

Sign Boards on the Up-road

By Hamilton B. Williams

Oh, Keeper of the Light of Light Unlock your portals, wood Of men since man was aware that night Illuminated the multitude.
(My Man you light has shewed.)

Oh, Giver of the Heart's Desire Speak to our youth and age—Earth-wares seem good; is't worth—the higher—
Black hills and road for wage!
(Mark My Man's pilgrimage.)

Lord-Dreamer of the age-long Plan
(We are as moles, Most High) Give vision of your like of Man.
Rock-clefts to hide are nigh (My Man has passed you by.)

was, but of what Jesus could be toward him and do for him.
The life-task, says H. C. King, president of Oberlin, is to come into fellowship with the great souls of human history, artists discoverers, seers, heroes and saints culminating in the matchless life of Jesus; until we reflect, however imperfectly something of their character and vision of beauty and truth and God.
He has a striking phrase: "the contagion of the good life." That is why it will be utterly impossible for souls to behold Jesus and fail to be like him.
His life is the Light of Men.

And has He gone to come no more,
While we life-wildered, drawn Of shifting lights on shifting shore.
Watch 'em the star-ways wait (My Man has never gone.)

Amen, Most High, give seeing still His Light lest dark us thrall; And life for loads and staff for hill,
And mercy when we fall, (My Man's My Man for all.)

We see Life through the interpreting of it by great souls.
In making Jesus, the supreme manhood, our spiritual goal, we honor God. It is a recognition on our part that we would make the Perfect our journey's end. We honor ourselves by climbing to the topmost peaks to the eminence of the Man Christ Jesus.
The method of Jesus is scientific. He in no sense is a last resort; He is not as evasion-means of nullifying law. He saves by planting in the heart the seed of eternal life. Indeed the seed is already there needing only quickening and culture. Moreover His personal friendship is ours in the fashion of a good husbandman.

Eternal Life, any more than any other fashion of life, can not be conferred upon us. It must be developed within us according to law.

One must set out deliberately to think eternal life. It has certain elements — and one may not think how gross, sensual, selfish, ignoble, unprincipledness, falsity, bigotry, unfriendliness, hate — and the eternal life at the same time. Can one stand in darkness and affirm that he is standing in light?

Can one say he is in the fellowship of Jesus and shut out from his interest people, especially the most needy people?

Can one affirm that he knows the truth of life and do the opposite to what would be the truth of life?

Let the wall-builders think this over.

Let the clans and cliques consider.

The fellowship of Jesus was far-wider as the uttermost manand was on the basis not of what the other man thought or statements.

Mrs. J. A. Swink, Second St., Andover, says: "I think the drinking water I used when living on a farm, is what affected my kidneys and caused lame times I felt worn out and lacked energy. The chief trouble however, was with my kidneys and they caused me considerable inconvenience. I was troubled with burning on the bottom of my

THE DISAPPOINTED HUSBAND.
An officer commanding a company of Moroccans recently saw before him one of his men making signs indicating the greatest anger as he brandished a paper. "They told me," said the Moroccan, "that my wife had married again. I did not believe. I wrote to find out and here is the answer of the administrator: 'In response to your letter of May 18, I have the honor to make known to you that your wife has married one named Ramdar Mohammed.
He has placed in my hands to reimburse you the sum of 150 francs that you paid to her parents for her.'" And the Moroccan added:
'Let her quit me, that's all right.
But this new husband gives me only 150 francs. I paid 300 for her.
This is unjust. She is worth 200 francs.'"—La Cui de Paris.
