

Jan. 10.—An open winter is predicted. We will know by the end of April.

Rev. J. J. Sheehy, of Andover, visited Patrick Riley last Friday.

Henry Horan spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Wahl, of East Valley.

John Dean, Herman Dean and Frank Horan were Hornell visitors Saturday.

Patrick Riley, who has been in the past week, is at present somewhat improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Horan and Henry Horan attended the funeral of Hugh Coyle in Wellsville Tuesday.

Paul Harrington, of Wellsville, visited his sister, Mrs. Herman Dean, the last of the week. Paul is now recovering from a recent accident in which he lost a finger.

John McAndrew and daughter Margaret, of Fulmer Valley, spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Ed. McAndrew.

Martin O'Brian, of Wellsville, was a guest at the Riley home from Sunday until Tuesday.

Mrs. Harrington was called to her home on Vorhees Hill, Friday morning, by the serious illness of her son, Leo. The young man was removed to St. James Mercy Hospital in Hornell, where an operation for appendicitis was performed that evening, and he is now on the road to recovery.

Miss Nellie Horan, Leo, Frank and Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Horan and children enjoyed a day last week with Mr. and Mrs. Lou Snyder of East Valley.

Miss Nora McAndrew was over from Pingrey Hill for the week-end.

Mrs. Tom McAndrew, of Andover, was a caller at the home of Herman Dean, Monday.

EAST VALLEY

Jan. 10.—Jacob Hann has been quite ill, but is gaining at this writing.

Mrs. Ella Perry, of Alfred, is staying with Mrs. Prent Burdick at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Howland, of East Valley, visited his brother, Charles Howland, a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dodge welcomed a fine 8½ pound baby boy to their home New Years day. His name is Ralph Francis.

Mr. and Mrs. Giles Caple were callers in the valley Tuesday.

Mr. Howe, of Wellsville, accompanied by Mr. Patterson, were business callers in this vicinity, Monday.

Mrs. Tucker is seriously ill at her home. She is attended by a nurse from Hornell and Dr. Constock.

Mr. and Mrs. Sol Black, of Vandemark, were callers at the Tucker home Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Jenks and son, Fay, were guests at Mr. and Mrs. Simeon Hann's, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith and daughter, Helen, were visitors at her parents', Mr. and Mrs. Adelbert Hann's.

Mrs. Elba Howland, of Oklahoma, was called here by the illness of her mother.

Mrs. Adelbert Hann spent a few days in Hornell last week, the guest of her son, Victor.

TIP TOP

Albert Wilcox and family, of Hornell, spent from Sunday until Wednesday at E. V. Greene's.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Baker and Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Greene spent Sunday in Andover.

Miss Ruth Baker returned home Tuesday, after a week's visit in Suffern, N. Y., the guest of her sister, Mrs. O. R. Henderson.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Lee were dinner guests at E. V. Greene's Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Baker spent Wednesday at G. N. Martin's.

R. C. Baker, of Salamanca, was the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Baker, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Langworthy, of Alfred, were guests at A. C. Baker's, Wednesday.

Ernest Greene, of Alfred, spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Greene.

F. M. Lee attended the stockholder's meeting of the Andover State Bank, Tuesday evening.

WELLSVILLE AND VICINITY

Jan. 10.—Miss Mary McGinnis, who has been a guest of her parents during the holidays, has returned to Lyon Mountain, N. Y., where she is teaching in a school at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Hickox, of Pa, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Dye, of Maple Ave., being called her by the illness of Mrs. Hickox's mother, Mrs. Emily Reesher, who is living at the Dye home.

W. H. Norton, the veteran oil producer of the Allegany oil field, was quick to sell his production and claims the honor of being one of the first to get three dollars a barrel for his oil, as he is one of the many who are selling their oil to the Columbia Pipe Line Co., which pays five per cent. premium, making the three dollar hit.

Miss Regina Egan, who has been a guest of relatives in Buffalo the past week, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jenkins and son, Wilson, motored to Andover Sunday, the guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hartrum, of Baker St.

The oil producers through this vicinity are all wearing smiles nowadays, there being another advance in the Pennsylvania crude which was boosted 10 cents more on a barrel and brings it within 5 cents of the three dollar mark which has so long been the talk of the future, with bright prospects of its reaching a much higher mark.

Andrew J. Smith, of Cuba, was a business visitor in Wellsville Friday.

Miss Frances Dibble was a Hornell visitor Saturday.

J. H. V. Wyckoff, who went to Independence, Kansas, to make his home, returned to Wellsville a few days ago and says he will spend the remainder of his life at his old home on Fords Brook. Mr. Wyckoff says he has been sick nearly all the time while away, and thinks Old Allegany good enough for him.

Bargains In MATTRESSES

Upon rearranging the stocks in our warehouses preparatory to yearly inventory, we find that we have a large number of slightly soiled mattresses.

Although the wholesale prices of these mattresses today are more than the regular retail prices at which they are marked, we have decided to reduce them to such low figures that a quick clearance will result.

If you are in need of one or more new mattresses, here is your opportunity to save a tidy sum.

Combination Mattress—top and bottom of cotton with inside layer of excelsior—one piece mattress—regular price $4.50.
