

EASTER MEANS

"Dress Up"

And the easiest way to obey this impulse is to buy everything that will benefit in two ways by doing so.

First, our Spring stocks are large—and a wide variety makes buying simple.

Second, you will feel better about new clothes if you don't have to worry about the cost—and our prices have a reputation for being right. Stein-Bloch Smart and Clothier Guaranteed Clothes are here in all their Spring newness. At $15 to $35. The styles, materials and workmanship cannot be excelled.

Don't delay—Spring is here to stay.

BOYS' EASTER SUITS

In the newest Spring models Materials that are absolutely guaranteed for wearing qualities and fastness of color. These goods are woven to withstand the rough usage a boy usually gives his clothes—but nevertheless the variety in colorings are as handsome and neat as human eyes could possibly picture. We guarantee every garment to give satisfaction. For the little fellow from 3 to 5 years the Junior Norfolk set for the larger boy from 7 to 17 years we have the new pinch-back models, ranging in price from $4.45 to $10.95. Ones between $6 and $8 are exceptional values and cannot be duplicated to-day at a 20% advance. We also have Top Coats for the boys and Hats and Caps which match the outfit.

Sign Boards on the Up-road

By Hamilton B. Williams

The biggest event of this week occurred 1884 years ago. That a simple carpenter should be remembered at this late period calls for explanation. It is that he has always kept very close to the human family. If one would be forgotten let him keep aloof from human beings. It is a sure way to oblivion. God comes out into life through his own ways. In Jesus Christ God is most evident. In Jesus Christ friendship is most evident.

In these confused times a simplified form of Christ's essential teaching is tragically needed. The world has had its orgy of mechanical theories and imaginings about Jesus and quite effectually lost the world in the process. Now it is time to hear Him speak.

This is His religion, the complete love of all of the life for the lovable God, and as-much love of Other Man as we owe to ourselves.

There will come a new vision to the disciple of Jesus, and as visions may not be hidden, to people when the following ideas are made torches in religious deliberation and interpretation:

(1) Scientific study of the sacred writings with a historical perspective, with the authentic words of Jesus the final assayer of truth and authority.

(2) Recognition of evolution in man and nature; and progressive revelation.

(3) Recognition of the Immanence of God in men and nature.

(4) Socialization of the Religion of Jesus and making the saying of a "how-dye-do" as sacramental as uttering prophecy.

(5) Increased emphasis upon Friendship as test of relation with God.

(6) Character-likeness with Jesus the test of discipleship.

With these symbols there will be clear thinking.

I am minded to give my Up-road Friends a little love song. Set it to the flutes of your voices and sing it in the 3,500 homes where these words are read.

For last and for long, my dear, On the path that hath no ending, We've set our souls' adventuring

God give us joy at dawn and dusk
Of singing birds, of fragrant fields.

God give us joy in simple tasks.
God give us dreams in winter by the hearth,
Dreams opal-gummed in children's laughter.

Thing and Mine and — His.
I want the little ones to have sweet of thine eyes.

Flutes of thy voice; thy spirit's kindness;
God's clemency that is thy balm-ing heart.

And when it's time for candle, thine or mine.
To be put out, and one shall close the cottage door.

O'er which our roses clambered many a year.
Come dawn or dark beyond the margins.

We shall not anywhere be desolate.
How bleak the deserts— deep the dark.

The winds shall pipe a dream of gardens.
The dark shall flush remembering crimson dawns.

Whether the road may wind
Shall Love be courier 'tween Thee and me.

And everywhere shall be a gate to Paradise.
Yea, Sweet of the Dawn, to have remembrance.

To know thy bright-faced spirit is somewhat.
Would make, if I had nothing more.

The outmost star swinging in seas of dark.
A joyous Garden.

ALLEN'S FOOT-EASE FOR THE TROOPS

The antiseptic powder to be shaken into the shoes or used in the foot bath. Young men in every community are using Allen's Foot-Ease in their drills for Military Preparedness. Used by the Allied, French and English troops because it rests the feet, takes the friction from the shoe and makes walking easy.

THE JOHN HANCOCK MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY is purely mutual. It exists for public service only. The Company has a membership of over 2,000,000 policyholders, representing nearly every walk and station in life.

The policies range from small amounts up to $50,000, depending upon the standard of insurability, preference or premium-paying ability of the policyholders.

The expense rate is low, and represents only the service rendered. The personal attention of the Agency and Office force is always at command whenever desired, without additional cost.

The Company paid death claims in 1916 amounting to $9,505,109.65. The promptness with which payments are met is indicated by the fact that of the claims incurred, nearly 95% were paid on the day the claim papers reached the Home Office.

The total payments to policyholders since organization aggregate $168,913,191.
