55 YEARS AGO, TO-DAY

Fort Donelson, the Confederate Stronghold, Surrendered to the Union Army and Navy—13,829 Confederate Prisoners Were Taken

Surrender is not always a disgrace. To capitulate to an idea or enemy you have been fighting is often a sign of moral strength. If you have fought the idea of a moral and instead have been spending your entire income, consider before it is too late and surrender a part of your earnings in the form of an account at this bank.

FIND MAN NEARLY FROZEN TO DEATH

Hornell, Feb. 11.—Numb, stiff and nearly frozen by the cold, an unknown young man, giving the name of Stevens, was found by John Porter, of Oak Hill, lying alongside the road at Webb's Crossing, near this city, Friday evening at 5 o'clock. When found the lad, who was about 17 years of age, had fallen, exhausted, at one side of the road, overcome by the intense cold.

Mr. Porter placed him in the wagon and hurriedly drove to Dr. Gregory's, at Arkport. Here he was given medical aid and when sufficiently thawed out, it was found that he had suffered no serious harm by being exposed to the cold.

The lad told a story of trying to make his way from Paterson, N. J., to Akron, O., where he has relatives. He traveled by train as far as Hornell, when his money gave out, and he was forced to start out afoot, and was still going when he became numb with the cold.

After the youth had been given medical aid, a telegram was dispatched to his father, who he said resided in New York. At the address the lad gave, no one with such a name could be found.

WELLSBORO HOTELS CLOSE THEIR DOORS

Wellsboro, Pa., Feb. 10.—The proprietors of the three hotels of Wellsboro, W. R. Coles, S. O. Daggett and Richard Sandbach, whose hotels were refused liquor licenses by Judge Channell this week, signed a contract late yesterday afternoon that they would close their doors to the public last night at 10 o'clock and the agreement was faithfully carried out.

The regular boarders at these hotels have been given until Monday morning to find boarding places. At that time the doors of the hotels will be boarded up and the traveling public will have to find accommodations at boarding houses and private residences.

The reason given by the landlords for their action is that they would not be able to run these hotels without financial loss now that the bars are closed. They say that during the year 1915 when the town was dry that they were unable to make expenses. Mr. Coles states that it cost $5 a day for coal to heat the Coles House. With labor, food and coal so high the landlords say they cannot afford to keep open.
