

Early - Spring - Hats

These that we are showing now are "Ward" Hats made in England. They are the indestructible soft hat and you will find a definite degree of individuality in the style of these new Spring Hats. The colors are varied and the prices are the same as in previous seasons, $3.00 and $3.50.

This week will end our Trouser Sale and if you haven't already taken advantage of it you had better go to it without delay.

$4.00 Trousers now $4.75 $5.00 Trousers now $4.00
 $4.90 Trousers now $3.25 $3.00 Trousers now $2.40
 $2.50 Trousers now $1.00

The famous "McMillian" Trousers which most of you know better than we can describe to your universally reduced 10% on such pair which means:

$4.00 Trousers now $3.60 $3.50 Trousers now $3.15
 $3.00 Trousers now $2.70

Schau & Roosa Co.

117 Main St. Hornell, N. Y.

GREENWOOD LOCAL BRIEFS

Key roads.
 The back-bone of winter is broken.
 Potatoes are soaring in price. They have sold high as $3.50 per bushel.
 Food riot in New York. Starving women and children fight for bread.
 German methods of warfare is punishing neutrals as well as enemies.
 Germany seeks to justify her criminal acts by claiming that England is starving Germany and claims they have sufficient food to carry on the war indefinitely.
 General Funston, who commanded our forces on the Mexican border, is dead. He had taken dinner with some friends in a Texas hotel and was playing with a child when the summons came.
 According to report one country is swarming with German spies. There is said to be an army of 200,000 of them, and public works are being guarded as a precautionary measure.
 Hornell is elated over the prospect of another railroad. The D. L. & W. are buying land near the city for railroad purposes. Another proof of the old saying: "To him that hath railroads shall be given more railroads. To him that hath none shall be taken the one he seemeth to have." It looks as though we will have to hustle to keep ours.
 N. E. Coston is still on the sick list. His many friends hope for his speedy recovery.
 The Jasper Theatrical Troupe presented the play, "Glen Cove," at the Opera House, in this place, last evening to a crowded house and pleased audience. Ed Hamlin, Ord Dunkle, Edgar Drake, Lawrence Hamlin, Harry Dennis, G. L. Hunt, Howard Wood, Mrs. A. M. Wallace, Miss Vera Murphy, Mrs. C. H. Craig, and Mrs. G. L. Hunt were the cast of players. Allens Orchestra of Canisteo furnished the music which was good. The play was followed by dancing. Supper was served at the Healy House.
 Mrs. M. D. Webster entertained the Equal Suffrage Club Thursday evening. Mrs. Roxana Burrows, of Andover, was among the visiting workers of the organization.
 The Boy Scouts held an oyster supper at the M. E. Church, Friday evening.
 Jasper and Genesee Basket Ball Teams crossed swords at the Opera House last evening. A fine game was the result.
 Jay Covert is packing up to move to Painted Post, where he has a job in the big factory.
 Mrs. M. D. Webster was in Hornell Friday.
 Among those who attended the play last evening from Rexville were Misses Bell Harden, Mary Hargan, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Johnson, Robert Johnson, Eva Harkender, Mildred Hyland, Marie Dunn and Bachel McKay.
 Last evening when leaving the Opera House Mr. Hesling stepped off the south end of the walk and fell a distance of about six feet into the basement stairway. Fortunately he escaped with slight injury. It is a dangerous place and should be inclosed by a railing.
 Miss Ellen Young was in Hornell Friday.
 Miss Florence Groff visited relatives in town Friday.

Mrs. Minnie Shaw visited with Mrs. Bert Whiteman in Canisteo Wednesday.
 Clair Cobb, of Spring Mills, was entertained by Greenwood friends last week.
 Mrs. Potter, of South Canisteo, was the guest of Mrs. M. Shaw, Monday.
 Abia Thompson, of Coby Creek, greeted Greenwood friends in town Wednesday.
 J. Knox Miller Esq., of West Greenwood, was a city visitor Tuesday.

CLUB FOR WOMEN PAST FIFTY

Purpose is to Provide Pleasure and Money for the Elderly and Lonely.

Women who have passed the meridian of life and now are on the "sunset" side are to have a club of their own which is intended to provide them with pleasure and congenial companionship, give them some occupation either for themselves or others and make them independent financially. Men, too, who own to threescore years may organize similar clubs of their own. But just now the idea, which originated with Mrs. C. A. Rugg, 200 West Seventy-third street, does not include joint meetings of the clubs.
 Mrs. Rugg, who frankly admits that she belongs to the sunset class in life, has had the idea for some time. She wants to help others to fill their time pleasantly, whether they be poor or wealthy, for she says some of the loneliest women in the world are these who have money but nothing to do.
 "When her children marry and leave her or begin to lead their own lives, a mother feels deserted unless she has something to fill her life as her children did," Mrs. Rugg said. "It is for such as these that I want to start my sunset club. I call it sunset because all of us who have reached sixty have had clouds in our lives."—New York Herald.

ACTOR REHEARSING FOR ROLE OF FALSTAFF GOT HIMSELF INTO MOST UNPLEASANT POSITION.

In a rehearsal of the role of the Fat Knight in "Falstaff," at the studio of Silvio Hein, Thomas A. Wise, who doesn't use much padding in making up for the role, spent a moment or two trying a certain wicker laundry basket to be used in the play, and half an hour in trying to get out of it.
 Mr. Wise was in the same fix—in real life—that the Fat Knight is in Shakespeare's farce. He couldn't get out of the basket. Even when he got on his hands and knees, he couldn't shake it off. And Constance Collier and Isabel Irving, who were rehearsing the scene with him, couldn't pull him out. Perhaps they were laughing too much.
 Miss Collier discovered after a time that the actor's prison had removable sides, and extricated Mr. Wise by sliding out a few wooden pegs.
 Members of the Lambs' club said that when Mr. Wise came over to the club and told about it his story was funnier than Falstaff's description of his troubles to Mr. Ford at the inn.—New York World.

SET LOUNGERS TO STARING

Apparition on New York Street Caused a Slight Sensation, for Several Reasons.
 She was good looking, all right, but good-looking girls aren't so rare these days that prettiness alone could account for the half-dozen or so of men who trailed behind her, their eyes fixed on her shapely—well, anyhow—they weren't watching the sky for Zeppelins. First, her stockings were white; secondly, they were of silk, and, thirdly, they were very, very transparent. Still, other women wear similar stockings without having to chase away masculine Broadway admirers. But sharply outlined against the sheer silkiness of the young lady's right stocking, just above the ankle, reposed a package of cigarettes of a brand whose qualities were new to grandpa because of their very high price. Paralleling the cigarettes on the horizon of high visibility on the other leg was a roll of green bills, even the figures being discernible. The half-dozen men, transfixed, stood as if by magic, as the twin attractions twinkled their way across the threshold of an apartment house and were lost to view.—New York Correspondence Pittsburgh Dispatch.

PUTS PINK IN THE CHEEKS.

Leaves from the bouncing bet are responsible for the beautiful complexions of the English girls, who crush the juice from them and make a lather by shaking it in water, the Philadelphia North American announces. The plant is also asserted to have a charm that will work its spell upon the one whose favor the maiden wishes to gain.
 The plant grows everywhere in profusion, sending out numerous underground runners, as well as spreading its kind by seed. The stem is quite stout, with a smooth, erect, unbranched length. At the top are clustered numerous pink flowers, with deeply notched or cleft petals. Sometimes the plant is called the "soapwort" because of the use made of the leaves.
 In England the plant blossoms from July until September, profusely in waste places. It was one of the first foreign flowers to be introduced into this country, and thrives in our gardens and hedges.

AN INDICATOR.

"I had good news this morning," remarked Senator Sorghum. "Mr. Bliggins says he is going to support me."
 "But his support doesn't amount to much."
 "Very true. But Bliggins is one of those fellows who are careful not to commit themselves till they are sure they are on the winning side."
 NOT ENTIRELY DISLIKED.
 "Nobody likes Dobson."
 "Oh, yes, somebody does."
 "Who?"
 "Dobson."—Boston Evening Transcript.

NEVER SAW HER SO.

"Hubby, dear, do you love me still?"
 "Can't tell, wife; never saw you still!"

OUR CHURCHES

Before the present great war the city of Verdun was an old-fashioned place with some well-preserved ancient customs, among which was the official night watchman. A Red Cross nurse has recounted, in Le Cri de Paris, her impressions of the first bombardment of Verdun, a year ago. She arrived at night and was very tired after a fatiguing journey. Some time later she was awakened by the bursting of a shell and the ringing of a big bell in a clock tower. This was followed by a lugubrious silence, which was broken by the slow and monotonous voice of the night watchman, who called out from the high tower:
 "The fire is in the Faubourg Pavé. Inhabitants of Verdun, get up!"
 Then came another shell explosion and the clang of the bell.
 The voice of the guardian of the night was again heard: "The fire is at the station. Inhabitants of Verdun, get up!"
 Then came more bombs, more bell-clangs, and in the intervals of silence came the voice of the bell ringer in the same drawing, impassive tones: "The fire is at the Square des Armes—the fire is at the Faubourg—Get up!"
 The watchman of today would have a busy time notifying the Verdunites—if any remain—of the thousands of shells showered upon that city devoted to destruction.

TURNED DOWN

"Won't you commit yourself to my keeping for life?"
 "I won't commit myself."
 ENGLISH FACE HAS CHANGED.
 The injunction of Gladstone, who physically had an enormous development of jaw, with regard to repeatedly chewing each morsel of food before swallowing it, will have a new vogue since Professor Keith's communication to the British association that the facial type of the English people is changing. The English face is becoming narrower and longer, and the bones of the nose orifice becoming narrower. In short, there is a degeneration in the bones of the jaws, while the teeth show irregularities which have only developed in the last century. We do not gnaw our bones or masticate our food as eagerly as our ancestors, and so according to the inexorable law of nature, those powers have begun to atrophy.—London Globe.

CONSTANT JOGLING.

"What makes Mrs. de Style joggle her arm so?"
 "She is trying to read an exciting story through a lognette."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

THAT'S ALL.

"What's the difference between chicken hash and chicken croquettes?"
 "Merely a matter of form, old man."
 CHANGING NAMES.
 "Why do the Russians call the czar Little Father?"
 "Don't know. I guess the central allies think of him more as a big papa."
 ILLUSION.
 "Bliggins is an impressive sort of person."
 "Yes. He's one of those people who manage to have a superior manner mistaken for a superior mind."
 WHY?
 "Why is it we don't hear any more complaints about defective life preservers on ships?"
 "Nobody has time to put them on."—St. Louis Star.

OUR CHURCHES

SEVENTH-DAY BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. V. L. Eggleston, stated Supply.
 Morning service as usual at 10:30.
 Bible School at 11:30.
 Tabernacle meetings every afternoon and evening except Monday. Let every one support these meetings regularly and faithfully.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Hamilton B. Williams, Minister.
 Sunday Morning, Feb. 25.
 Morning-worship with appropriate sermon for illumination and inspiration.
 The Boards of the Church: This is the opportunity of the congregation to enlarge the Kingdom of Jesus Christ outside our own borders. Let us promptly and generously respond to the opportunity. Mr. J. Snyder, Mr. B. B. Hann, Mr. Erwin Baker will receive all contributions. The money should be paid before March 20th.

THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Rev. Chas. Collins, Pastor.
 The pastor will preach Sunday morning, at 10:30. Subject: "Loosed From the Bondage of Sin." This will be an evangelistic sermon and service. Every body welcome. Begin the day right by attending the regular morning church service. Sunday School at close.
 Mass meeting for men at the tabernacle, at 3 p. m. Mr. Miller will deliver his great address "The Cat Came Back."
 Big tabernacle evening service for everybody at 7:30.

BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. V. L. Eggleston in charge.
 Sunday morning service at 10:30. Subject: "The Coming Time." Prof. J. W. Alexander will sing several selections. This is the last preaching service before the new pastor assumes charge. A large attendance is desired as there are several announcements of importance.
 Bible School at 11:45.
 Y. P. S. C. E. at 6:15.
 Tabernacle meetings Sunday at 3 p. m. and 7:30. There is an increasing interest and attendance at all of the tabernacle meetings. Meetings every day at 3 p. m. and 7:30 except Monday.
 The annual meeting of the Baptist Church was held Monday night, at 7:30, in the lecture room of the church. The following officers were elected:
 Trustees, Mrs. W. S. Clark, Mrs. E. F. Stearns.
 Treasurer, F. W. Burrows.
 Financial secretary, V. L. Eggleston.
 Clerk, Miss Minnie A. Clair.
 Finance Committee, H. P. Bundy, Howard Inskip, J. C. Lever, Frank Graves.
 Committee on Sexton, T. J. Gilbert.
 Committee on Ushers, Frank Graves.
 Auditing Committee, Chas. Foster.
 Organist, Miss Minnie A. Clair.

Mother's Troubles

Mother's unending work and devotion drains and strains her physical strength and leaves its mark in dimmed eyes and careworn expressions—she ages before her time.
 Any mother who is weary and languid should start taking

SCOTT'S EMULSION

OF NORWEGIAN COD LIVER OIL as a strengthening food and bracing tonic to add richness to her blood and build up her nerves before it is too late. Start SCOTT'S today—its fame is world-wide.
 No Alcohol.
 Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J.

SAVING KIDNEY TRAVEL

Mr. Henry Dater, of New York, N. Y. New Associate of the "Fruit-a-tives"

Mr. Dater is a firm friend of "Fruit-a-tives". He believes in the healing and restoring powers of these wonderful tablets made from fruit juices. He knows—because he tried "Fruit-a-tives" when he was ill and suffering, and in a position to speak with authority.
 658 First Ave., New York, N. Y.
 April 25th, 1918
 "I have been a sufferer for years with Kidney Trouble and Constipation. I tried 'Fruit-a-tives' about a month ago, and with almost immediate results. The Kidney Trouble has disappeared and the Constipation is fast leaving me."
 HENRY DATER.
 "Fruit-a-tives" is the greatest Kidney Remedy in the world, and is equally effective in relieving Constipation. 50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At all dealers or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, OGDENSBURG, NEW YORK.

SLOAN'S LINIMENT

FOR STIFF JOINTS
 Rheumatic pains and aches set the joints and muscles, making every movement torture. Relieve your aches with Sloan's Liniment; it quickly penetrates without rubbing, and soothes and warms your sore muscles. The congested blood is stimulated to action; a simple application will drive out the pain. Sloan's Liniment, it does not stain the skin or clog the pores. Get a bottle to-day at your Druggist. Me.—Advertisement.

SHAKE INTO YOUR SHOES

Allen's Foot-Ease, the antiseptic powder for painful, smarting, tender, nervous feet. It takes the sting out of corns and bunions. Over 100,000 packages are being used by the German and Allied troops at the front. Sold everywhere, 25c.

PAINFUL COUGHS RELIEVED

Dr. King's New Discovery is a soothing, healing remedy for coughs and colds that has stood the test of nearly fifty years. For that cough that strikes the throat and saps the vitality try Dr. King's New Discovery. The soothing pine balsam and mild laxative ingredients soon drive the cold from the system. Have a bottle on hand for winter colds, croup, grippe and bronchial affections. At your Druggist, 50c.—Advertisement.

TIMELY BOOKS

Government Telephones
 By JAMES MAVOR, Ph. D.
 Prof. of Political Economy in the University of Toronto. Author of "An Economic History of Russia," etc.
 Prof. Mavor's book is a compelling and fearless narrative of the true record of an American Government in the management of a great commercial business. It tells what happened to the Titanic and what happened to the Titanic, the "proof of the pudding" is in this book. It is of special importance to Americans just now when the question of Government ownership is so much agitated. 12mo. Cloth, $1 net; Postage 6c. extra.

Football Days
 By WM. H. ("Big Boy") EDWARDS
 500 pages of rattling good stories of famous men and teams of all the colleges. 50 pages of wonderful illustrations that recall the stirring scenes of the past. A book in which you get the thrills and fever of the greatest of all outdoor games. 8vo. $2.50 Net; Postage 30c.

The School in the Home
 By ADOLF A. BERLE
 Talks with parents and teachers on intensive child training by a writer of broad vision and deep insight. 12 mo. Cloth, $1.25 Net; Postage 10c.

Teaching in the Home
 By ADOLF A. BERLE
 A manual of school work that can be done at home. It carries on and develops in concrete form the principles laid down in "The School in the Home." 12 mo. Cloth, $1.25 Net; Postage 10c.
 At Your Bookstore, or Direct from
 HOFFAT, YARD & CO., Publishers
 116-118 West 32nd Street, New York

Never be

ment. But... Since the... Buy now... Then, w... appreciate the... A Few O... 79c

Mother's Troubles

Mother's unending work and devotion drains and strains her physical strength and leaves its mark in dimmed eyes and careworn expressions—she ages before her time.
 Any mother who is weary and languid should start taking

SCOTT'S EMULSION

OF NORWEGIAN COD LIVER OIL as a strengthening food and bracing tonic to add richness to her blood and build up her nerves before it is too late. Start SCOTT'S today—its fame is world-wide.
 No Alcohol.
 Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J.

Read the classified ads.

ROUTE 1

Feb. 21.—Aah We... The days are... A fortune in pota... to have surplus... A number of our... unded the Hou... in Andover M... Dean Horan was... le Sunday enjoy... in his people... Howard and Mary... party of Andover... high-ride to Wells... ancia Casey being... ancia also transp... mpany of Andove... me place Friday... The Misses Pohr... le, were guests o... ra. Ed Horan and... y night and Sund... Miss Lenora Dean... le visitor Saturda... Miss Nellie Horar... y night with Mrs... Andover.
 Rev. J. J. Sheehy... sited Patrick Kil... orning, also call... irishioners.
 Louis Dean was... rnell friends from... Monday.
 Daniel Doughert... pch, Pa.; visited H... riday and Saturda... Ed. McAndrew was... ss in Wellsville la... Mrs. M. Harrington... ll, was a recent... ughter, Mrs. Her... Fred Henderson, ... as doing paper ha... Mings last week... Dean Bros. are d... ad of sand from... e cement work in... rry.

TURNED DOWN

"Won't you commit yourself to my keeping for life?"
 "I won't commit myself."
 ENGLISH FACE HAS CHANGED.
 The injunction of Gladstone, who physically had an enormous development of jaw, with regard to repeatedly chewing each morsel of food before swallowing it, will have a new vogue since Professor Keith's communication to the British association that the facial type of the English people is changing. The English face is becoming narrower and longer, and the bones of the nose orifice becoming narrower. In short, there is a degeneration in the bones of the jaws, while the teeth show irregularities which have only developed in the last century. We do not gnaw our bones or masticate our food as eagerly as our ancestors, and so according to the inexorable law of nature, those powers have begun to atrophy.—London Globe.

CONSTANT JOGLING.

"What makes Mrs. de Style joggle her arm so?"
 "She is trying to read an exciting story through a lognette."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

THAT'S ALL.

"What's the difference between chicken hash and chicken croquettes?"
 "Merely a matter of form, old man."
 CHANGING NAMES.
 "Why do the Russians call the czar Little Father?"
 "Don't know. I guess the central allies think of him more as a big papa."
 ILLUSION.
 "Bliggins is an impressive sort of person."
 "Yes. He's one of those people who manage to have a superior manner mistaken for a superior mind."
 WHY?
 "Why is it we don't hear any more complaints about defective life preservers on ships?"
 "Nobody has time to put them on."—St. Louis Star.

AN INDICATOR.

"I had good news this morning," remarked Senator Sorghum. "Mr. Bliggins says he is going to support me."
 "But his support doesn't amount to much."
 "Very true. But Bliggins is one of those fellows who are careful not to commit themselves till they are sure they are on the winning side."
 NOT ENTIRELY DISLIKED.
 "Nobody likes Dobson."
 "Oh, yes, somebody does."
 "Who?"
 "Dobson."—Boston Evening Transcript.

NEVER SAW HER SO.

"Hubby, dear, do you love me still?"
 "Can't tell, wife; never saw you still!"

OUR CHURCHES

Before the present great war the city of Verdun was an old-fashioned place with some well-preserved ancient customs, among which was the official night watchman. A Red Cross nurse has recounted, in Le Cri de Paris, her impressions of the first bombardment of Verdun, a year ago. She arrived at night and was very tired after a fatiguing journey. Some time later she was awakened by the bursting of a shell and the ringing of a big bell in a clock tower. This was followed by a lugubrious silence, which was broken by the slow and monotonous voice of the night watchman, who called out from the high tower:
 "The fire is in the Faubourg Pavé. Inhabitants of Verdun, get up!"
 Then came another shell explosion and the clang of the bell.
 The voice of the guardian of the night was again heard: "The fire is at the station. Inhabitants of Verdun, get up!"
 Then came more bombs, more bell-clangs, and in the intervals of silence came the voice of the bell ringer in the same drawing, impassive tones: "The fire is at the Square des Armes—the fire is at the Faubourg—Get up!"
 The watchman of today would have a busy time notifying the Verdunites—if any remain—of the thousands of shells showered upon that city devoted to destruction.

TURNED DOWN

"Won't you commit yourself to my keeping for life?"
 "I won't commit myself."
 ENGLISH FACE HAS CHANGED.
 The injunction of Gladstone, who physically had an enormous development of jaw, with regard to repeatedly chewing each morsel of food before swallowing it, will have a new vogue since Professor Keith's communication to the British association that the facial type of the English people is changing. The English face is becoming narrower and longer, and the bones of the nose orifice becoming narrower. In short, there is a degeneration in the bones of the jaws, while the teeth show irregularities which have only developed in the last century. We do not gnaw our bones or masticate our food as eagerly as our ancestors, and so according to the inexorable law of nature, those powers have begun to atrophy.—London Globe.

CONSTANT JOGLING.

"What makes Mrs. de Style joggle her arm so?"
 "She is trying to read an exciting story through a lognette."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

THAT'S ALL.

"What's the difference between chicken hash and chicken croquettes?"
 "Merely a matter of form, old man."
 CHANGING NAMES.
 "Why do the Russians call the czar Little Father?"
 "Don't know. I guess the central allies think of him more as a big papa."
 ILLUSION.
 "Bliggins is an impressive sort of person."
 "Yes. He's one of those people who manage to have a superior manner mistaken for a superior mind."
 WHY?
 "Why is it we don't hear any more complaints about defective life preservers on ships?"
 "Nobody has time to put them on."—St. Louis Star.