

Chas. Burrows - National - Bank

Condensed Statement of the Condition taken from the Report to the Comptroller March 5, 1917

RESOURCES
Loans and Discounts	$219,400 78
Overdrafts	508 21
U. S. Government Bonds	25,000 00
Bonds, Securities, etc.	33,150 00
Fixtures	1,000 00
Cash on Hand and with Banks	47,358 27
Federal Reserve Bank Stock	1,500 00
Redemption Fund with U. S. Treasurer	1,250 00
	$329,167 26
LIABILITIES
Capital Stock	$ 25,000 00
Surplus and Profits	30,693 58
Circulation	25,000 00
Dividends Unpaid	37 00
Deposits	248,436 68
	$329,167 26

New York State Depository

MAILS CLOSE

Going East
A. M. Train 222	8:55
P. M. Train 26	2:30
P. M. Train 8	8:00
Train 8, mail closes at 7:30
P. M., Tuesdays and Fridays.
Going West
A. M. Train 7	8:55
P. M. Train 541	6:00
W. F. O'Connell, Postmaster

Truth and oil will come to the top.

—Mrs. Lee Trowbridge has been seriously ill the past week.

—The most that you can do for your friend is simply to be his friend.

—Miss Alice Hall, of Angelica, died at her home east of that village, last week.

—Mrs. Edson H. Keller died at her home in Cuba, Tuesday, Mar. 13th, aged 68 years.

—Work has begun on the new Parkwood Cemetery, located on Greenwood Street in Canisteo.

—Something to think about in the state of New York during the year 1916, 3,800 girls mysteriously disappeared.

—Misses Lena and Mildred Whitecomb, who have been seriously ill the past two weeks, are gaining slowly.

—The Shawmut ice house at Angelica was discovered on fire Friday, March 9th. No great damage was done.

—Charles Cole and Geo. H. Beebe are the trial jurors from Andover drawn to serve at the April term of Supreme Court.

—Wilkes Jenkins, of Stanard, has purchased the Henderson property on Baker Street, and will move his family to Andover.

—While digging a cess pool at a garage in Canisteo recently, the man found a petrified angleworm 13 1/2 feet below the surface of the ground.

—The revival meetings that have been carried on in Canisteo by Evangelist Paul Brown, closed Thursday evening of last week, with 120 converts.

—Ed Briggs, proprietor of the Whitesville House, and Mr. and Mrs. D. Armstrong, of Almond, have closed a deal by which Mr. Briggs comes into possession of the Armstrong farm at Almond, and Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong take possession of the Whitesville House at Whitesville.

—Gasoline retails for $1.25 a gallon in Paris.

—Alfred is to appropriate $100 for Band Concerts this year.

—Mrs. Lucretia Lester, of Cuba died Monday, March 12th, at the age of 59 years.

—Jamestown is considering putting a team in the Interstate League this season.

—Early to bed and early to rise—but you won't meet very many prominent people.

—Regular meeting of Anna W. McArthur Chapter O. E. S. next Monday evening. Refreshments.

—Jason Hunt, one of our oldest citizens, is ill at his home on corner of West Greenwood and First Streets.

—Warren D. Burrows, of Beach Hill passed, away at his home, Tuesday morning. Diseased was 25 years of age.

—One hundred thousand pounds of sauerkraut is to be furnished the Navy by the Empire Pickling Company of Phelps.

—About 150 Past Masters of the 34th district attended the Past Masters banquet at Hornell, Wednesday evening, Mar. 14th.

—If some people would keep their brains and hands one-half as active as they do their tongues they would make a great labor record.

—For some unknown reason the gas went out in Angelica, Saturday evening, and remained out about an hour leaving the whole village in darkness just at the busiest time.

—Charles J. Pollard and Mrs. Amy Conant Halstead, both of Cuba, were united in marriage at Mr. Pollard's home, Wednesday evening, Mar. 14th.

—Otto Reacher, of Wellsville, had the misfortune to break his left leg while at work at the Moore Steam Turbine plant, Saturday, March 17th.

—Stauben County received a check from Secretary Hugo of $3,352.00, of which $3,314.50 was from the registration of automobiles and $37.50 from motorcycles.

—H. H. Williams went to Buffalo the last of the week for an operation at the General Hospital.

—A new Rebekah Lodge was instituted in Genesee, Pa., Thursday Mar. 8th by President Martha R. Perry, with twenty-eight charter members. The new lodge will be known as the Francisco Rebekah Lodge No. 61, I. O. O. F.

—The Whitesville News says that a flock of about thirty wild geese circled over that village last week and then went back toward the South. What was the reason for this sudden change of mind, Mr. Remington?

—Rochester has more than 300 cases of scarlet fever.

—The trout season opens the first Saturday in April this year.

—The N. Y. & P. Railroad have raised their rates from 3 cents to 3 1/2 cents a mile.

—When a youth decides to "cut a wide swath" in life, pity the rakers and binders.

—Postmaster W. F. O'Connell is out on the streets again after a week's illness with grip.

—Dr. J. C. O'Day, formerly of Bolivar, is to move to Honolulu to take up his permanent residence.

—The store that has the goods lets it be known to the public. Read our advertising columns and profit thereby.

—By the recent death of his sister, A. O. Tucker of this village has come into an inheritance of about $12,000.

—George Gleason has moved from the Emery tenant on Chestnut Street into the J. L. Williams house on Third Street.

—The News gets favorable reports of the condition of Jesse Swink, who is in a private hospital in New York for treatment.

—The Klu Klux Klan, of Alfred University have recently bought the Saunders house on South Main St., for a fraternity home.

—Abram P. Benjamin, former editor of the Rushford Spectator passed away at his home in Rushford, Thursday, March 15th. Deceased was 32 years of age.

—Mrs. John Casey and daughter, Anna, went to Hornell Monday, where Anna was operated upon for appendicitis at the St. James Mercy Hospital, Tuesday.

—The week-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Barrett died Monday night. The little one was buried Wednesday. Rev. H. B. Williams conducted a prayer service at the home.

—The dogs of Wellsville surely have one friend. Someone broke the lock on the pound and let all the unlicensed dogs out one night last week, much to the annoyance of Officer Kibbie.

—A high barbed fence is to be built around the Curtiss plant at Hammondsport with police to guard the gates, to protect the plant against the foreign born traitors in this country. The workmen are to be distinguished by badges that must be worn.

—The Cary Williams Jubilee Singers gave a pleasing concert at the Auditorium, Saturday evening and again Sunday afternoon. Their plantation songs and melodies were exceptionally good and Mr. Williams' rendering of Paul Dunbar's "How Melinda Sings" highly appreciated.

—"How to grow old gracefully." Read The Forum.

—Gaylord Colvin died at his home in Ulysses, Tuesday, Mar. 13th.

—John D. Farwell passed away at his home in Cuba, Thursday evening, Mar. 14th.

—Mrs. A. C. Reynolds died at her home in Scio, Thursday, Mar. 15th, aged 70 years.

—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sidleton, of Wellsville, welcomed a son at their home, Sunday.

—Sam Cogis has moved from the Madison house on Third Street to the Jerome Remington on First Street.

—Mrs. Mary Tarantino, of Belmont, died at the Wellsville General Hospital, Saturday night, aged 42 years.

—The Andover High School has closed for a two week's vacation because of so many pupils absent by illness.

—A H. Richardson, of Westons, has bought the Rowe farm near Little Genesee, and will take possession as soon as possible.

—Will Traver, of Bolivar, was hit in his left shoulder by a stray bullet, while loading chemical wood near Bolivar last week.

—Virginia Hyland came home Monday from Hornell where she underwent an operation for appendicitis from which she is recovering nicely.

—The Corry Bridge & Supply Co., of Corry, Pa., are the lowest bidders on the Main Street bridge at Wellsville. The work will begin in a short time.

—Hyott H. Smith, a Canisteo boy, died in the Armory, at Columbus, Ohio, from pneumonia, following measles Thursday, Mar. 13th, at the age of 19 years.

—Angelica had another taste of high water last week, when the loose ice jammed up in the Angelica Creek. A bridge near Jesse Bullock's went out with the flood.

—John C. Foster, a line-walker for the United Pipe Co., was found dead in a ditch at Genesee, Pa., Sunday morning. Foster had been drinking and evidently fell into the ditch and drowned.

—Officer Ellsworth of Wellsville, captured Lester F. Teed, a deserter seaman, Saturday. Teed was working in the Kerr Turbine. Ellsworth started for New York with his prisoner that night.

—Chas. Jackson, a member of the Greenwood police force, was arrested in Canisteo the other day and relieved of six dollars because he had more of Hornell's spirits than was good for him to carry.

—Thelma Deming, the five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Deming, of Hallsport, was kicked by a horse Monday night, resulting in a fractured skull. She was taken to Wellsville for an operation.

—L. G. Tucker, of the Vandermark, was taken to Wellsville, Saturday, to have his leg treated that was broken last January. Blood poison had developed to such an extent that the limb had to be amputated.

—Rev. F. W. Berlin, whose death occurred at Lyndonville, Feb. 28th, following an operation for appendicitis was a former pastor of the M. E. Church at Bolivar and well known throughout Allegany County.

—Word comes from James McDonough, that upon reaching Buffalo he enlisted in the U. S. Marines and will go to Charleston, S. C. He was a member of the 174 Regiment N. G. Not finding any fight at the Mexican border he evidently will try to find a scrap on the water.

EASTER

Comes on April 8th This Year

We are prepared by having a fine line of EASTER NOVELTIES of all kinds.

We can also furnish you with your NEW EASTER HAT, ladies, and save you money.

Come in and see us.

Butter and Eggs Taken in Exchange for Goods

ANDOVER BARGAIN STORE

MRS. S. J. FOWLER

The AUDITORIUM

Saturday Evening, March 24

DUSTIN FARNUM

"DAVY CROCKET"

And "COL. HEEZA LIAR AND THE BANDITS"

Wednesday Evening, March 28

MAE MURRAY

"The Dream Girl"

AND A PARAMOUNT PICTOGRAPH

Begins at 7:45 and 9:15

Prices 5c and 10c.

TRY OUR
Homemade Candies
Box Goods and Bulk
PURE ICE CREAM
Ice Cream Soda and Soft Drinks
Cigars and Tobacco

FACTS

Indisputable Evidence

An impartial jury will always give a verdict in accordance with FACTS.

YOU ARE THE JURY, and the facts are plainly in evidence at this store.

The superior quality of our Groceries is a fact.

Our exceedingly low price is another fact.

And when you get all the facts in regard to this store your verdict will be:

"The Best Place in Town to Do My Trading"

Get the evidence. Render the verdict.

H. H. WILLIAMS

Garvin Bros.

Will Load

CALVES and HOGS

Wednesday
March 28

at

ANDOVER

HIGHEST MARKET PRICE

* Easter Opening *

Friday--Saturday, March 30--31

We cordially invite you to attend our opening display of Reed, Gerter & Sessions an exhibition of charming and exclusive models that represent the most exacting demands of fashion.

PATTERN HATS

Haugh Millinery