

JUNE 16, 1917

48 YEARS AGO TODAY

The National Peace Jubilee Was Held at the Colosseum in Boston.

Had all the European countries been as anxious to keep peace with their neighbors as has the United States, this present war, the worst in the world's history, would have been averted. Peace of mind is as essential to happiness as peace between countries to their inhabitants. A bank account is a great factor toward contentment and freedom from worry.

Do not delay opening an account with us.
