

Southern Gentlemen in Convention Took an Oath Allegiance to the Confederate States of America. They Proceeded to Elect Jefferson Davis Provis-

Believing themselves in the right, the Southern States stood firmly together against the abolition of slavery. Altho the loss of life and property in the Civil War that ensued was greatly to be regretted, a stronger and firmer United States has grown out of the conflict. Are you doing your share to help build up your country or are you taking no interest in her welfare?
