

J. M. Hall, of Belmont, had the misfortune to cut his head quite seriously while cutting wood recently. His axe caught in a clothes line and turned the blade.

An oil well said to be doing better than 100 barrels a day has been completed at Cordora, Alabama. This is a new field and has caused some excitement in that section.

Miss Ethel Bennett, of Hornell, and Henry Streeter, of Canisteo, were united in marriage, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elisha Bennett, New Years day.

The Hook & Ladder Co. will hold their annual dance in the Auditorium, Monday evening, Feb. 19th. Cap Rice Orchestra will furnish the music and the usual good time is assured.

F. C. Smith, manager of the Allegany County Farm Bureau, handed in his resignation at the annual business meeting of that organization held at Belmont, N. Y., Jan. 8th. He was elected Jan. 15th.

Miss Louisa Myers, of Fillmore, died Sunday morning, Dec. 31st.

Byron Frace, of Canisteo, was found dead at his home, Thursday, Dec. 28th.

Dr. and Mrs. Virgil Kinney, of the Wellsville Sanitarium, are enjoying a six weeks southern trip.

John Higgins, of Smith Corners, near Fillmore, committed suicide, Saturday morning, Dec. 30th, by shooting.

Andover young people and some of the older ones have been enjoying the fine skating on the ponds the past week.

Fire totally destroyed the Hartley Brothers' meat market, on East Main Street, Cuba, N. Y., early Friday morning, Jan. 5th.

The Union Sunday School Class of Nile held its sixth annual banquet Thursday, Dec. 28th at the home of its teacher, Mrs. J. F. Dear.

George B. Holden, of North Yokima, Washington, formerly of Belfast, has become one of the judges of the Supreme Court of Yokima County.

The four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Manning, of Canisteo, was badly burned Friday, Dec. 29th. Her clothing caught fire from an open gas stove.

Miss Fern M. Dorey and Leon Bennett were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dorey, of Short Tract, Dec. 27th.

Miss Onolee Wirt and George N. Hawks, both of Little Genesee, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wirt, Wednesday, Jan. 10th.

John B. Higman, an oil well shooter of Bradford, was blown to pieces and the team he was driving met with a similar fate when 200 quarts of nitro let go, Thursday of last week.

Alfred is organizing a Community Club. A constitution was adopted Wednesday evening of last week, and the further organization is to be completed at their next meeting, Jan. 17th.

Several coasting accidents have occurred within the village limits this winter. There is no finer sport, but children should be warned to use care while coasting in it as some of the slides used are dangerous.

Editor L. E. Brown, of Hammondport, took charge of the County Clerk's office New Years day, in place of J. E. Olmstead, who has held that position for the past nine years.

It is reported that the Erie Railroad Company are to spend approximately a million dollars in the improvement of its property in Hornell the coming summer.

At the next regular meeting of Union Encampment at I. O. O. F. Hall, Monday evening, Jan. 22, the Patriarchal Degree is to be conferred and a lunch served. All encampment degree members are urged to attend.

A new Erie time table went into effect Sunday morning. The only trains that effect Andover people are the two morning trains No. 7 arrives at 9:16 instead of 9:18, and No. 222 arrives at 9:33 instead of 9:18. They meet at Dyke.

William Roue, Frank White and Charles Hughes, of Hartsville, paid $26 apiece, Monday of last week, for hunting with a ferret in Steuben County. Edward Murphy, of Hartsville, also paid a fine of $20 for hunting without a license.

The Lucey Stone Club meets with Mrs. Chas. M. Lash, Tuesday evening, Jan. 16th. The program will begin at 8:30. The state organizer will be present and give a report of the state convention. The gentlemen are especially invited.

Among the holiday greetings received by the News editor was a post card from Leonard Russett mailed from Italy. Mr. Russett, when a resident in our village, was always loyal to its interests and his many friends will be pleased to hear from him.

P. A. Dean informs the News that our informant was in error when we stated that he and his sons had purchased a Buick-6 automobile in our last issue. The item was given us in good faith, and from the most direct source. But there's "many a slip twixt cup and lip."

Mrs. Nina Truxbury, of Japan, missionary, spoke at the Baptist Church, Monday evening, to a good audience. Mrs. Truxbury has a pleasing personality and her description of Japanese life and customs as learned by the mission workers was intensely interesting.

The Ladies Aid Society of the S. D. B. Church held their monthly business meeting Wednesday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Emma Robbins. It was decided to meet the first Wednesday afternoon of each month for social and business meetings. A luncheon was served.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Mullen were pleasantly surprised at their home on Barney Street, New Years Eve, the event being their 14th wedding anniversary. The evening was pleasantly spent and a sumptuous supper was served, after which the guests departed wishing Mr. and Mrs. Mullen many happy returns.

Verify this statement—as you can do, easily: The best stores print the best ads.

On or before the 20th pay gas bills and save discount. EMPIRE GAS & FUEL CO. Ltd.

The Lace and Trimming

Now on display in our north window, all qualities, will be sold as long as it remains on display for 5c a yard.

NEW STONWARE

The same will be true of our fine display of Stoneware, on display in the south window--10c each until removed.

Butter and Eggs Taken in Exchange for Goods

ANDOVER BARGAIN STORE

MRS. S. J. FOWLER

The AUDITORIUM

Saturday Evening, January 13

MARIE DORO

IN

"The Heart of Nora Flynn"

And a Bray Cartoon

Wednesday Evening, January 17

PAULINE FREDERICK

IN

"The Moment Before"

And a Paramount Travel

Shows start at 7:30 and 9.

Prices 5c and 10c

TRY OUR

Homemade Candies

A large and fine assortment
Delicious Hot Chocolate
Tomato, Beef, Chicken and
Clam Bouillon
Ice Cream Soft Drinks
Fine Cigars

F. L. BLOSS, Corner Grocery

Pepo Bread

Tastes like Mother's Bread and is of the Best Quality.

UNEXCELLED BY NONE.

F. L. BLOSS

Phone 238

TRY a News "Want" or "For Sale" adv. and quick results.

The Cream of the Style in Men Shoes

It is to be found here in the famous "Just Wright" creations. The many wearers in this locality attest their popularity. Men who desire style in footwear, combined with comfort and service, should see the

"Just Wright" Shoe

In quality it fills every requirement, in fit it has no superior anywhere and in comfort is in a class of its own. Price $4.50 and up. Every Pair Guaranteed.

Without doubt is a big leader in this line of merchandise. Come in examine it.

Cooper's Underwear

CALHOUN COMPANY, Inc.