

GET THIS STRAIGHT

We're in business to make money, but our system is a natural—we want you to get as much out of the transaction as we do. We want you to get clothes that fit, that last, that will today and months from now, clothes that cost you as little as quality permits.

We have found Stein-Bloch Smart and Clothcraft Guaranteed to be "100 point" clothes—that means they fully meet the standard in fit, in style, in fabric, reliability in tailoring and in full value giving.

New Spring and Summer Clothes from $12 up. The $18 and $20 are usually the merchant tailor's great made-to-measure sort for about one-half more. The medium fitting, the form fitting, belt and patch back suits for any man and young man to select from.

KNOX STRAW HATS

Are always the last and newest in vogue for smart dressers. They are not freakish, but have an absolute distinctiveness about them that makes them the distinguished straw hat for gentlemen to wear.

Straw Hats $1.50 and up.

Bankos and Panamas in varieties that cannot be excelled in the largest exclusive shops.

Don't forget the SUPERIOR UNION SUIT when you're ready for your light weight underwear. Easiest and best fitting union suit made. Superior Union Suits $1.00 and up.

GREENWOOD LOCAL BRIEFS

Vegetation is getting there now. Prospect for fruit is not good.

Dr. S. H. Bennett has gone to Albany to meet with the State Board of Health.

Farley Drake, Melvin White, Guy McMindesk Elisha Hale and Abiah Thompson attended the ball game at Wellsville, Monday. The score stood 10 to 2 in favor of New York Giants.

Glen Robins, of Whitesville, autographed to Greenwood last week and was the guest of Guy Plaisted.

Mrs. S. H. Bennett is visiting her mother at Galeton.

Mr. Carr, of South Troupsburg, was a Greenwood visitor Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Todd and daughter, of Buffalo, are visiting Mrs. Todd's sister, Mrs. V. Woodward.

Grass is a promising crop at present.

The new road from the bridge at Rough-and-Ready to the West Union town line, is nearing completion. The need justifies the improvement as the road there has been in bad shape for some time.

Mrs. Estelle Griswold is to leave soon for the new cottage her son, J. H. Goodno is building on Canandaigua Lake.

Farm help is very scarce and our farms generally are occupied by old men—the younger generation preferring city life. The products of our farms consequently will not produce what they should.

Prof. H. N. Jeffords, Miss Irene McGregor, Mrs. M. Shaw and Miss Ruth Potter motored to Shinglehouse Saturday, where Mr. Jeffords and Miss McGregor have engaged to teach the ensuing year.

Pitt Coston, of Hornell, was the guest of his parents here Monday. Riley Hale and wife, who have been on a visit of several months at their daughter's, Mrs. Wm. Langs, in Montana, have returned to their home in Greenwood.

Miss Sabra Coston has finished her course in domestic science at Mechanics Institute at Rochester, and has returned to her home in Greenwood.

The Red Cross campaign is being successfully waged.

Mrs. Wm. Young, of Buffalo is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Stephens.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Slocum, Mrs. S. C. Wingate and Miss Dorothy Slocum were in Hornell Sunday.

BEST SELLERS IN JAPAN

History, Geography and Foreign Dictionaries Are Most Popular.

Lists of new books to be published in Japan this fall, says the Des Moines Register, reveal a marked tendency toward certain lines of knowledge which are exactly in line with the recent mental development of the Japanese.

The best sellers in Japan, according to the bookmen, will be works of history and geography and foreign language dictionaries.

Japan is still seeking information about the rest of the world. The country has just finished rubbing its eyes and is still surprised and a trifle perplexed by what it sees.

The attitude of Japan toward the rest of the world is slightly like that of the imagist poets to the facts of nature. Japan suddenly realizes that beyond her shores is a vast area filled with people of different customs, different tongues and varying accomplishments. The Japanese immediately turn their attention to studying as something new what the rest of the world is familiar with. That is why the Japs are reading history and poring over dictionaries and geographies.

HORRIBLE THOUGHT.

Lazy—What's up, Hazy? What yer lookin' so worried about?

Hazy—I read a piece in de paper dis mornin' where a scientific writer says doin' nothin' all de time is de hardest kin' o' work. Heavens! suppose dat's true!

TRADEMARKS FOR LUMBER.

The work of standardization in all other building materials has developed so thoroughly that contractors have little difficulty in securing just the quality desired in steel, cement, lime, roofing and various other essentials. In structural timber, however, it is as yet difficult to get any positive standards. The Forest Products Laboratory has been advocating branding building timber with a special trademark which shall indicate its quality as thoroughly as does the trademark on other building supplies. The American Lumberman's association is co-operating in this movement, and now several of the largest lumber mills in the country are securing trademarks for their different products which shall be absolutely indicative of their quality.

ALLEGANY COUNTY AND ITS COLLEGE

Allegany County's popular college, Alfred University, completes sixty years of service as a chartered institution of higher learning in June 1917.

Few counties of the state can boast an institution of so great distinction and service to the county.

More than six thousand students from the homes of Allegany County have studied in Alfred during the years of its splendid history. This is half of its total enrollment.

Students of Alfred are in every village and township of the county. They are men and women filling high places of usefulness and service.

All over the state and nation and scattered throught the world Alfred students have carried the good name of Allegany County.

Alfred University was established to meet the needs of this section of the state. It has rendered its largest service to the county that gave it birth.

Alfred was chartered on a broad and non-sectarian basis. Any person who has subscribed the sum of $100 to the College is entitled to a vote in the election of each trustee. Alfred is a Christian college, where all faiths and creeds are received and respected alike. Alfred is giving to all, equally and generously, a high grade of literary and scientific instruction at a minimum cost.

No other institution in the county has given so generously and at so great self-sacrifice on the part of its workers such valuable service to the whole county, and at so little cost to the beneficiaries.

It costs Alfred $360 per year for each student. Of this sum the student pays $60 in tuition, unless by state or privately endowed scholarship, the tuition is paid for him. The remaining $300 is the free gift of the College, made possible by the gifts of benevolent, public-spirited persons.

The accumulations of many years aggregate over three-quarters of a million dollars in endowment and property. Half of this is endowment; the other half, buildings and equipment.

Alfred's campus is one of the show places of the county. A more beautiful and picturesque spot can scarcely be found in the state.

Wish Alfred a happy birthday!

NEW YORK'S CROP SITUATION

With everyone interested in the production of breadstuffs the crop report issued by the federal Department of Agriculture shows a more hopeful situation. The June forecast for 77,000,000 bushels of wheat in the state is about the same as the May estimate. The oat crop promises to be 9 million bushels more than last year; barley 800,000 bushels more; rye, some 200,000 bushels less.

Hay is 2 million tons less; this is largely because farmers have carried over considerable hay from last year's heavy crop, and have plowed up hay land to increase their acreage of staple crops. The apple crop promises to be short in the state by nearly 8 million barrels, which would make it only a third of last year's final estimate.

In general, these tendencies in New York parallel those of the whole country. The wheat crop may be shorter in the state than last year by more than 1 1/2 million bushels, yet in the nation as a whole it promises to be 16 million bushels more. Oats and barley are better in state and nation, and rye promises more this year for the nation, altho it falls off in the state. Hay and pasture show equivalent falling off; and the apple crop promises not much better for the country as a whole than it does for New York.

Except for hay, all June prices for farm produce are higher this year in New York, for the nation as a whole, even hay is not excepted. Wheat more than doubled in price over the same month last year, corn is about twice as high, and potatoes nearly three times as high.

When somebody's urgent need to sell is the "reason" for a for sale ad, that ad is apt to be interesting to you.

AUDITORIUM SATURDAY EVENING

As the title suggests, the gentle art of osculation forms an important part in "The Kiss," a novel photoplay-romance in which the popular screen stars, Owen Moore and Marguerite Courtot, are again associated. During the mask-d-ball, Jean, a young aviator, portrayed by Owen Moore, kisses Louise, impersonated by Marguerite Courtot, but she escapes from him before he can find out who she is. The memory of the kiss haunts Jean, who sets out upon a determined campaign of kissing in order to meet the other half of that kiss. Of course this promiscuous search on the part of Jean precipitates no end of humorous trouble, and as a result the gallant young aviator is very nearly routed by a concerted movement of indignant mothers. From this point the comedy gives way to drama with a suddenness that is as real as life itself, and among the thrilling episodes that ensue is an aeroplane flight in which the two stars take an active part.

ECONOMIC SOLACE.

"The prices demanded for almost everything are startling!" exclaimed the old-fashioned citizen.

"Yes," replied the ready reasoner; "but think what a lot you save every time you decide not to buy something!"

A UNIVERSAL FAILING.

Another thing which is the matter with the country is the wide popularity of getting money as compared with the wide unpopularity of earning it.
