

Jan. 31—Lee and more of it, making traveling very difficult.

Mrs. Harrington returned to her home on Verboes Hill, last Friday, as her son, Leo, was expected home from St. James Mercy Hospital of Hornell.

Miss May Dean is again in Wellsville, where she has been caring for Miss Hayes of Pearl.

Frank Moran returned from Buffalo Friday and reports an enjoyable trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Holmes and children spent Saturday night at the home of Charles Baker of Andover.

Miss Ella Lynch was a Hornell visitor Saturday.

Anna Casey, who has been on the sick list, is now convalescing.

Patrick Riley still continues to improve.

Ellen Driscoll, of Andover, was the guest of her school-mate, Mary Dean, a few days last week.

"Ye Editor" suggests a town improvement committee, in a recent issue, which brings to mind the Busy Boosters Club, of Andover's history who once upon a time had so many visions, finally expended their extra funds and enthusiasm in an advertising trip to neighboring towns, and that was the end of another "fizzle."

ELM VALLEY

Miss Mary Dodge visited her parents in Andover last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Caple attended the funeral of Mrs. Cook at Mapes, Friday.

Genevieve Wright, Arlo Mead,

Harold Howard and Mildred Smith were home during Regent's last week.

Mrs. Prout Burdick was able to ride out Sunday to her son's, Jay Burdick's, where she spent the day.

The Ladies Aid met with Mrs. Harry Smith last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Merritt, Mr. Stevens, Mr. Davenport and Raymond Sisson were business callers Saturday in the valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Mead and Miss Annette Taylor attended the funeral of little Albert Reynolds of Scio last Friday.

Mrs. Charles Wright and Mrs. Homer Jackson were visitors on the Vandermark Wednesday.

Miss Bessie Osborn substituted for the teacher Friday during her absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Adams are moving to their home in Proctor.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Leonard, Arthur and wife are moving to their farm home purchased from Will Adams.

Mrs. Hineher had the misfortune to fall on the ice one day last week and hurt her ankle severely.

Ice cutting is the order of the day. Bordens are filling their ice house with ice from the Andover pond.

INDEPENDENCE

Jan. 29—R. E. Spicer was in Whitesville, Saturday.

Mrs. Nina Palmer, of Almond, is a guest at W. R. Crandall's for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Clarke celebrated their wedding anniversary Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Austin and Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Crittendon, of Whitesville, spent Monday with H. M. Clarke.

S. G. Crandall is confined to the house on account of a fall which broke some ribs and gave him a bad jar.

Geo. Alvoid, of Andover, passed Sunday at O. A. Potter's.

Quite a company gathered at R. A. Clarke's, Monday, to celebrate H. M. Clarke's birthday.

The Ladies Aid Society realized about nine dollars from their dinner Thursday.

Mrs. G. A. Updyke has been spending a few days with her son Fred, at West Union.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Trask, of Fulmer Valley, were guests at R. A. Clarke's, Monday.

There are special meetings being held this week. Sunday evening a meeting will be held with Mr. and Mrs. Louis Mingus; Tuesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Bassett; Friday evening with Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Crandall. W. D. Burdick expects to be here next week and there will be meetings every night. Everybody is cordially invited to attend all these meetings.

WELLSVILLE AND VICINITY

Jan. 31—Miss Vera Garthwait has returned from a few week's visit with her sister, Mrs. J. S. Stanford, in Negley, Ohio.

Mrs. J. A. Withey, of Allentown, who is staying with Mrs. Rufus Sawyer, while taking treatments of Dr. Swarthout, visited at her home Sunday, returning the first of the week.

Mrs. William H. Donovan is spending a few days with friends in Salamanca.

J. W. Jenkins and family motored to Wellsville Monday.

Charles Tompkins is reported no better at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Litchard and two children were in attendance at the automobile show held in Buffalo last week.

W. L. Christiansa, of the Last Soldiers Zone District, Wyoming, is the guest of his brother, D. D. Christiansa and family, of this city.

Donald Fuller, of Alfred, was a Wellsville visitor recently.

Dr. E. V. Sheerar, O. E. Jones and S. Benson were in Hornell, Saturday, to attend a tri-county dental convention held in that place.

D. D. Christiansa and family were in Buffalo attending the automobile show last week.

LITTLE COURTESIES OF WAR.

The Young Lady (going on a visit across seas, to nervous aunt)—We're all right, auntie. Don't you worry about us. The voyage is soon over. Besides, I expect we shall have destroyers to look after us.

Auntie—That's right. Do, dear. I'm sure it's worth it, even if you do have to pay a little extra.—London Sketch.

FINANCIAL PROBLEM.

"How far can you run your car in a day?"

"I dunno," replied Mr. Chuggins; "it depends somewhat on the price of gasoline."

GOLDENROD.

"What could Bifskins see in that old wall flower to attract him?"

"Don't you know Bifskins is wall-eyed?"
