

The Dead Dollar

It is buried by you in some out-of-the-way place. It is a daily worry to you. It is a temptation for you and for others. Yours—to spend for something you do not need; others—to take from you. It is a constant menace to your life.

There is a place where that dollar will be a joy to you and work for you—where you can always get it and where it is safe until you need it.

That place is here.

Mrs. Catherine Walker, widow of the late Daniel Walker, one of Andover's oldest residents, passed from life Saturday, September 15th, at her residence on Barney Street.

Mrs. Walker was born in 1823 at Brelin, N. Y., and had lived a long useful life, mentally and physically well preserved beyond the average person of like years.

Of her immediate family she is survived by two grandchildren, Mrs. Minnie Scribner, of Andover and Daniel D. Walker, of Dunkirk, and one brother, Frank M. Lee.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Charles Collins, at the home, September 17th, and burial made in Hillside Cemetery.

Mrs. Anne Cline Fulmer died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. E. Clarke, September 13, 1917. She was the daughter of Cornelius and Fannie Cline, and was born at Kanona, N. Y., September 15, 1832.

When about three years of age, she, with her father's family, moved to Illinois. From Chicago to Belvidere the trip was made with ox-teams and covered wagons. Her father, one of the earliest settlers, built the first frame house in the settlement, and they endured all the hardships of pioneer life. She lived there until 1856 when she married William H. Fulmer of Fulmer Valley, N. Y. To them were born five children, two of whom, Albert and Hattie, have passed to their reward.

Beside her husband, three daughters, Mrs. Calvin Slocum, Mrs. E. E. Clarke, and Mrs. W. D. Clarke, and an aged sister, Mrs. Amanda Woodward, of Vera, Florida, remain to mourn her loss.

In early life Mrs. Fulmer united with the Presbyterian Church at Belvidere. Upon her removal to Andover, she united with the church there. She was a consistent Christian, a devoted mother, and a kind and sympathetic neighbor, and will be missed by a large circle of friends.

Mrs. Fulmer's funeral was held at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. E. Clarke, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. Rev. H. B. Williams conducted the service assisted by Dr. Walter Greene. Interment was made in the Fulmer Valley Cemetery.

Faculty for the year—Prin.—L. C. Sterner. Preceptress—Miss Hazel Strickland. Asst. Precept.—Miss Nina Holtenbeck.

Music and Drawing—Miss Annie Putnam. 6 and 7—Miss Julia Lynch. 5—Miss Caroline Hineher. 3 and 4—Miss Mary Snyder. 2 and 3—Miss Blanche Redmond.

1st Kindergarten—Miss Mildred Logan. Physical Training—Mr. Greene. Registration at present is 245, a small increase of registration over last year at this time.

Physical training seems to be the subject pursued with most enthusiasm now. Mr. Greene is bringing something new and interesting to us. As soon as the gymnasium is completed and some apparatus installed the work will be even more beneficial.

Our school bank account is now about $200. This represents the savings of our students for one year, the balance on hand. No deposits have been taken since last June. We hope that we may be able to start again next week. And when we do begin we hope that every student will take advantage of this opportunity to systematically save small (or large) amounts weekly.

LIEUTENANT KEMP NOW

1st Lieutenant and Mrs. Kemp Stop Briefly in Andover Friday Morning on Way to Washington

It will, no doubt, be of interest to many of our readers to learn that Sgt. Elmer Kemp, who they will recall, was recently appointed to the Ordnance Dpt., U. S. A., with station at Fort Omaha, Neb., has been commissioned a 1st Lieutenant in that Department and is ordered to report to Washington, D. C.

Lt. Kemp was previously offered a commission in the Infantry, but owing to injuries received in Philippine service several years ago which incapacitates him for the strenuous work required in that branch, acceptance seemed unwise, and this comes to him as a further recognition of his ability. As a token of the esteem in which he was held by his superiors the Commanding Officer made special request that he be assigned to Fort Omaha, but this was not granted and Lt. and Mrs. Kemp passed thru Andover Friday enroute to Washington.

CATHERINE WALKER

Mrs. Catherine Walker, widow of the late Daniel Walker, one of Andover's oldest residents, passed from life Saturday, September 15th, at her residence on Barney Street.
