Andover State Bank

Among those from town in attendance to "Oh Boy" that played at the Shattuck, in Hornell, Monday evening, were Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Snyder, Misses Ila Brown, Rosa Doran, Kathryn Gallagher, Mary Driscoll, Ruby Snyder and Anna Gallagher, Messrs. Robert Dean, Raymond Snyder and Leo Horan.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Rugar and son and Mr. and Mrs. P. Browster and daughter, Myrtle, and granddaughter, Lulu Slocum, took a very interesting trip thru the fruit belt, Bath, Watkins and Penn Yan, from Friday to Sunday. Burr Rugar accompanied the party from Bath.

Mrs. Lewis Rugar, of Bath, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Rugar.

Comrade George Younglove, of Costello, Pa., has been the guest of his cousin, Mrs. W. B. Hall, this week. Mr. Younglove stopped over on the way to Buffalo to visit his daughters. He is always interested in Andover and Andover people as he was raised to his majority in this town. He is in his seventy-eighth year, but is as active and young in appearance as many men in their sixties.

A. D. FULLER RESIGNS

A Change Will be Made in the Officials of the First State Bank of Canisteo

(From Canisteo Times)
The resignation of Andrew D. Fuller, cashier of the First State Bank of Canisteo, was presented to the board of directors on Thursday. The resignation was accepted at a later meeting of the board of a very desirable position as cashier of the Russell State Bank at Russell, Russell County, Kansas, and has accepted the same. He expects to leave for that place soon to take up his new duties. He went there a short time ago to investigate and was favorably impressed.

Mr. Fuller came from Andover to Canisteo as cashier of this bank a little over two years ago. He is a young man of high character, clean, progressive, popular, courteous, and is an able and efficient banker. He is also clerk of the Village of Canisteo, and he holds the confidence and esteem of everyone.

A. R. BRILLON AT CAMP DIX

A. R. Brillon visited Camp Dix last week and came home thoroughly imbued with the spirit of patriotism. He says the Andover boys are all well and getting along with the work nicely.

Mr. Brillon urges all relatives and friends of the young men hereabouts to write them often, citing as a reason for this request an incident which he noticed during this visit. He reached the camp just before mess and in time to see the distribution of mail. The smiles with which the boys received missives from home greeted the mail carriers, while the disappointment which appeared on the faces of those not so fortunate spoke volumes on which their friends at home might ponder.

The boys when asked as to their pressing needs and wants had few to mention, but Mr. Brillon states that he noticed many little things which might be supplied, and he hopes the folks at home will not overlook them.

One thing in particular Mr. Brillon feels should be sent them, that is the Andover News, and he is taking donations for that purpose. The News has made him a special price to send each man from Andover a copy of The News weekly, provided he raises enough so none will be missed.

RED CROSS

The forty-eight suits of pajamas are finished, but there is still plenty of work to do. Nearly a whole piece of white outing flannel is to be made up into bed socks and hot water bottle covers of which there is a lack. Last Thursday afternoon ten Turkish towels were hemmed, one comfort pillow and one fracture pad were made, six wash cloths cut out and hemmed and substitute handkerchiefs were torn off. Later eighteen wash cloths all finished were donated.

Fall Fashions

CAREFUL PREPARATIONS HAVE BEEN MADE IN THE ASSEMBLING OF OUR AUTUMN STOCKS. CHARMING CREATIONS OF FOREMOST FASHION PRODUCERS ARE HERE AWAITING SELECTION.

We are in the midst of a rising market. Prices do not go down—they go up. Coupled with this is the scarcity of materials. Desirable merchandise, always in demand, is hard to obtain. We are prepared with goods bought at lower prices than any store in this vicinity. The deduction is plain—come here for your fall purchases, and come now.

Seven times the test vote has been taken with increasing majorities.

What change of sentiment has taken place?

Have the Constructive Citizens demanded this appeal to the voters?

Who, for 12 years, has asked the citizens to CHANGE their well-considered decision?

Why such Diligence?

Is it Patriotism? Is it a Welfare-Program? Is it a Popular Revolution of Belief?

A new business to justify itself must contemplate the well-being of the citizens.

After 12 years without this business—12 years of prosperity—clean streets, sober men, pleasant homes, thrift, will this new business make for greater prosperity, cleaner streets, more sober men, happier homes, more thrift? If so, let's have it.

And the 12 years without it reflect on our judgment, as well as the judgment of Religious People, of Employers, of Wives, of the State, of the Nation.

Who in Andover want that which the wisest of the nations fear?

What wisdom have we here that outclasses that of Congress, the President, the Presidents of Great Industries?
