

THIS BANK

— is for —
PEOPLE WHO WANT TO IMPROVE THEIR FINANCIAL CONDITION

Will you let us serve you?

A checking account is the most convenient in the payment of bills.

A savings account is the sure road to an eventual competency.

Burrows National Bank

MAILS CLOSE

Going East
A. M. Train 222	8:55
P. M. Train 26	2:30
P. M. Train 8	8:00
Train 8, mail closes at 7:30
M., Tuesdays and Fridays Going West
A. M. Train 7	8:55
P. M. Train 541	6:00
W. F. O'Connell, Postmaster

MODERN CUPID

"Oh Valentine wilt thou be mine?"
 "Indeed I will," said she.
 "If you can prove you'll be a mine Of gold and jewels for me."

—Be it ever so homely, there's a face like your own.

—Mrs. Huldah Saxton, aged 87 years, died recently at her home in Birdsall.

—Remember the George Washington supper in the Methodist Church parlors, Feb. 22nd.

—B. W. Conley has been committed to the house the past week by a severe attack of rheumatism.

—Train No. 3 stopped at Andover Tuesday night to bring home those who attended the Minstrels at Hornell.

—Mrs. Jane Crowell died at the home of her daughter, Mrs.
 Frank Hooker, at Hume, Tuesday, February 6th.

—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stephens and Mrs. C. L. Barley have all been ill the past week, but are reported much better.

—Motorist: don't venture out after February 20th without your 917 license plates, if you do it may be an expensive trip.

—Volney A. Parker died at his home in Wellsville, Sunday night, after an illness of about three weeks. Deceased was 59 years old.

—Mr. and Mrs. James Hoffman of Bolivar, welcomed a son at their home Sunday morning, Feb.
 6th. The little fellow is named James Fisher.

—The New York State College of Forestry at Syracuse estimates that the industries of this state use $107,189,225.00 worth of forest products annually.

—Mrs. John Cochrane died at their home on First Street, Saturday, after a number of week's illness. A memoir will be published in next week's News.

—A sleigh-load of Andover's young people went to Rexville, last week Friday night, to attend a dance in that place. They said that they had a fine trip.

—W. F. Thomas, an employee of Clark & Norton's machine shops, of Wellsville, died at the Wellsville General Hospital, Saturday morning, from pneumonia.

—"Average" cows should be headed for the packing house.

—Miss Mary White has the first harbinger of spring, daffodils in bloom.

—Mrs. Oscar Willard, of Niles Hill, has a fractured ankle from a fall on the ice.

—Ice from the Andover ponds is being shipped to the Belvidere farms to fill their ice houses.

—Mr. and Mrs. William Norton, of Scio, are the proud parents of a daughter, born Tuesday, Feb.
 6th.

—Mrs. Byron Robbins, of Fillmore, died recently at her home in that village from pneumonia, aged 77 years.

—It's easy enough to fill an emporer's shoes, but Ty Cobb's and Hans Wagner's footwear are something else again.

—The residence of Geo. R.
 Nobles, of Wellsville, was totally destroyed by fire early Wednesday morning, Feb. 7th.

—Mrs. Ann White died Thursday, Feb. 8th, at the home of Grant C. Woods, of Rushford. Deceased was 85 years of age.

—George Hollands, of Hornell, has been appointed by Governor Whitman as a trustee of the State Soldiers and Sailors Home at Bath.

—It's a time when the United States may well rejoice that they have a man at the wheel who will guide affairs with a clear mind and steady hand.

—Giles H. Kaple has purchased the Lemule West farm in West Almond. Mr. Kaple has been working S. S. Scribner's farm, south of this village.

—Louis A. Fuertis, a well know naturalist, states that more than twenty-five species of American birds and animals have become extinct in the past fifty years.

—The Ladies Aid Society of the S. D. Baptist Church enjoyed a sleighride and dinner with the ladies of the Independence Society at their parish house, Thursday.

—Canisteo is to vote on a paving proposition this year. The street under consideration is Depot Street, and if the proposition carries it will certainly be a big thing for Canisteo.

—Word comes to Andover relatives and friends of the marriage of Mr. Leo McGrath and Miss Eunice Bond. The ceremony was performed at Nowata, Okla., by Rev. Father VanHulse.

—Alfred and Hornell have been complaining of a gas shortage this week. It might be well for some of us to nose around the garret and barn and see if we couldn't locate that old wood stove.

—D. B. Sullivan, of Little Genesee, an oil well worker, had both legs broken while working on a lease. He placed the boiler in the well without first securing the rope. It dropped 1,400 feet and the rapidly uncoiling rope caught about his legs breaking one below the knee and the other between the knee and hip.

—An order signed by the Court last week $500 will be paid at once to Mrs.
 Chapman Catt as part of the request made her by the will of Mrs. Frank Leslie, to promote the cause of woman suffrage. Mr.
 Leslie left an estate valued at $1,748,550, of which between $1, 000,000 and $1,500,000 was bequeathed to Mrs. Catt and the suffrage cause.

—A 9-pound son was born to Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Howe, Jr., of Wellsville, Friday, Feb. 9th.

—Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Barnes, of Canisteo, are parents of an eight-pound son born Sunday of last week.

—Mrs. Mary Wood of Little Valley, died at her home in that place, Thursday-morning, Feb.
 8th, aged 76 years.

—The regular meeting of Edward Seaman Relief Corps has been postponed because of the evangelistic meetings.

—Mrs. Elizabeth J. Talbot, of Canisteo, died at her home in that place, Friday evening, February 2nd, aged 68 years.

—From all reports the "Billy" Sunday special that is to run from Hornell to Buffalo, Feb. 20th is going to be more than filled.

—Patrick O'Hern, one of Cuba's oldest residents, died at his residence in that place Wednesday morning, Feb. 7th, from pneumonia.

—The large B. & S. bridge over the Shawmut tracks at Belvidere, has been sold to the Shawmut Railroad Co., and will be placed over Olean Creek.

—The Kings Daughters of the Presbyterian Church served dinner to a bunch of Alfred University students, Monday evening, after the picture show.

—Hornell was a lively place for a couple of hours last week, when twenty-seven horses taken off of a train to be fed and watered, went on a wild stampede through the city.

—Mrs. Morton Crandall died at the home of her daughter, Mrs.
 Ann Tefft, of Albany, Tuesday, Feb. 6th. She was brought to her former home in Friendship for funeral services.

—The Saturday night dances held at Conderman Hall, Hornell, N. Y., have been discontinued because of the stand taken by the city officials on the public dance question in that city.

—Indications point to a lively scrap in Andover this year over village election. Don't shed any blood, boys, for any office in the gift of the village is a detriment rather than a benefit to any person.

—James S. Turner has recently purchased the one-fourth interest of C. M. VanCuren in about 80 acres of oil and gas territory. Mr.
 Turner and sons already owned the other three-quarters of the territory.

—Five cows, owned by M. W.
 Green of Nile, slipped on the ice and fell over a thirty-foot embankment into the creek below while being driven down to drink.
 One of the cows was killed and the other four badly hurt.

—A North Dakota editor got in wrong, as follows: A society woman in his town was hostess at an exclusive function. The editor wrote a head on the story, "Mrs.
 So and So's Big Feet," and the printer set it, "Mrs. So and So's Big Feet."

—The residents of the south-end of Grove township are all up in arms over an invader of some kind. The people do not know whether the trouble maker is a bear or a large timber wolf. The animal was seen near the farm of John S. Bardwell.

—The State Health Department is arranging for a public health campaign in connection with the Farmers' Week at Alfred University, Feb. 20-23. Addresses with illustrated lantern slides will be given Wednesday and Thursday afternoons of that week.

—While returning from her brother's M. W. Hobart, Wednesday of last week, Miss Harriet Hobart, of Friendship, was hit and instantly killed by a Shawmut train and so badly mangled that her name in her rubbers was the only means of identification.

—On or before the 20th pay gas bills and save discount: EMPIRE GAS & FUEL CO. Ltd.

You Can't Afford

not to see the new goods arriving daily at this store They are this year's new goods, and even though high prices prevail at other places, you will always find bargains here.

Butter and Eggs Taken in Exchange for Goods

ANDOVER BARGAIN STORE

MRS. S. J. FOWLER

The AUDITORIUM

Saturday Evening, February 17

The Powerful Morality Play

"The Evil Thereof"

With an All-Star Cast

Begins at 7:30 and 9:00

Prices 5 and 10 Cents

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY

Thursday Evening, February 22

EXTRA SPECIAL SHOW

EDNA GOODRICH in

"THE MAKING OF MAGDALENA"

"IN SOCIETY AND OUT," Kiever Comedy

"Our Middies at Annapolis," Burton Holmes Travel

"Farmer Al Falfa's Tentless Circus," Bray Cartoon

"Paramount Pictograph," Educational

A copy of "Picture Progress" for March free to every adult patron

Doors Open 7:30

Pictures 7:45

Prices 10c and 15c

TRY OUR

Homemade Candies

Box Goods and Bulk

PURE ICE CREAM

Ice Cream Soda and Soft Drinks

Cigars and Tobacco

F. L. BLOSS, Corner Grocery

"BREAD FLOUR"

WHY NOT HAVE THE BEST?

Try our K. & B. and Batavian guaranteed "Bread Flour" and they will tell the story themselves.

Phone 238

F. L. BLOSS

Garvin Bros. AUCTION!

The LEVER SALE STABLES

will hold another of their Auction Sales

Friday, February 23, 1917

12 Head of Cattle and 14 Horses

Besides many other articles for the farm and home

A FRESH SUPPLY OF

Pettijohn's Flour

Cracked Wheat

Pancake Flour

National Oats

Someone has said: "A store's advertising space in a newspaper, compared with the space used by other stores, should define its comparative importance in the community. Does your store's advertising space do that?"

TRAINER'S

Read the classified