Dear Sir I have at hand several magazines from some one whom I do not know how to thank. I do not have much time to read but Saturday afternoon and Sunday. I use most of that time for answering my mail and trying to keep caught up with correspond-We are getting very hard train We have the following here.

ing calls: Reville at 6 a. mess, 6:30; fatigue, 7; first call for drill, 7:30; assembly at 7:35; ecall at 11:30; mess at 12 noon drill 1:00; recall, 5:00; retreat at 5:40; taps at 11 o'clock. So you see how busy we are ou see how busy we are.

I would be glad to answer any Sond Interesting Letters to one who wishes to correspond with me and try to answer all inquiries as far as possible.

Our mail is not censored but hard to tell when they start because they are very strict with us here. To leave camp you have to pass a very rigid exammation in military tactics.

Each and every one of us re-ceive a Hornell Tribune-Times thru the kindness of Y. M. C. A. in Hornell, and we all enjoy them yery much because it keeps us in touch with news at home.

We expect to receive sixteen weeks of this intensive training. happy tho.

and something different every hour or half hour.

I must close wishing every one in Andover the best of health and nappiness.

Fort Yukon is a trading point and supply station for the In-dian trappers. Once there was an army post there, in the days of the gold stampede to Nome. But, to-day, like all other Alas-kan towns, it is going back. When the rush stopped, when the great tidal wave buried the rich gold diggings on the Nome beach, then the need for soldiers in this God-forsaken spot was past, and
