HIGH-PRICED FEEDS SHOW VALUE OF SILAGE

This winter of high priced dairy feeds should teach the dairy farmers two things, according to the animal husbandmen at Cornell. The first is that good corn silage and other roughage have a value that can not be overestimated; the second is that there is a greater need of good cows than ever before. This is no time, says the State College of Agriculture, to be feeding poor producers, and the man who has purebreds and is getting double value for his feed. The dairyman's slogan for next year should be purebreds, a silo, and clover or alfalfa hay.

For the month of March the State College of Agriculture at Cornell University recommends the following dairy feed, based on prices for mixed carlots for cash, F. O. B. at any station taking the Rochester freight rate: 700 pounds distillers dried grains, 300 pounds gluten feed, 600 pounds hominy or corn meal, 200 pounds malt sprouts, wheat bran, or dried beet pulp, and 200 pounds cottonseed meal.

THIS MAN WEARS A $3,500 FLAG

Atlantic City, March 13.—James Buchanan Brady gave the boardwalk something to talk about by taking a rolling chair ride wearing the most costly American flag ever manufactured. It measured two inches one way by three inches the other and was fixed very snugly upon the lapel of a fashionably cut coat upon which a Manhattan tailor had lavished great care. It is said to have cost $3,500. The base of this flag is platinum. The color scheme is worked out with precious stones. Forty-eight diamonds supply the stars, set in a bed of sapphires half an inch square. The white stripes are worked out in square-cut diamonds and the red bars are of rubies.

The classified ads would be the dullest possible "reading matter" for a person who might have no aim or purpose in mind. But to folks with purposes, aims, desires, quests — they are the most interesting "reading" in town.

WOMEN'S NERVES

Women, more than men, have excitable nerves, because tiring work and physical strain tax their more delicate nervous systems and bring premature age and chronic weakness—unless treated intelligently.

Drug-laden pills and alcoholic concoctions cannot build up a woman's strength, but the concentrated medicinal food properties in build strength from its very source and are helping thousands of women to gain control of their nerve power—overcome thinness, nervousness, impatience and irritability.
