

Valuable Papers

It is not prudent to keep your valuable papers at home exposed to fire, burglary or other loss.

We are prepared to keep your papers in absolute safety at a very small cost.

Burrows National Bank

MAILS CLOSE

Going East
A. M. Train 222	8:55
P. M. Train 26	2:30
P. M. Train 8	8:00
Train 8, mail closes at	7:30
Going West
A. M. Train 7	8:55
P. M. Train 541	6:00
W. F. O'Connell, Postmaster

Grip colds are prevalent. New York State Regents exams next week.

Mrs. V. G. Graves is recovering from a severe illness.

Mrs. Lyman Deming was among the recent Belmont deaths.

Dr. W. W. Coon is the newly installed Noble Grand of Alfred Lodge I. O. O. F.

Lent begins Wednesday, February 21st, this year, thus bringing Easter on April 8th.

Mrs. George Calhoun was taken to the Steuber Sanitarium Tuesday for medical treatment.

The M. M. Club will be entertained at the home of Mrs. May Williams, Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Dennis of Jasper, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary recently.

Mrs. S. A. Fosbury is seriously ill at her home on Elm Street. Mrs. Eggleston is caring for her.

Miss Sylvia Howe, of Whitesville, had the misfortune to break her wrist and thigh while coasting last week.

Mrs. May Elwell, of Wellsville has been appointed superintendent of the dietetic department of the Jackson Health Resort.

Angelica reports two births this week, a son to Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Dorsey, Jan. 9th, and a son to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Vincent.

P. C. Lynch & Son have made arrangements to display their Buick and Chevrolet cars at the Wellsville Automobile Show, Feb. 1, 2, 3.

Some people are always grumbling. If they don't go to heaven when they die they will make things very uncomfortable for the devil.

Mrs. Edson Langworthy was burned about the face and head last Friday morning, while lighting the burner under the oven of her gas range.

David Corwin has rented the McGinty house on West Greenwood Street, and is moving his family from the Dean property recently purchased by R. A. Bartlett.

The Andover State Bank still has a few of its beautiful art calendars. If you were overlooked or a newcomer in town call at the bank and get one.

Delos Cole recently presented the Cuba I. O. O. F. Lodge with an old-time apron worn by members of the fraternity many years ago. The history of the apron is not positively known except that it was at one time owned by Mr. Cole's grandfather, Stephen Hardy.

—Eat beans, they have gone down.

—The Western Union has built a new office in Cuba.

—A man who does not think for himself does not think at all.

—Prangen Bros. are to begin cutting ice on the Andover ponds Monday morning.

—F. S. Cornelt, of Saunders, died Thursday, January 9th, from a stroke of apoplexy.

—Martin N. Butts, of Cuba, died at his home Tuesday evening, Jan. 9th, at 78 years of age.

—Mrs. Panning is seriously ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. D. E. Randolph, on Elm Street.

—William T. Elliott died suddenly at his home in Fillmore, Saturday, Jan. 6th, aged 60 years.

—Claude R. Snyder, of Cuba, recently ate two dozen raw eggs in two minutes, to win a $2 bet.

—Miss Myrtle Stuart, of Jaukson, and Horton C. Hunt, of Hornell, were married Saturday, Jan. 6th.

—Train 8 on the Erie is back on its winter schedule this week, running anywhere from two to six hours late.

—John J. Beers, of Bolivar, died at his home, Tuesday evening, Jan. 9th, from a stroke of paralysis, aged 73 years.

—A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stoll, of Wellsville, Thursday, Jan. 11th, at their home on West State Street.

—Gas in such abundance as to blow sand and rock out of the casing was struck in the well on the Flint farm, near Canisteo, last week.

—Henry P. Ricker died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Frank Hicks, of Black Creek, Thursday, January 11th, at the age of 86 years.

—L. W. Cowles, of Hornell, was fined $20 recently for allowing an employee to work in his establishment seven days without a day's rest.

—The many friends of Rev. Herbert Walton will be interested to know that he has been recently appointed to the pastorate of the Hammondsport M. E. Church.

—Mrs. Seymour Graham, of Belmont, passed away at her home, Thursday morning of last week. Mrs. Graham was 67 years of age. Interment was in Forrest Hill Cemetery.

—Clyde E. Shults, of Hornell, who for the past 14 years has been secretary of the Hornell Fair Association, has tendered his resignation. His successor has not as yet been chosen.

—Mrs. Samantha Wells, of Naples, N. Y., celebrated her 107th birthday, Jan. 5th. She is in good health and sound mind. Mrs. Wells is the oldest living member of the D. A. R.

—Lester Shanner, of Bolivar, was hit by a train Saturday, while walking on the track near Orleans. His left leg was taken off just below the knee and he was thrown down a 40 foot embankment. It is thought he will recover.

—The ladies of the R. C. B. A. made Mrs. Bridget Doran a rappy surprise Wednesday evening, when a company of them motored to her home at Elm Valley. Refreshments were served and all reported a very pleasant evening.

—Miss Ora Loma Rew, of Friendship, sang between numbers at the Auditorium, Saturday evening; also at the Presbyterian Church service Sunday morning, and in the evening at the Methodist Church. Miss Rew delighted her hearers with the exceptionally fine voice with which she rendered the varied and difficult numbers.

—The residence and farm buildings of Frank Waldorff, of West Almond, were totally destroyed by fire last Saturday night. The fire caught from the chimney of the house and was discovered about mid-night and carried to the large barns nearby. Very little was saved from the buildings except the stock.

—Sixty hens owned by Archie E. Monroe, of Bolivar, laid 2,776 eggs from November 2 to December 2, 1916, a record that is hard to beat. Some of these eggs brought as high a price as 65 cents a dozen. The total amount received from their sale was $126.83. The total cost for feed was $32.78, leaving a balance of $94.05.—Bolivar Breeze.

—F. C. Martin, chiropractic, of Wellsville, was in Andover, Wednesday morning, making arrangements to visit this community professionally each Monday, Wednesday and Friday morning from 9:30 to 11:30. He is a graduate of the Pamler School of Chiropractic and has been successfully practicing his profession at Wellsville the past five months.

—George Baker has been seriously ill the past week with an attack of appendicitis. Mr. Baker went to Depew, N. Y., to assist in some work upon the 8th full under construction at that place. He was taken ill and came as far as Arkport to the home of his sister, Mrs. Livemore. Mrs. Baker and two children went to Arkport Sunday and have been here since. The News is pleased to report his condition as favorable at this writing.

—If your "favorite store" uses in this issue, more advertising space than in any issue for months—it probably means that it had more important news for you than in months.

—Mrs. Hardy, State Organizer for suffrage, was in Andover Tuesday evening to give a report of the 48th annual suffrage convention which was held in Albany some weeks ago, at the meeting of the Lucy Stone Club held at the home of Mrs. C. M. Lash, Dr. Davies, of Hallsport, gave an informal address on his reasons for favoring equal suffrage. Misses Reba Burrows and Leila Slocum sang and Eugene Eggert favored the company with a piano solo which was greeted with such hearty applause that he kindly responded to the encore.

—The members of the Ithaca Conservatory Concert Company arrived in Andover, Friday evening and were entertained over the week-end at the home of Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Randall, on First Street. The party was composed of the following young ladies: Miss Grace Randall, reader; Miss Helen Harrison, pianist; Miss Ruth White, violinist, and Miss Martha Webb, vocalist. This is the 18th annual tour of the Ithaca Conservatory Concert Company, and the young ladies of the company this year are a charming quartette and present a program of exceptional interest.

Someone of to-day's ads touches your "self-interest," so unmistakably that it comes to have especial value for you.

WANTED

Forty men at 7 o'clock, Monday morning, at the pond.

FRANGEN BROS.

—On or before the 20th pay gas bills and save discount. EMPIRE GAS & FUEL CO. Ltd.

F. C. MARTIN CHIROPRACTIC

Will be in Andover Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays of each week from 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

Another Auction

—THE—Lever Sales Stables

is arranging for another mammoth Auction sale. List anything you have for sale with them—Stock, Cows or anything you have to sell.

Suit of Clothes

remember we have a complete line of the best makes and our prices are as low or lower than can be found elsewhere

Working Clothes

in a large assortment of the best makes, with prices as low as possible, quality considered.

"Just Wright" Shoes

the best Shoe made at the price. Our customers will attest to their quality, fit and service.

Our Motto—"Honest Goods or Money Refunded."

CALHOUN COMPANY, Inc.

NEW GOODS

This Week we are Displaying a Fine Line of New Arrivals

Lace Curtains in Scrim, Etaminee, Marquissettes and Curtain Madras

Full line of new Outing Flannels, new Shirt Waists

Our beautiful new House Dresses at a dollar are dandies and great bargains, Nice new line of Ladies' Skirts. Envelope Skirts from 50c up.

Corset Covers. New Stamped Goods.

Butter and Eggs Taken in Exchange for Goods

ANDOVER BARGAIN STORE

MRS. S. J. FOWLER

Standard Makes of Tires

AT THESE PRICES:

30x3 Smooth Tread	$10 00
30x3½ Non-skid	$14 90
32x3½ Non-skid	$17 00
31x4 Non-skid	$23 00
34x4 Non-skid	$25 00

P. C. Lynch & Son

So. Main Street Andover, N. Y.

First Annual AUTOMOBILE SHOW

SHOW ROOMS 33 EAST PEARL STREET WELLSVILLE

FEBRUARY 1-2-3, 1917

Benefit Wellsville Auto Club MUSIC, SINGING, SPECIAL ATTRACTIONS

ADMISSION 20 CENTS

When in need of a thoroughly up-to-date

Suit of Clothes

remember we have a complete line of the best makes and our prices are as low or lower than can be found elsewhere

Working Clothes

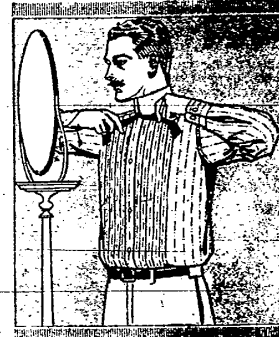

in a large assortment of the best makes, with prices as low as possible, quality considered.

"Just Wright" Shoes

the best Shoe made at the price. Our customers will attest to their quality, fit and service.

Our Motto—"Honest Goods or Money Refunded."

CALHOUN COMPANY, Inc.

Wilson Bros

$1.00 and $1.50

This is one of the best Shirts on the market today, made of the best material and guaranteed absolutely.