Excise Board in Hornell Closes 18 Saloons, Leaving 28 License Places, Frank Myers, Delevan House and Loder St. Sufferers

The Hornell Excise Commission filed its report designating the saloons and hotels in that city to which no liquor license can be granted after October 1st, Saturday morning, September 1st.
The members of the commis sion have spent a month delibrating on the question and have given the public every opportunity to express their opinion of the different places before select ing the 28 places that Hornell is allowed to have liquor licenses.

Loder Street was pretty well thinned out, there being only four places left, out of the founteen or fifteen that have formerly populated that street. The Delevan and Frank Myers are the only up-town places closed up.

Following are the lists as given in the report: These Places Must Close

The statement shows that the following places cannot be granted a license after the first of October:

tional Army.
Well do we realize that Andover will be well represented. The young men going from Andover are of a high type. They can safely be trusted to make a mark for themselves, and do honor to the place from whence they came. But it is fitting at this time to show to them that people recognize and appreciate the sacrifice and the danger which they are called upon to face for us. That we express to them our gratitude for the part they are soon to play in shaping the future history of the world That we take them by the hand with sincerity bid them Ged speed and good luck

The event Saturday afternoon while being under the auspices of the Andover Chamber of Commerce, is for all Andover people, both in the village and in the town. Every one is most urgent ly invited to come and "do their bit," by showing our appreciation to the boys who are soon to go from us to war.

After dinner a patriotic pro-ram has been arranged. The gram has been arranged. Andover Band will furnish I ght ul music, and patriotic songs will be sung by the community chorus lead by local voice Attorney Jesse L. Grantier, a former Andover man, will be present and furnish us with the inspiration that will help arouse the spirit of patriotism in the community.

.The object of this gathering is give every person in Andover the opportunity to meet and take by the hand each one of the boys before they go to take their places in the great Army of Free being mobilized in free dom America, to go back to the Old World and help them gain their freedom and the same rights to overn themselves that our forefathers bequeathed us.

This is not in any way to be considered a celebration. It is It has a far deeper and more significent meaning. In truth there cannot help being a sense of sadness in the gathering we say good-bye to the soldier boys.

It is regretted that all of the men called from Andover not be present. Porter W. Richardson went in the first five per cent, called lats Thursday as will not therefore be pressent.
