ANDOVER PEOPLE VISIT VILLA BELVIDERE

The Lawn Fete and Musicale at Villa Belvidere, the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. Hoxie Clarke, given for the benefit of the Red Cross, was a pleasure to those in attendance from this place. The massive iron gates were wide to welcome the guests upon their arrival at the grounds, and their cordial appearance was in keeping with the courtesy and charming hospitality extended by Mr. and Mrs. Clarke throughout the afternoon in opening their home to the public for the benefit of this worthy cause.

The musical numbers rendered by June Reed, violinist, and Miss Laura Vankuran, soloist, with Miss Helen Wolverton, of Wellsville, accompanist, held the rapt attention of the guests who filled the spacious rooms and verandas to the limit. At this time the News is unable to state the amount realized, but the sum total must be a generous one, and the event as a social affair one of the most delightful of the season.

BIG STRAWBERRIES

H. W. Cook brought to the News Office Tuesday the largest and most delicious basket of strawberries we have ever seen or tasted. One berry weighed 3 ounces measuring around it 8 3/4 inches. They were of the Chesapeake variety.
