A prophet is not without honor except in his own country. France from its ex-president down calls loudly for Col. Roosevelt. Undoubtedly had he been allowed to go there with his 200,000 volunteers, it would have been worth everything to the allied cause. He didn't ask to be first in command but was willing to take a subordinate position. Ex-president Clemenceau explains clearly the electrifying effect he would have had on their drooping hopes.

The continued rains have largely prevented agricultural work, and this season bids fair to be known as the latest on record.

We understand that George Rollins of this place is to lead Margaret Scott of Rexville to the matrimonial altar Decoration Day. We wish them a happy life.

Building boats as fast or faster than the submarines sink them does not solve the submarine question. We may be able to replace the boats that go down, but the cargoes of wheat and other supplies cannot be replaced. It is leading to a shortage of supplies rather than a means of transportation.

Train two on the N. Y. & P. R. R. was wrecked near Bennetts Wednesday morning. Full particulars have not been received at this writing.

MAKES IT PLAIN TO WOMEN

By JOSEPH C. LINCOLN Of the Vigilantes

Caleb Rogers, postmaster and keeper of the "general store" at Rogers' Corners, was busy sweeping out behind the frame of letter boxes the other morning when Mrs. Elvira Matthews came up to the "General Delivery" window and spoke to him. "Caleb," she said, "can you come out here a minute? I want to talk to you." Mr. Rogers emerged from behind the letter boxes and looked at her over his glasses. "Well, Elvira," he observed, "here I be. Want to free your mind, do you? All right, go ahead."

Mrs. Matthews had in her hand one of the blank forms sent out by the military census bureau at Albany. "Will you tell me," she demanded, "what on earth I am gonn' to do with that?" Caleb looked at the paper and then at her. "Sure, I'll tell you, Elvira," he said. "You're gonn' to spread it out flat on a table or some'eres, with a pen and a bottle of ink handy. Then you're gonn' to dip the pen in the ink—"
