 Statistics from Washington place the number of men under arms in the present war, not including the Navy, at 38,000,000.
 Don't grumble, after all, this doing without a few food luxuries is a mere trifle that we are asked to do for suffering, starving humanity.
 Wesley W. Walker, of Phillips Hill, died recently at the General Hospital in Wellsville. Deceased was a farmer held in highest esteem in his home town.
 Mrs. Addie Green, of Independence, has moved into rooms in the McCormick property on West Center Street. Her grandson, Elton Green, will board with her and attend our school.
 Reports from our boys at Camp Dix are to the effect that they are in a sea of mud as a consequence of the severe rains, but their barracks are comfortable and it does not interfere with the military training and spirits of the men.
 The Erie Railroad Company has unofficially announced that it is not only going to put back train No. 222, as ordered by the public service commission, but will on the same date, November 11, put back train No. 25, to run on about No. 7's old time.
 The Red Cross benefit Halloween party Tuesday night, given by the young ladies netted the Andover branch an even ninety dollars. A mighty good showing considering the unpleasant weather prevailing. The young ladies are receiving the grateful thanks of all.
 Two troopers, from the State Constabulary rode thru Andover Saturday and were brief callers. They rode fine mounts and wore the state gray uniform, with all the accoutrements of a soldier. These officers are on the lookout for any unpatriotic or illegal act and will appear in detachments here frequently.
 The Andover young ladies, promoters of the Halloween party, given as a benefit for the Red Cross Tuesday night are to be congratulated upon the success of that event. The Auditorium presented an unusually fine appearance. Its decorations of orange and black with sheets of grain and jack-o-lanterns illuminated with electric lighting, as a background for the dainty gowns of the dancers produced a most pleasing effect and reflected great credit upon the skill and labor of those designing and executing

—J. C. Darcy, of Wellsville, has been appointed chairman for Allegany County of the Federal Fuel Administration.

 In a letter received at the News Office we learn that Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hammond are located at 325 Ward Ave., Norfolk, Va., where Mr. Hammond has a good position with the Texas Oil Co., of that city. They write that they thoroughly enjoyed the trip to their new destination and are very pleasantly located.
 "Turnip greens," says an exchange, "are one of the most sustaining props of civilization, and yet no poet has ever been able to evolve a classic to the verdant food." Well, what in thunder would rhyme with "turnip greens?"
 Mr. Edison says that the clothes of the future will be so cheap that any woman can follow the fashion without feeling the expense. The saving feature of this prophecy is that Mr. Edison carefully omits to state just how close future is to the present.
CARD OF THANKS
 We desire to express our thank for the assistance and sympathy of neighbors and friends, and for the flowers sent during the illness and at the farwell service for our babe. Especially are we grateful to Mrs. C. E. Hann for kindness shown us.
 Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Baker.

VINEGAR HILL
 Our old correspondent and poet from "Vinegar Hill" has again been heard from. This time he has blossomed out with the following ode to the farmer:
 I'd like to be a farmer
 And with the farmers stand
 In mud up to my elbows,
 With a tater in each hand.
